

I' m A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang chapter 281

Chapter 281

“You’re... David?” Zachary asked with wide eyes when he saw David’s appearance.

“Why? You thought I was killed by someone you hired for a billion dollars? Sorry for disappointing you,” David said with a smile.

“You... You... How are you here?” Zachary asked.

“How am I here? I’m here to fight back, of course. Since you’re ready to kill me, can’t I fight back?”

“Mr. Quinn, hurry up and call the head of the family!” Mac said.

Zachary quickly took out his phone, but when he looked at it, he saw that there was no signal.

He then tried to make a call but realized that he could not call anyone.

“Mac, my phone has no signal,” Zachary said anxiously.

Mac took out his phone and found that there was no signal either.

Huh?

How did David do it?

He could actually cut off the signal in this area!

“Zachary, stop making an unnecessary struggle. Originally, there was no feud between us. I was just trying to save the Luther siblings and that’s why I blocked your blow, but you wanted to kill me. Am I just an ant that you can crush whenever you want in your eyes?” David’s tone grew heavier and heavier.

“D-David, don’t do anything stupid. I’m the heir to the Quinn family. If you kill me, the Quinns will never forgive you.”

“The heir? Only the living is called the heir—can the dead still be called the heir? Zachary, don’t you understand? Can the Quinns block the road and cut off the signal in this area? If I can do it, do you think the Quinns can afford to provoke me?”

“Zachary, run! Go back to the club and find T-man Stan, now only he can save you!” Mac yelled at Zachary.

David was right. The Quinn family could not block the road and cut off the signal in this area, and the Quinn family could not afford to offend anybody who could do such a thing.

Since the Quinn family could not afford to offend them, then what would be the use of informing the head of the family.

Mac only knew one person who could save Zachary now, and that was T-man Stan from the T Faction.

After saying this, Mac rushed to David without hesitation. He had already felt the murderous intent from David, and he wanted to use his body to buy some time for Zachary.

Zachary reacted and hurriedly prepared to run back to the car.

However, he only got to the side of the car and did not have time to get inside.

Bang!

Mac’s body flew backward and hit the windshield of the car.

A Tiger Rank expert who had not even reached the peak of the rank was not David’s opponent. With just one blow, Mac had completely lost his ability to fight.

“M-Mac?” Zachary was already scared to death.

Mac was a master who had followed him for many years, and now he could not even last one round with David?

David walked slowly toward Zachary.

“D-David, what are you trying to do?” Zachary asked, stammering.

“Zachary, you are a man, so if you have the balls to do something, you must be ready to take responsibility for the consequences.”

“D-David, please spare me. I was wrong! I apologize to you! I’ll give you money! You can have as much as you want.”

Zachary said while shaking, but one of his hands secretly reached into his trouser pocket.

Then, he quickly pulled out a gun to try to shoot David.

However, David had such strong mind power that Zachary naturally could not hide his sneaky movement from him.

When Zachary took out his gun and was about to point it at David, David had already rushed to Zachary with a burst of energy from his feet.

Then, he hit Zachary right in the chest.

Thump!

“Ah!”

David was so powerful now that even Tucker, the Tiger Rank master, was killed by him with one blow.

What would become of Zachary, a person at first-class peak level?

Zachary only felt severe pain. Suddenly, his body flew backward as if it had fallen apart. He landed after flying 20 to 30 meters away.

One could see the power of this blow.

At this moment, Zachary felt as if all his internal organs were burning and blood was pouring out of his mouth. He wanted to get up, but after struggling twice, he became quiet.

With that, one of the eight great fighters of the T Faction, Zachary Quinn, the heir of the Quinn family in Capital City, died.

I' m A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang chapter 282

Chapter 282

Quinn Manor.

Zachary's body lay in the middle of the huge living room.

At one side, a middle-aged woman was crying while holding Zachary's body.

“My Zach, you died so tragically!”

The head of the Quinn family, Luis Quinn, stood at one side with a murderous look on his face.

