

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 1637

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1637 -In the case of a love interest, Remy didn't want to leave Wiltspoon any further because he was afraid that if he did, Elisa would become Andrew's girlfriend when he returned.

"I also need to go back to accompany the old master."

Elisa understood.

"Elisa, are you willing to accompany me back?" Remy asked.

He really wanted to take Elisa back to show the elders at home.

Even the elders knew that he had someone he liked in Wiltspoon and had seen Elisa's photos, but they hadn't seen Elisa in person.

Elisa was such a carefree person, but she blushed because of Remy's words, she said: "We haven't officially got together yet, it's still early to see our parents." "...When you pass my mother's test, I can go back with you to meet your parents at any time."

Remy's eyes were full of disappointment, and soon he rekindled his fighting spirit, smiling gently: "I hope that day doesn't have to wait too long, I will definitely break through Pass the aunt's test."

After working hard, if he still couldn't pass the test, he could only ask his parents, brother and sister-in-law to come forward.

At this time, the waiter knocked on the door holding a bouquet of flowers.

After seeing the waiter come in, Remy got up and took the bouquet of flowers from the waiter.

Then Remy handed the bouquet of flowers to Elisa, looked at her affectionately, and smiled, "Elisa, I ordered this bouquet in advance, I went to pick you up at Bucham's just now, I can't go there with a bouquet."

Elisa smiled and took the bouquet, "I can receive several bouquets of flowers from you every day."

Remy's flower offensive was very violent.

He sent flowers to Elisa several times a day.

In addition to sending flowers, there were also various gifts. In short, he was trying his best to please her.

Let her taste what it's like to be pursued and held in the palm of someone's hand.

Sweet, happy and intoxicating.

Remy: "As long as you like it and you are happy, that's fine."

Elisa: "I like it and I'm also very happy. I can receive flowers from you every day. I'm in a good mood every day."

Remy reached out and shook her hand, "Elisa, my biggest wish is that I can be by your side every day and make you happy every day. Your smile is bright and sweet, shining into my heart like sunshine. Being with you, I feel I'm the happiest man in the world."

Remy was also good at sweet words.

Elisa was delighted to hear that, wishing she could marry him right away.

"Ring, ring, ring..."

When the two of them were in love, Elisa's cell phone rang.

Elisa put down the bouquet, picked up the bag, and took out the phone from the bag.

Looking at the caller ID, she hurriedly made a booing gesture to Remy, and said, "It's my mother calling."

She answered the call from her mother.

"Mom." Elisa called out sweetly.

Mrs. Stone on the other side of the phone asked her: "Elisa, haven't you and Serenity come back yet? Good news for you, Jasmine is pregnant."

Hearing this, Remy's eyes were full of envy. However, he soon thought of something, and the envy faded a little.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 1638

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1638 -They were all very happy, Josh was very nervous, and he regarded Jasmine as a national treasure.

Mrs. Stone smiled: "That's natural, Josh is the first married in his generation, the child in Jasmine's womb It is the first person of the grandchildren, and the Bucham family must attach great importance to it."

The first child was always particularly expected and valued.

“How is Serenity?” Mrs. Stone thought that Serenity was not pregnant yet, and Jasmine was pregnant during her honeymoon, and worried that she would feel bad.

Elisa recalled Serenity’s reaction, and said, “She looks normal to me, Mom, you don’t have to worry about Serenity anymore, she has already seen it, let nature take its course, and no longer want to get pregnant impatiently. Besides, we are so busy, she doesn’t have the time and thought to think about having a baby.”

Before, Serenity only took care of her and Jasmine’s bookstore, and she was too busy to think about pregnancy.

Therefore, it was easy to think wildly when she’s idle at home. It’s best to find something to do to divert her attention while also earning money.

Women could also earn money after marriage, and their waists could be straightened in the husband’s house.

Through Liberty’s marriage, Elisa also summed up her experience.

It was preferable for a woman to maintain financial independence, regardless of how much money a man could earn. She didn’t believe men’s lies about her upbringing. They’d grow tired of it after a while.

Every time she approached a man to ask for money, they would go from being straightforward to nagging, rolling their eyes, cursing, and finally refusing to give it...

Of course, not all men were like Hank. There were still many good people in this world.

Mrs. Stone: “You are with Serenity almost every day. If you find that she has something on her mind, you can enlighten her more.”

“Mom, I understand. Don’t worry, Serenity is my sister. I look forward to her better than anyone else. I want her to be happy, if Zachary dares to treat her badly, I can call.”

“You call?” Mrs. Stone became serious.

Elisa quickly changed her words: “I’ll come to seek justice for my sister, and I won’t do anything, um, I’m a lady, so I won’t do anything.”

She could move her feet, even kicking Zachary could relieve her anger.

