Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1650 -Remy returned to Annenburg the following afternoon. He had only returned to Annenburg two days before Jane gave birth.

A pair of twins were born.

Remy immediately called Elisa to share his happiness with her.

It's not the first time he's been an uncle, but this time it's different.

In the past, he was an uncle. This time, he was a real uncle.

When Elisa received his call, she was still living in the house under her own name and had not returned to the Stone family's mansion.

After Mrs. Stone found out through Serenity that Elisa was living in a house under her own name, she didn't take the initiative to call her. Neither mother nor daughter could convince the other. It seemed that they were caught in a cold war.

Mrs. Stone felt that she was right. It was because her daughter was ignorant and filial, and did not listen to her advice.

Elisa felt that her mother was stubborn and unrepentant, and Remy had arranged everything properly, but her mother killed him because he was not from Wiltspoon, so she was determined not to let go.

"Birth?" Elisa was also very happy when she heard Remy say that Jane was born. She immediately congratulated Remy: "Remy, congratulations on becoming an uncle again."

Remy: "Thank you, this time I am an uncle. My sister-in-law gave birth to a pair of twins, and our family is very happy, especially my elder brother, who can't wait to buy a carload of firecrackers and set off firecrackers to celebrate. Unfortunately, firecrackers are banned in Annenburg, so we can't let them go."

"Twins, Ahhh, I'm so envious!" Elisa exclaimed, and she smiled and said, "I'm so jealous of your sister-in-law because she gave birth to both a son and a daughter. Does anyone have pictures of the adorable baby? Send me some images so I can see them."

Remy: "Still in the incubator is the infant. I only once saw it. Although it is still small, it is also very adorable. I snapped a picture, which I'll send your way later. According to my mother, a baby changes every day. It will eventually grow very cute with time."

The two babies were born ahead of schedule, and both of them were born before the expected date of delivery. In addition, they were twins, who were less than five catties at birth, so they lived in an incubator.

Elisa: "Congratulations, congratulations, I'm so envious. I hope my sister-in-law can also have twins. Oh, no, my sister-in-law is pregnant with single babies." The baby in her belly is quite tormenting, and she is still struggling."

Her nephew (daughter) was estimated to be born at the end of the year or early next year.

Remy smiled and said: "There are many people who are pregnant with twins, but relatively few have twins. I heard that there are genetic factors. My sister-in-law and her brother are also twin siblings."

Elisa hummed, "Your sister-in-law and her brother are twins and now your sister-in-law has also given birth to a pair of twins."

She also heard that there was a genetic factor.

Remy: "Elisa."

Elisa: "Speak if you have something to say, don't hesitate to speak."

Elisa could hear Remy's hesitation in his tone of voice even though they were conversing on the phone and couldn't see each other.

Remy: "When I was not in Wiltspoon, your mother didn't create a chance for you and Mr. Reading to be alone?"

Elisa deliberately teased him, "Yes, we meet several times a day."

Thinking that Remy was angry, Elisa was about to tell him that she was lying to him and before she could say, Remy quickly said, "I will fly back to Wiltspoon in the afternoon."

Knowing that his sister-in-law, mother and child are safe, Remy also saw his nephew and niece, he couldn't stay at home up.

He wanted to go back to Wiltspoon to guard Elisa!

Elisa smiled and said, "Just kidding, I haven't seen Mr. Reading for two or three days since that night."

Andrew was a smart person, and Elisa's mother's intentions were so obvious, how could she not notice it?

It was estimated that Andrew wished to draw a clear line with her now, wished that he would never know her.

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1651 -Remy: "I want to go back, there are many things in the company."

One of them was that there were many things going on in the company, and the main reason was that when he returned to Wiltspoon, he could guard Elisa nearby.

Elisa: "Then what time will you arrive? Do you want me to pick you up?"

Remy usually took a private jet to get to and from Annenburg. If his family's private jet was being used by one of his brothers, though, he would book a ticket.

Hearing that Elisa was going to pick him up, Remy immediately decided to give up taking the private jet.

Remy said, "I'll show you a screenshot after I've booked the ticket."

Elisa: "Okay, let's have dinner together tonight."

Remy was full of joy, "Okay."

Elisa: "I'll get to work first."