“How is Mac? Is he awake?” Luis asked, suppressing his anger.

“Sir, Mac was seriously injured and is still in a coma,” the Quinns' butler replied.

“What the hell is going on? Can someone explain it to me? How did Zach die on the way back? Who the hell has the guts to do this? Huh?” Luis roared.

He was indeed furious now that his most beloved son had died. Moreover, he died right under his nose. Right now, he did not even know who the murderer was.

It was a slap to the Quinns’ face.

“Sir, we don’t know what happened. We just received a strange call asking us to pick up Mr. Zachary. In the end, when we went there, we saw Mr. Zachary’s corpse while Mac was also in a coma.”

“Look up the phone number!”

“We did, but we couldn’t find anything.”

“Then mobilize all of the forces of the family right now! Find out where Zach went since yesterday and investigate the places thoroughly. I want to see who has the balls to do this. Do they really think the Quinns are cowards?”

“Yes, sir.”

After the butler answered, a voice stopped him just as he was about to carry out his task.

“Wait.”

Then, an old man with gray hair walked into the living room.

“Dad, you came just in time. Zach was killed! That murderer is so bold that he dares to touch the Quinn family’s heir in Capital City. If I don’t kill him, how will the Quinns maintain their foothold in Capital City in the future?” Luis said while suppressing his sadness.

“Old Master,” the butler also called out.

The person who came was the previous head of the Quinn family, Zachary’s grandfather and Luis’ father, Old Master Quinn.

“Butler, dispose of Zach’s body first. Tell the public that Zach died of a sudden illness,” old Master Quinn said to the butler.

“Huh? Old Master, this...” The butler did not know how to answer for a while.

“No! Dad, Zach died so tragically. How can you do this? He was obviously killed by someone. We must find the murderer and avenge Zach. I want to destroy his family and bury them all alongside Zach,” Zachary’s mother raised her head and shrieked with a malevolent expression on her face.

Her only son died like this, so what was the point of her living anymore? She only wanted to avenge Zach now and turn the whole family of the person who killed Zach into burial offerings for him.

Luis also came back to his senses at this time.

However, he was not as emotional as his wife.

As the head of the Quinn family, he still had a discerning eye.

His father obviously knew the inside story, but he still chose to do this.

Hence, there had to be something fishy going on.

Could it be that the enemy was so strong that the Quinns could not afford to provoke them?

Luis thought about the families in Capital City which the Quinns could not afford to mess with.

“Dad...” Luis wanted to ask something.

However, he was interrupted by Old Master Quinn.

“Butler, do as I say. Everyone else, shut up. Luis, come in with me.”

After Old Master Quinn finished speaking, he walked toward the living room.

I’ m A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang chapter 283

Chapter 283

Luis followed suit.

Meanwhile, Zachary’s mother held Zachary’s body and refused to let go. The butler did not know what to do, so he could only stand in the living room and wait.

Upon entering the room, Old Master Quinn sat on the sofa and took a deep breath.

“Dad, what the hell is going on? Who the hell did Zach provoke?” Luis asked.

“Luis, let’s just end this here. Handle the matter well and don’t ask about the rest,” Old Master Quinn said wearily.

“Dad, I don’t understand. Zach died so tragically. Don’t I deserve to know who the enemy is as the head of the family? Also, how are we going to explain this to the Shorons? Zach is the heir to the family and we have an agreement with the Shorons. Even if the one who killed Zachary is from one of the top aristocratic families, we can’t just let them off the hook like this. Doesn’t Zach still have a good relationship with Stan from the Warner family? As long as we work together, no one will be able to take us on,” Luis said emotionally.

He could not accept his father’s stance on the matter. His father even refused to tell him who the enemy was.

“Luis, it’s better to not know certain things. Choose the best one from your stable of illegitimate children and bring him back to be the next heir to the Quinn family. Also, you should take care of your wife properly. The Shorons only wanted to be joined nominally, so as long as the man is an heir to the Quinn family, they will be fine with it. And as for the Warners, they won’t dare to involve themselves in this.”

