

I' m A Quadrillionaire Chapter 18

Amelia was not in a good mood recently. Even though her family background was normal, she was cute growing up, hence her parents did everything they could to cultivate her.

Plus, she was very talented in singing and dancing. Therefore, she was always the center of attention from junior high to senior high.

It was still the same even when she was at South River University, as soon after, she became the person everyone would chase after.

She kept wandering between a few rich and handsome guys. She would let them give her all kinds of gifts just so they could get her. Someone even gave her a BMW sports car that cost hundreds of thousands. However, she did not dare to accept this and would only ever accept some of the clothes or bags.

After that, she would sell these gifts at low prices and get herself some money.

Then, she thought about streaming and getting gifts from her viewers.

In just a few months, she got more than millions in gift bonuses. She was overjoyed at the turn of events because this was much faster than selling her gifts at low prices.

However, recently she realized that these people's hearts were not on her anymore. A few of them had already got themselves partners.

More importantly, one of her two 'protectors', Leo, was also going after others.

She heard that over the past few days, he would bring Sarah to Golden Leaf Hotel. This ignited a sense of urgency within her.

She knew this kind of relationship would not last. After all, they were not fools. They had invested so much in her and they did not even get anything substantive back, so it would be better to just go after others.

With that, she made a decision tonight to hint to those who were pursuing her. As long as they could get on Rank 1, then she would go on a date with them.

She saw that one of her 'protectors' Leo was here while the other one, Jacob Carter, was not here yet. If the both of them were here, she would be able to make a fortune tonight.

When Leo heard Amelia's response, he immediately started to steal Rank 1.

He looked at the total amount of gifts on Rank 1 and he saw it was 780 thousand bucks. It was all from Jacob.

He was at Rank 2 and he had spent about 400 thousand, which meant that if he gave her another 400 thousand, he would be able to get Rank 1.

Of course, he had to do it without Jacob around.

He had given out more than two million of gifts over these two years. However, he had only fooled around with a few small streamers with this money.

Speak of the devil.

Jacob's ID Jacob the Brave entered the stream at this moment.

His Level 380 account immediately pushed Leo lower down the rank the moment he entered.

“Ames, I’m here!” Jacob immediately commented.

“Welcomme, Jacob! Thank you for your support!”

“Ames, I’m prepared today. I will definitely bring you on that date with me.”

“Jacob, I’ll be waiting for you!”

Leo’s comment interrupted both of them.

“Jacob, old boy, I’m still here. Don’t be so proud yet. It will be embarrassing for you if you fail.”

“Leo, old chap, I never saw you as my competition. Let’s see who’s the stronger one now.”

Even though the two of them said that, their hearts were racing in their chests. Their family backgrounds were almost the same and they were not fools.

If they continued this, both sides would suffer. However, they had no choice. When they thought about Amelia’s soft and weak body and her seductive voice, the two of them felt as if they were given adrenaline shots.

No more nonsense!

They started launching Super Rockets.