Remy said reluctantly, "Okay, what do you want? Pay attention to your body, don't be too tired, if you need my help, just tell me."

Elisa: "Understood, my investment is going smoothly."

Serenity told Elisa that their sales market should not be limited to Wiltspoon, but also expanded outward.

After discussing it, the two sisters planned to go on a business trip to a neighboring city to investigate the market and see if they could get a share of other people's land.

Remy smiled and said: "You are all talented people, then you should be busy first, and see you tonight."

After finishing the call, Remy put the phone back into his trouser pocket, turned around with a smile, and was about to go back to the inpatient department. Coming out of it, he went forward.

Remy: "Dad, Mom, are you going back?"

“Let’s go back first. If you want to stay in the hospital with your elder brother, that’s fine. Your sister-in-law doesn’t need us to take care of her. Your elder brother will do everything by himself.” Alannah smiled.

The eldest daughter-in-law strived for success, and she had both children at once. From the moment she knew that Jane had given birth to twins, she, a mother-in-law, laughed so hard that she couldn’t close her mouth.

She finally had a granddaughter.

Every day, the couple would come to the hospital to see their daughter-in-law and their two babies.

Lafayette family and the Murphy family also come to the hospital several times a day and they stayed in the hospital with Young–Johnson to take care of Jane, even though the Johnson family had arranged for maids to help.

“I’ll go back with my parents. I’m going to book a plane ticket to go back to Wiltspoon. There are too many things in the company.” Remy gave up the idea of re-entering the inpatient department and planned to leave the hospital with his parents.

Hearing this, Alannah asked Remy puzzled: “Didn’t you say you would stay at home for a while? Why did you suddenly want to go back to the company? Did the company have any major problems?”

FC & Co.’s business in Wiltspoon was doing well. Although Alannah didn’t care about business matters, as the hostess of FC & Co. Villa, she knew how the business was doing everywhere.

If there was a major incident in Wiltspoon’s business, the eldest son would have to go on a business trip to deal with it.

Remy: “It’s nothing serious, but I need to take care of a lot of important things. I’m booking a plane ticket now, and I’ll fly there in the afternoon, and I’ll come back when the two babies are full moon.”

Alannah looked at Remy while walking, and said with a smile: “You are thinking about Ms. Stone, right?”

Alannah knew about Remy’s love for Elisa.

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1652 -Remy seldom mentioned his feelings to his parents, but usually told his eldest brother that Alannah learned about it from her eldest son Young–Johnson.

She had seen photos of Elisa, and learned about Elisa’s character through her eldest son and daughter-in-law, and she was very satisfied with the daughter of Stone family.

But Remy hadn’t caught up yet, so Alannah ran to disturb Elisa casually, for fear of scaring her.

Remy blushed slightly, and said honestly, “I’ve been at home for the past few days, and my heart is in Wiltspoon.”

He was thinking about Elisa all the time. He realized what it meant to not see each other every day.

Alannah laughed, and patted her youngest son on the shoulder like a buddy, “Son, come on! Mom supports you mentally. If you need mom’s help in actual actions, just ask. As long as you make a phone call, mom will sit down. The plane will come over to help you chase your wife.”

Remy: “Mom, is your son such a useless person? It is more sincere to chase a wife by yourself.”

“Yes, yes, you have to do it yourself. No one else can help you with this kind of thing. As for you, if you are inexperienced, ask your sister-in-law for some tricks. It will definitely be useful if you ask her for tricks.”

Remy smiled and said: “Let me ask my elder brother for help.”

“Your elder brother’s love route can’t be replicated by you, he has a black belly, when your sister-in-law was thirteen years old, he took aim at her, and killed countless rivals in love behind his back, before your sister-in-law took the initiative to jump into his love net. He has no good way to chase his wife, you might as well find Yves.”

Yves also chased after Iris, Young–Johnson and Jane obtained the certificate directly, without the pursuit process, the experience of chasing a wife was not as good as that of Yves.

The mother and son chatted as they walked, and soon came to their car. The father silently opened the door for his wife and children without joining the conversation.

Remy felt that she was also a little dark-bellied.

After he had a good impression of Elisa, he started to make plans. When the neighbor of the Stone family wanted to sell the villa, he acted quickly, faster than Clive, and bought the villa.