“What? How is it possible that even the Warners don’t dare to get involved?” Luis asked in disbelief.

The Warners were the top aristocratic family in Capital city. They were even among the top families in all of Somerland.

How strong was the other party if the Warners did not dare to get involved?

Luis could not believe that Zachary actually provoked a person with such an identity.

“So, although Zach died tragically, if he caused the entire family to fall from grace, he would be treated as a sinner,” Old Master Quinn said.

“Dad, I still want to know who did it.” “So what if you did know who it was?”

“At least I’ll know who the enemy in the shadows is. Even if I don’t avenge Zach now, I might have a chance in the future.”

“You fool! Don’t even think about revenge! If not, I’ll take away your title as the head of the family right now!” Old Master Quinn scolded with a serious look on his face.

“But... But I’m unconvinced! The son that I’ve cultivated for so many years was harmed, and as his father, I don’t even know who the enemy is!” Luis said, sitting dispiritedly on the sofa.

Old Master Quinn looked at Luis. He knew if he did not tell Luis, Luis might go and look into the matter himself. When that happened, the entire family would be affected.

He sighed and said in one breath, “The person who did this is the spirit of Somerland Falcon.”

When Luis heard that, he felt as if he had been struck by thunder.

The spirit of Somerland?

It was the spirit of Somerland!

As the top family in Capital City, the head of the Quinn family naturally knew the meaning of this.

If the other party was ‘a top family in Capital City, he could work with the Shorons and the Warners to fight with them.

However, if the other party was Falcon, the spirit of Somerland, then he should not even consider it. The Shorons and the Warners would not take part in this, and even if they did, they would only meet one ending and it was to be uprooted from Capital City.

In Somerland, there were two organizations that they could not offend.

That was the spirit of Somerland-Falcons, and also the soul of Somerland-the Special Task Force.

Not only did they represent power, but they were also the protectors of the entire country.

Right now, whenever someone excellent appeared in one of the top families, the families would do everything they could to send that person into Falcon and the Special Task Force.

If they could join these two organizations, they would act as another layer of protection for the family.

Even if they would not get involved in the fight between families, they would serve as a deterrent just by being member of one of the organizations. No one would dare to badly offend that family.

Unfortunately, they did not have someone like that in the Quinn family.

“H-How is that possible? How could Zach offend someone from Falcon?” Luis sat limply on the sofa and murmured.

Right now, he was not thinking about how to avenge Zachary, instead, he was thinking about whether this would affect the entire family.

Old Master Quinn was helpless right now too. He only accepted a phone call from the cabinet minister of Capital City saying that Zachary attempted to assassinate someone from Falcon and he deserved to die.

The cabinet minister also told the Quinns not to make any mistakes or else they would be uprooted completely.

I' m A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang chapter 284

Chapter 284

The next morning, Minnie and her family went to Sam's house.

Then, they showed Sam's family the information about Pearl they found on the Internet.

Sam and his family were overjoyed when they saw that.

Pearl was now worth tens of billions?

Billy and his wife could not understand the concept of a net value of tens of billions.

However, Sam explained it to them in another way. Pearl was now the richest person in their city, and she was the person who held the most money.

The person in charge of the city should respect Pearl when they saw her because she could bring investment to the local area and drive local economic development.

Billy and his wife, who had worked on the farm all their lives, almost fainted.

She was bringing honor to her ancestors!

Sam finally determined that Pearl was in Springfield after searching the Internet. He even found the exact location of her company, which was East League International.

The six of them rushed to the city. When they arrived, Sam proposed that they take a plane. According to what he said, Pearl was a big shot now, so as her family, they should not embarrass her.

After getting everyone's approval, they flew directly to Springfield and went to the office building of East League International.

"Billy, I think you should apologize to Pearly. After all, she is your daughter, so she won't ignore you," Mrs. Fuller persuaded.