“Are you still in the Bucham family?” Mrs. Stone had no choice but to take her daughter.

She didn’t believe she had no idea what her daughter was thinking.

Others spoke but did not act, and her daughter refused to speak when she could. Why, then, was her reputation in Wiltspoon so bad?

Elisa: "I just came out of Bucham's house, what's the matter?"

Mrs. Stone: "You are coming to our hotel now. Mom invited Mr. Reading to dinner. You come over to have a meal together. He has helped Mom so many times. As mother's children, Inviting him to dinner is a way of repaying mother's favor."

Elisa: "...Mom, when I invited Mr. Reading to dinner last time, he declined politely, and he said it was a trivial matter. We don't have to be so polite."

Mrs. Stone: "Mr. Reading helped Mom twice recently, and Mom called him to invite him to dinner, and he agreed, so hurry up and he will be here later."

Elisa asked: "Is it just me and you?"

Mrs. Stone: "When Mr. Reading comes, there will only be three of us."

Elisa asked again, "Dad, Elder brother, they won't come?"

Elisa belatedly realized that her mother seemed to want her and Mr. Reading to walk more.

Was it because Remy's pursuit made mother anxious, so she arranged a man for her?

After seeing through her mother's thoughts, Elisa was a little dumbfounded.

Mrs. Stone: "Your dad went out to meet friends in the afternoon. Your elder brother has to socialize. Your second elder brother never comes home. Who can mom count on? You are mom's caring little padded jacket. Mom can only count on you."

Elisa: "..."

With that said, Elisa really wanted to accompany her mother to treat Mr. Reading to dinner, otherwise she would not be a caring little padded jacket.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 1639

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1639 -Elisa: "Mom, I'm in our hotel right now."

Without telling her mother, she was already at the hotel.

After Mrs. Stone was silent for a while, she asked Elisa, "Are you having dinner with Remy?"

"Yes." Elisa honestly admitted.

Her family disapproved of her being with Remy, and she didn't listen to them. She felt very happy being with Remy.

The most important thing in life was to be happy for her.

Being with Remy could make her happy, so she stayed with Remy.

Elisa: "We just came here, and we haven't ordered food yet. How about Remy and I go over and accompany you to treat Mr. Reading to dinner?"

Mrs. Stone pursed her lips and said, "I'm going to find you."

After finishing speaking, she hung up phone.

Elisa held the mobile phone in her hand, looked at Remy, and said, "My mother is going to invite Mr. Reading to dinner, let us accompany her. After a while, my mother will come over. Let's not order."

Elisa knew all about the signature dishes.

Remy smiled: "Okay."

He knew that Mrs. Stone was putting him in trouble.

Mr. Reading was the love rival that Mrs. Stone found for him. Although the Reading family had always kept a low profile, it was Tania's natal family. Mr. Andrew Reading and Zachary were cousins. The Reading family and the Stone family were well-matched.

It was clear that Mrs. Stone was able to screen out and personally arrange for Andrew and Elisa to meet. It was clear that Andrew was also a fine gentleman.

Seeing Remy readily agreeing, Elisa hesitated to speak.

"Elisa, you can say whatever you want." Remy said considerately.

Elisa: "My mother arranged it like that. I think my mother is trying to match me with Mr. Reading. I didn't realize it the first time. No wonder my mother kept saying how good Mr. Reading is in front of me. I just realized it. That's what my mother thought."

Remy still said gently, "I know, I had that premonition when I saw Mr. Reading for the first time, and when I heard my aunt praise Mr. Reading fiercely."

For this reason, he also specially called Zachary to ask about Andrew's relationship, and confirmed that Andrew was single now and had no girlfriend.

Zachary laughed at him as a soldier.

Remy would rather have all the grass and trees as soldiers than guard against one less person.

He didn't want the approval of the Stone family. Although Elisa was sometimes self-willed and had her own opinions, she was still filial.

If Mrs. Stone insisted that she and Andrew try to date, Elisa might compromise.

This was why when Remy saw Elisa sending Andrew out, he immediately regarded Andrew as a love rival to guard against.

Zachary's life was good, he had a grandma to help him arrange everything, and get the certificate directly. He had never experienced fighting for his wife, so he couldn't understand Remy's nervousness.

Elisa: "..."

The first time she saw Andrew, she was the one who sent Andrew out.

She remembered that she didn't even have a word with Andrew at that time, and she actually regarded Andrew as a rival in love.

"Elisa, no matter how many people pursue you, I will never give up. Everyone has competed fairly, which also shows that you are a good girl." Remy was under pressure in his heart, but he didn't show it on the surface.

Instead, he consoled Elisa. There was no need for psychological stress. He had faith in his own intuition and feelings.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-