The purpose was to have more opportunities to get close to Elisa.

His layout was also effective, at least Elisa had feelings for him, and even quarreled with her mother because of him.

Remy: "That's no need, I think the method I thought of is also useful."

Remy really couldn't think of a new way to chase her girlfriend, so he went to read the novels his sister-in-law wrote before that her mother recommended him.

In the words of his mother, his sister-in-law used to write novels, and there were too many ways for the hero and heroine to flirt with each other in the novel, and just two tricks were enough for real life.

Remy was in a hurry to return to Wiltspoon, mainly because he was afraid that Andrew would take advantage of his absence when he was not in Wiltspoon.

Remy booked the air ticket in the car, and then sent a screenshot to Elisa, so that Elisa could arrange the time when he came to pick up the plane.

Elisa didn't reply him right away. Because her parents finally went to her small villa.

While Remy was chatting with her, Elisa, who was far away in Wiltspoon, opened the door for her mother. Looking at her mother with a serious expression, her voice was soft. With a hint of coquettishness, Elisa called: "Mom."

Mrs. Stone's serious expression collapsed instantly after hearing her daughter's voice, and she poked her daughter's head angrily and distressedly, "Mom just wants you to get out of the car, we can calm each other down, but you don't come home for a few days. Your Mom is worried about you, but you are lucky to be free and easy outside."

While closing the door of the villa, Elisa said: "Mom, I thought you were still very angry, and I didn't dare to go home and didn't want to add fuel to Mom's fire, so I stayed here for two days, and went back when Mom's anger subsided."

Mrs. Stone waited for her to close the door, and entered the room with her.

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1653 -While walking, Mrs. Stone complained that her daughter's house was too deserted. The butler of the Stone family would arrange for someone to come to clean up every two days, but no one lived in this small villa.

Elisa liked to be alone, no one was in charge, and she was free.

"I think this is good." Elisa didn't want to change the status quo.

Mrs. Stone looked at her daughter, and did not continue to entangle her daughter on this topic.

Mrs. Stone: "Mom is going to attend a charity gala tonight, so you go with mom."

"Mom, you know I don't like going to banquets, you can ask Serenity to accompany you, or you can ask sister Liberty."

Mrs. Stone couldn't help but said again Poke her on the head, "You are a businessman now, and a businessman focuses on communication. If you don't communicate with others, how can you talk about business? In Wiltspoon, you can talk about business. It's because of your elder brother's face. It depends on the status of the Stone family, and it will give you face.

Fortunately, the vegetables grown in your vegetable farm are very good, and they will not be criticized by others. After leaving Wiltspoon, in other cities, who knows where you are, Elisa?

Mom brought you to the banquet to pave the way for you, and Serenity doesn't like this kind of occasion, but she has a sense of responsibility, self-motivated, and is willing to learn and integrate into this circle. She is as good as before. For example, my self-confidence has reached 90%.

Besides, Zachary will also attend the charity party, and Serenity is naturally accompanying Zachary, so how can she stay with mom anymore? You are mom's daughter."

Sometimes Mrs. Stone really couldn't do anything with her daughter, and her family spoiled her daughter like this.

Mrs. Stone: "Where is Sister Liberty, Mom can take Sister Liberty with her."

Mrs. Stone didn't know how Liberty was going to act. Liberty had to take care of Sonny at night, even though neither Serenity nor Mom could reach her.

Elisa pursed her lips and reluctantly compromised: "Okay, I will accompany you to participate. How much money and things will our Stone Group donate?"

Mrs. Stone: "You will know in the evening."

Several big families, whether out of sincerity or for the sake of fame, would go to important charity events and give money and other things.

It was the first time that Serenity accompanied Zachary to attend such an event, and the couple represented the entire York family.

It was impossible for Mrs. Stone to snatch her niece to accompany her.

"Mom, will Mr. Reading be present?" Elisa asked suddenly.

She was afraid that her mother would arrange for her to get along with Andrew again.

Mrs. Stone: "I don't know, I'm not a roundworm in Mr. Reading's belly."

Elisa stuck out her tongue playfully and stopped talking.