"Apologize to her? What a joke. I gave birth to her and raised her, yet I still have to apologize to her? Have you ever seen fathers apologize to their children? If she won't give us an explanation today, I'll cause a fuss here. Isn't she the general manager? I'd like to see if she still has the face to serve as the general manager here if I were to do that," Billy said angrily.

For more than a month, he has been holding a grudge inside his chest. Pearl was living her best life out there while their family was miserable back home.

"Dad, calm down! Let's be reasonable adults. You can't talk like that anymore when we see Pearl later. If she leaves quietly like last time again, how will we find her again? Now that she farming again?" Sam also persuaded.

He did not want to go back to farming.

Those days were so torturous.

More importantly, what was the future of farming?

How much money could he make from that in his lifetime?

"Yeah, honey. When you see Pearly, talk nicely to her, she won't turn her back on us. After all, she's our daughter," Leigh also chimed in. The two had been married for decades, so she knew Billy's temper very well. He was a chauvinist, and it was because he was deeply influenced by the older generation.

He had a fire in his heart now, so it would probably be difficult for him to talk to his daughter nicely, let alone apologize to his daughter. It was simply impossible!

He was the head of the family, and since there were only a few members in the family, it didn't matter who he talked to, he would sound high and mighty. Only his son, Sam, dared to refute anything he said; Pearl and her mother would not dare to question him at all.

"Humph!!!" Billy said nothing.

Mr. Fuller and Mrs. Fuller were relieved when they saw this.

According to Billy's attitude just now, this meeting would probably have ended badly. When that happened, they would have to go back in despair without gaining any benefits.

With Sam in lead, the gang entered the building of East League International and came to the front desk.

At the front desk of the East League International Group stood four tall pretty girls dressed in professional black suits.

"May I know who you are looking for?" One of the girls asked politely.

"I'm looking for my daughter," Billy replied.

"I'm looking for my sister," Sam also replied.

"Does your sister work here? Have you informed her that you'll be here?"

"My sister's name is Pearl Warner and she's the general manager here. I'm her younger brother. My name is Sam and these are her parents."

Sam pointed to Leigh and Billy who had just spoken.

"Oh? Are you Ms. Warner's family?" The four girls at the front desk asked in shock.

Who was Pearl?

The number two of the East League International Group and the brightest upstart in the investment world today.

I' m A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang chapter 285

Chapter 285

It was said that she was worth tens of billions.

So why was her family dressed like this?

Were they from the countryside?

How was this possible?

Were they liars?

However, if what the other party said was true, it would be better to call and ask Ms. Warner to confirm. Otherwise they would get into trouble.

“Please wait, I’ll call Ms. Warner right now).”

The girl at the front desk started making calls.

“Hello, this is the general manager’s office.”

“Hello, Miss Rockwell, this is the front desk. Several guests are looking for Ms. Warner. They say that they are Ms. Warner’s family.”

“Oh? Ms. Warner’s family? Let them wait for a while. I’ll ask Ms. Warner,” Suzanne Rockwell said.

Pearl was sorting out her documents in the office. She had been really busy these days.

They were both the matter of the foundation and also the matter of the investments to attend t

Knock knock knock!

Knock knock knock!

Suddenly, there was a knock on the door.

“Please come in.”

Suzanne pushed the door open and said, “Ms. Warner, there are several guests at the front desk looking for you. They say they’re your family.”

“My family?” Pearl lifted her head to stare blankly ahead.

In an instant, she remembered Sam and the gang.

She knew that once she became famous and went on television, they would definitely look for her, but she did not expect it to be so soon.

“Yes, Ms. Warner,” Suzanne said, leaving the office

Sam and the others were led into the conference room by Suzann. Then, she made tea for each of them before saying, “Please wait here, everyone. Our general manager will be here soon.”

After that, she left

With that, Sam and the others were left waiting in the conference room. However, they did not see Pearl coming in after waiting for a long time. They were a little anxious, but they did not dare to run around. After all, they were all people from a small town and they had never seen many aspects of society.

Ten minutes later... Pearl was not here.

Half an hour later... Pearl was not here.

An hour later... Pearl was still not here!

Slam!

Billy could not take it anymore and he slammed his hand down on the conference table. Pearl obviously did not care about them.

“Sam, you go straight to your sister’s office to get her. She’s such a rebel now, huh?”

“Dad, let’s just wait. Maybe Pearl is busy with important things. A general manager has a lot of things to do every day. Besides, I don’t think I can find where sister’s office anyway. It’s such a big building, so what if I get lost? I won’t even be able to find my way back.”

“What’s more important than seeing us? She obviously doesn’t want to see us! She is just giving us a show of strength!”

“Let’s just wait. Pearl will definitely come. She can’t make us stay in this conference room forever.”

“Yeah, let’s just wait, Billy. Maybe Pearly is really busy,” Mr. Fuller also said.

An hour and a half later...

Two hours later...

The door to the conference room finally opened.

I' m A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang chapter 286

Chapter 286

The door to the conference room opened and Pearl walked in with a serious face.

“Pearl,” Sam called out with a smile.

Pearl ignored Sam and did not greet anyone. Then, she sat directly in the main seat.

Billy was fuming when he saw Pearl's rudeness. Aside from leaving them here for so long, she did not even greet them when she walked in. He was used to punishing Pearl ever since she was a child, so he thought that Pearl was still the same as before. He thought that as long as he lost his temper, she would be afraid of him.

“You punk, you're all grown up now, huh? You left us to suffer at home and you didn't even send money home, yet you are enjoying yourself here. Do you want to get beaten up again?” Billy scolded.

As Pearl's father, he thought that by giving birth to Pearl, he was entitled to control everything about her.

He was naturally seething when he saw Pearl enjoying herself here while they were suffering at home.

“I told you I won't give you a penny again. I have paid off your debt of raising me. Over the years, I couldn't even bring myself to eat and buy new clothes because you took all of my money. And what happened in the end?” Pearl said expressionlessly.

Billy trembled with anger at Pearl's words. Then, he stood up and pointed at Pearl to say, “Paid off? Do you think you can pay it off? We gave birth to you, and if you want to pay it off, you have to give your life back to us too.”

“I wish you hadn't given birth to me back then. Other children are loved by their parents. What about me? What else did you do for me besides telling me to work, beat, and scold me?"

"I should have strangled you when I gave birth to you!" Billy said with a red face.

"I think that thought must have appeared in your head the moment I was born and you saw that I was a girl. However, you didn't have the balls to do so. As for giving my life back to you? I'm sorry, there are no laws stating that parents have the right to take back their children's lives after giving birth to them. The moment I stepped into this world, my life belonged only to me."

"You... You... You unfilial thing!" Billy was so angry that he struggled to catch his breath. He could hardly stand still.

"Honey, breathe!" Leigh supported Billy and said.

She looked at Pearl who was still calm.

Pearl had changed

Pearl had completely changed!

She did not even know them anymore!

"Dad, Pearl, can you stop fighting and start talking nicely to each other?"

Sam advised.

Then, he said to Pearl, "Pearl, Dad is just mad and he doesn't have anywhere to vent. You should just leave him be. Do you know what kind of life we're living now? We can't even eat anymore. Also, we have to do physical labor everyday. Look at the calluses on my hands. The money to come here was also sponsored by Minnie's parents."

"What does that have to do with me? You asked for this. How much money have I sent back home all these years after scrimping and saving? Plus, your tuition fee is at least six hundred thousand, right? This amount is enough for you to buy two houses in the county. In that case, who can you blame now that you're living like this?"

"Pearl, it's all my fault. However, I've changed. Can't you give me another chance?"

"Enough. I don't want to listen to you cry about your difficulties to me. I know the reason why you're here. You're here for money, right? I'm telling you now, I have money but I won't give you a penny. If you want money, go make it yourself. That's all. I am busy so go back to where you come from."

After Pearl said that, she got up to leave.

"Pearl, are you going to be so cruel?"