There was no overnight feud between mother and daughter, and as Mrs. Stone came to find her daughter in person, the grievance that Elisa was driven out of the car by her mother disappeared.

...

Serenity wanted to close the bookstore in the afternoon because she was going to a charity party with Zachary that night. She sent Sonny back to her sister's house.

Jasmine came to the store.

Seeing that Serenity was about to close the door, Jasmine said: "Serenity, I'll take care of the store, and you can go there whenever you want. I'm so bored sitting at home that I finally convinced Josh to let me go outside and walk around."

While talking with Josh, Jasmine entered the store, put the bag on the cash register, and said: "I keep the door open. I'd rather sit in a store and read books while swatting flies than lie around like a pig at home and go to sleep when I'm full. You really treat me like a pig, so wake up and eat."

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1654 -Serenity laughed and said, "You are in the midst of blessings and don't know your blessings."

Jasmine said, "One day I will return this sentence to you."

Serenity held her hand When Sonny came back, he called Auntie Jasmine, then climbed onto a stool and sat down.

Jasmine reached out and touched Sonny's small face, and said, "Even though I can't do what I want and am closely watched when I'm pregnant, it's worth it if I can have a cute baby like Sonny."

"Auntie, you are going to have a baby. Is it already my brother?" Sonny asked innocently.

Hearing this, after Jasmine and Serenity exchanged glances, Jasmine said to Sonny: "Sonny, isn't Your auntie a little sister?"

Jasmine wanted a daughter.

Sonny blinked his big eyes, and said: "I don't know."

He just asked instinctively.

Jasmine: "I just got pregnant, I don't know if it's a boy or a girl."

Serenity knew that Jasmine also wanted to have a daughter, she smiled and said: "Maybe it's a daughter, maybe it's a pair of twins like Jane."

Jasmine: "Jane is enviable, and I really want to have both children, but unfortunately when I went to the hospital for an examination, there was only one gestational sac."

Serenity said: "Then you can only give birth one by one. Iris also gave birth, A little later than Jane, originally her child was a bit older than Jane's, but Jane's is twins, the baby came to report early, but Iris's son is actually younger than Jane's baby."

"Is Iris the mother of a son?" Jasmine only knew that Jane was born.

Serenity hummed.

Dr. Leigh was also about to give birth.

Callum took a few days off with Zachary when he heard that Dr. Leigh, the Johnsons' fourth young mistress, had moved back to Annenburg and was living in FC & Co. Villa. He then rushed to Annenburg to ask Dr. Leigh to treat Camryn's eyes.

Serenity said that Zachary didn't convince Callum to stop, and the Johnsons couldn't let Dr. Leigh fly to Wiltspoon to treat Camryn's eyes now that she was pregnant and about to give birth.

Even if Callum sent Camryn to FC & Co. Villa, Dr. Leigh probably wouldn't have the energy to diagnose and treat him.

Callum also knew that he couldn't invite Dr. Leigh to Annenburg. He went to ask Dr. Leigh first. If Dr. Leigh agreed to treat Camryn's eyes, they could wait. If Dr. Leigh didn't want to, he would run more times.

No matter how much Dr. Leigh charged for a consultation or how hard he was to please, Callum would do it as long as he could.

"Serenity, you are going to attend the charity dinner tonight. Alas, I can only listen to it now, and I can't participate. If I knew that I would lose my freedom if I was pregnant, I would have avoided it. I was pregnant when I was just married. The world between the two of you is very different. Haven't had enough yet." Jasmine didn't like to attend banquets before, but now she really wanted to join in the fun.

It's unfortunate that Josh had to deal with Jasmine whenever she went out because he had authorized her to go out for activities and had set up a line of bodyguards to follow her.

Now a line of bodyguards were standing outside.

Jasmine finally understood why his friend didn't like Zachary and arranged bodyguards to follow him. He always felt like he was being watched.

Serenity smiled, remembering what Zachary said when he went to pick her up at Bucham's house that day.

Zachary said that Jasmine was pregnant as soon as Josh got married, and he was about to become a monk just after tasting the ecstasy, and the world of the two of them ended early, saying that Josh had nothing worthy of Zachary's envy.

Serenity also said that her husband couldn't eat grapes and said the grapes were sour.