"I'm cruel? Have you ever thought about the fact that your sister was starving and freezing when you were gambling away the tuition fee I lent you? I only ate one meal per day. I just wanted you to grow to be more mature, but in the end, what happened? What's the return you gave me?"

"... .." Sam did not know how to answer at that moment.

He was indeed a scoundrel back then.

"You punk! You've grown now, you have money, and you're a big boss. Do you think we're embarrassing you, and that's why you want to abandon us? Let me tell you, no way. You want to disown us? Okay! Don't you have hundreds of millions now? Give us 100 million and we won't come to you anymore. If not, we'll make a fuss in your company. I'd like to see if a general manager like you can still continue to work here if that were to happen."

Billy pointed at Pearl as he roared.

Pearl did not speak.

It would be meaningless to say anything more.

These people who were the closest to her would never understand how much she suffered back then.

I' m A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang chapter 287

Chapter 287

They would only call to ask for money, and they never once asked how she was doing.

No matter how much she gave up for this family, and no matter how horrible Sam was, her position in the family would still be miles away from his.

It was all because she was a girl and Sam was a boy.

In Billy's opinion, girls would need to get married off while boys could carry on the family name.

Therefore, he could just take whatever he wanted from her and then allow Sam to squander it.

Pearl immediately took out her phone to make a call.

"Suzanne, come to the conference room."

"Alright, Ms. Warner."

Suzanne, the secretary to the general manager, pushed open the door of the conference room.

"Ms. Warner, what can I help you with?"

"Bring them out, and if they don't cooperate, call some of the security guards for help. If they make a fuss in the company or in front of the company, call the cops straight away and say they are disturbing our operations, causing huge losses to the company. Just sue them and make them stay a few days in the holding cell." After Pearl said that, she turned around and left the conference room without even looking back.

What?

Sam was stunned.

Billy was stunned.

Leigh was stunned.

The Fullers were also stunned.

How could Pearl do this?

She did not see them as her family anymore.

Minnie and her parents did not experience Pearl's pain, so they could not understand why she was doing this.

To them, even if there was a huge conflict, they were still family. Since Pearl was loaded now, she should definitely take care of Sam and her parents.

With Pearl's current wealth, they could live like the upper-class back in their village if she was willing to sponsor them some money.

However, this was beyond their expectations.

Not only did Pearl refuse to sponsor them, she even wanted to sue them.

After this, Billy and his family finally realized that Pearl had changed.

She was not the same person they could scold or beat up before.

Now, she was General Manager Warner, and she was a big shot.

However, they still could not accept this.

It was initially an honor and a good thing for their family that their daughter had achieved this.

They could ride on her coattails just like everyone said.

They had been working hard for half of their lives and they could enjoy the rest of their lives alongside Pearl now.

However, they ruined the opportunity themselves.

Of course, they might not have realized that their beatings, scolding, lies, and endless taking had caused Pearl to become so heartless.

It was all because she was emotionally exhausted that her heart had turned cold.

I' m A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang chapter 288

Chapter 288

Billy and the others left.

They had to leave under the deterrence of several large men in the security department.

After all, they were people from a small town, and they had never seen many aspects of society.

They could not do anything if Pearl decided to go head-on with them.

They did not dare to make trouble at East League International. The security guards were not to be trifled with, and when they saw the large men, they were all scared. Besides, if things escalated, they might even be forced to stay in a holding cell for a few days.

After two months of experience, Pearl already had the deterrent of a powerful woman.

They did not dare to gamble on whether Pearl would really sue them.

Thus, they could only leave in despair.

It was absolutely impossible for Billy and his wife, who had been farmers all their lives, to do something like break the law. If they were to stay in the holding cell for a few days, they would not be able to hold their heads up in the village for the rest of their lives, and even after they died, they would not be able to face the Warner ancestors.

This time, they came with excitement and returned with disappointment. Minnie's parents were even angrier. Not only did they not get any benefits, but they also had to pay for the commute.

Pearl stood by the window of her office. She was a little dazed as she watched them leave.

It was not that she was heartless.

However, she knew that she could not allow this to happen.

At least not now.

She had lived with them for so many years and she knew her family too well.

If she gave in today, then they would keep asking for more, forming an endless loop. Moreover, the amount would only keep getting bigger.

When she first started working, she would send 500 dollars back home every month. Then, gradually they started to ask for an increment for various reasons. From one thousand to two thousand, and then five thousand, ten thousand, and in the end, twenty thousand.

Even so, they were still not satisfied and wanted to ask for more.

In their hearts, their daughter would be married sooner or later, so before she got married, all the money she earned should be handed over to them.

Otherwise, they did not know which rascal would benefit from her in the future.

When she thought about this, Pearl thought of David again.

She worked hard just because she wanted to get closer to David.

However, closer she got to him, the more hopeless she became. It felt like it did not matter how hard she tried, it would be impossible to gain the support of David's family.

The background of the David family was too deep; they could just spend hundreds of billions of dollars casually—and the amount was still increasing. In such a top-tier wealthy family, his family would definitely arrange everything for him, even marriage. David might not be able to make his own decisions.

However, after meeting David, who else could interest her anymore?

The answer was nobody.

Perhaps she was doomed to grow old alone.

She felt a little irritable when she thought of this question. 'Let's not think about it for now, we'll just take it one step at a time.'

As for Sam and the others.

If her parents continued to behave like this, she could only wait until they grew so old that they could not move and scold people before she went back to see them. Then, she would hire two caretakers for them and finally let them enjoy the rest of their lives.

As for Sam, since he could gamble the money she gave him for tuition, who could ensure that the money would not disappear this time as well? It was not the money he made himself with hard work, so he would not feel the pain of wasting it.

Thus, she would wait until he got married and matured a little so he could understand his sister's difficulties, and then she would see how she could help him out.

That day, there was an earthquake in the upper-class circle of Capital City.

Especially in the TFaction.

Zachary, one of the eight great fighters, had died suddenly.

I' m A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang chapter 289

Chapter 289

Who would believe it?

Zachary was at the first-class peak level, so his body was naturally strong. Moreover, a person of this level would have his body checked almost every month and he would not die suddenly.

However, the Quinns released the news themselves. They even randomly get one of Luis' illegitimate sons from outside to replace Zachary as the Quinns' heir.

No one could believe this.

Zachary must be dead.

As for how he died, everyone was still unclear. Only a small number of people knew a little bit about the situation, but even then they did not know too much.

However, what everyone was clear about was that he certainly did not die from a sudden illness as the Quinns said.

More and more people became curious about the cause of Zachary's death and began to inquire, but they did not get any results.

Even people who knew a little about it did not dare to speak openly. After all, the forces involved were too scary and everyone was afraid of getting implicated in the matter.

Capital City

The Great Wall Club.

The core of T Faction all come together.

The death of one of the eight great fighters was no small matter within T Faction.

"T-man, how did Zachary die? The Quinns said it was a sudden illness, but how is that possible? We asked around and couldn't find out the reason. Maybe our level was too low, so can you help us dispel our doubts?" Asked Hank, one of the eight great fighters of T Faction.

"Yeah, we all want to know how Zachary died. We're all from T Faction and it's obvious that there's something fishy going on since the Quinns put out this smoke bomb. We can pay more attention to the matter once we understand it better," another one of the eight great fighters said.

"Please dispel our doubts, T-man!" "Please dispel our doubts, T-man!"

“Please dispel our doubts, T-man!”

The rest of the eight great fighters said as well.

Stan took a sip of his tea and said, “Zachary provoked someone that he shouldn’t have, and he was killed. As for who it was, I can’t say. The Quinns put out this smoke bomb because they can’t provoke the person either. If they continued to pursue this, the entire Quinn family would be annihilated.”

Everyone was shocked when they heard what Stan said.

Although they also guessed that Zachary might have died of homicide, they were still a little shocked when they heard it from Stan.

Since the Quinns did not even dare to do anything after the death of their heir, it was clear that the identity of the person Zachary offended this time was overbearing.

The ones present, except for T-man Stan, had family strengths similar to Zachary’s. Even if they were strong, they were not much stronger than him.

In other words, if they provoked the person, they would only end up like Zachary. They would be dying in vain if they lost their lives pursuing this. This made them nervous. After all, it happened in Capital City. If any of them accidentally bumped into that person out there, it would be the end for them. At this moment, everyone decided to keep a low profile during this period and avoid going out if possible.

Even if they went out, they could not be as arrogant as before.

“T-man, then we should be fine, right?”

“Don’t worry, this is just his personal behavior, and it has nothing to do with our T Faction, but everyone should keep a low profile for now because that person is still in Capital City. You might meet him one day without even knowing it.”

“Huh? Oh, alright, I’ve decided. Don’t ask me out in for now anymore. I want to lock myself in my room and train so that I can get into Tiger Rank sooner,” Hank said seriously.

“I second that motion!”

“I second that motion!”

“I second that motion!”

The rest of the eight great fighters said.

“Alright, don’t gather for the time being. Stay home and practice your martial arts. It’s embarrassing to not be in the Tiger Rank,” Stan said firmly in the end.

The ten-year appointment was coming, and he did not want these people to make any more mistakes.

I’ m A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang chapter 290

Chapter 290

Howard was on his way to the airport.

He had called chancellor Oliver and told him that he was going to defer his study to go overseas.

of course, Oliver did not agree because Howard was the face of South River University and he was also the president of the student council. If he left, wouldn’t it mean that South River University could not keep its talents ?

As a chancellor, Oliver would definitely not agree to something that would ruin South River University’s reputation.

However, Howard had made up his mind to leave and it was useless no matter what Oliver said. Oliver even started threatening Howard, but he still could not change Howard’s decision to leave.

In the end, he had no choice but to agree. However, he asked Howard to come back soon to finish his studies.

Even though Howard agreed, he still had to wait and see before deciding if he would come back.

If Zachary was able to take down David, he might be able to come back in two days.

If Zachary could not take down David, then he would not know when he would be able to come back.

His life was more important than his studies.

At this moment, he received a call. It was from his childhood friend, and they were both Zachary's lackeys.

"Howie, Mr. Quinn is dead!"

Zachary was dead!

Howard shivered and almost dropped his phone.

"I-I got it. We'll talk next time," Howard said and hung up the phone.

Zachary was dead?

It must be David!

Damn, this was so f*cking scary!

No, he had to leave as soon as possible.

It was possible David was looking for him.

"Mom, c-can you drive faster?" Howard stammered.

"Howie, what's wrong with you? You looked absent-minded since yesterday and you even suddenly said you want to go overseas. Plus, you want to leave so quickly too. What happened? Tell me," Mrs. Jackson asked.

Howard thought about it and decided to tell his mother the truth. If David decided to come after him, they would at least be prepared.

So, he said, "Mom, I just received news that the oldest son of the Quinn family died. Do you know how he died? He was killed. Also, I know the murderer. We have beef because of Mr. Quinn. He came to me yesterday, and today, I got the news that Mr. Quinn is dead. I'm worried that he'll come to cause trouble for me so I can only go overseas to hide from him."

"Zachary, the oldest son from the Quinn family?" Mrs. Jackson asked.

"Yeah!"

Mrs. Jackson slammed on the brakes and stopped the car on the side of the road. "Are you sure?"

"I'm sure," Howard answered seriously.

Mrs. Jackson took out her phone to make a call.

“Bruce, did something happen to the Quinns?” Mrs. Jackson asked after the call went through.

Then, she silently listened to what the other person said.

“Alright, I got it. Get back to work, I’m going to send our son to the airport. Yeah, we’ll talk after I go back.”

Mrs. Jackson hung up the phone and said seriously to Howard. “Tell me everything that happened between you two.”