

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3703-3772

Chapter 3703

After Shan Elliott returned to Shangri-La Hotel, she reported to Michaela Joules what she had encountered in Heaven Spring Mansion.

After listening, Michaela Joules immediately said confidently, "It is estimated that their diamond box is reserved for important guests. Maybe it is for this Master Wade."

As she said, Michaela Joules smiled, and the whole person relaxed, and added, "This is better. Maybe we can see Master Wade in a few days."

Shan Elliott stuck out her tongue and sighed, "For that Master Wade, even an offer of more than 10 million can be rejected. Master Wade's face in Don Albert's place is too great!"

Michaela Joules nodded lightly, pursed her mouth, and said with interest, "I'm really more and more curious about that Master Wade!"

Immediately, Michaela Joules' eyes lit up, and she said, "Shan, see if there are any villas in Aurous Hill, and buy a set if there are any."

Shan Elliott asked in surprise, "Miss, why did you suddenly want to buy a villa in Aurous Hill?"

Michaela Joules smiled and said, "At that time, we'll ask this Master Wade to show me Feng Shui!"

Shan Elliott suddenly realized, and hurriedly asked, "Miss, what kind of villa do you want to buy?"

“Would you like me to sort out the information, and you will choose first?”

Michaela Joules waved her hand, “It’s just a villa. It doesn’t have to be so troublesome.”

“You can go and see it directly. If you are optimistic about it, you can buy it. The house should be bigger.”

For Michaela Joules, to buy a villa in a place like Aurous Hill, it is impossible to spend more than 30 million US dollars.

Such a small project is of little importance to her, and it is not worth wasting time. Let Shan Elliott directly just make a decision.

Shan Elliott also knows that Michaela Joules’ behavior style is always focusing on the big and letting go of the small.

She doesn’t bother to worry about any trivial matters, and she delegates the power to her staff.

So she opened her mouth and said, “Okay miss, I will do this early tomorrow morning.”

.....

At this time, it was night.

Don Albert’s kennel is busy.

During the expansion of the kennel farm, Don Albert adopted the method of sealing and digging underneath, laying a steel structure roof on the top of the entire kennel, and also covered it with photovoltaic power generation panels, while the interior was silent.

Two full layers were dug down.

In this way, it not only ensures that the size of the kennel is doubled, but also minimizes the risk of exposure. In addition, it also makes the entire kennel more solid.

If you were locked in here, it would be difficult to escape.

Soon, two vans drove to the kennel, and then several Dragon Hall soldiers escorted eleven agents from the first vehicle.

All these agents were captured by Dragon Hall soldiers when they sneaked into Oracle Pharmaceutical and wanted to explore the secrets of Healing Salve Pill from Oracle Pharmaceutical.

They think they are well-trained and capable of knowing it, but in front of the masters of the Dragon Hall, they have nowhere to hide.

When they were taken out of the car, they had no idea where they were, because they were covered with opaque black cloth bags.

Moreover, the hands of these agents were professionally tied together with widened and thickened nylon cable ties.

To prevent them from escaping, they folded their hands together.

Not only were they secured with nylon straps on their wrists and forearms, the five fingers of each hand were also tied together with the five fingers of the other hand.

In this case, let alone let them find paper clips or blades to escape, even if they put the blades in front of them, they will not be able to pick them up.

When the soldiers of the Dragon Hall brought them all into the lower second floor of the dog-raising field, the group of people still didn't know what kind of situation was waiting for them.

Everyone was taken to the golden cage.

Chapter 3704

Don Albert tore down the black cloth bags on their heads one by one.

Seeing more than a dozen men with different skin colors, he said coldly, "Since you are all agents, you should all come here with proficient in Chinese."

"I will introduce myself to you. My name is Don Albert and Aurous Hill, in this three-acre area, I have never been afraid of anyone except Master Wade."

"You guys are here, just It is equivalent to a dog raised by me, and you must obey my arrangements, otherwise, I have ways to make you better than dead!"

More than a dozen agents suddenly became nervous when they saw themselves in front of a huge iron cage.

One of them blurted out, "We demand humanitarian treatment!"

When Don Albert went up, he slapped his face, spitting, "F*ck you, you f*cking came to our site to be a thief, wanting to f*cking steal our things, and still having the face to demand."

“You want me to treat you humanely? I left you a dog’s life for the sake of you more or less a bird in the future.”

“Thanks to Master Wade for sparing your dog’s life.”

After that, Don Albert immediately said to his men, “Go, let the welder follow the iron cover we made for the Tibetan mastiff, and also weld him a hood on site, and lock his pig head inside the cover.”

“If he dare to beep more, just sew his dog’s mouth!”

Don Albert’s fierceness immediately caused these well-trained agents to feel a little chill in their backs.

So everyone closed their mouths wisely, and anxiously waited for Don Albert’s downfall.

They are actually very clear in their hearts that the act of sneaking into Oracle Pharmaceutical to steal core secrets is illegal.

In addition to their special identity, they will not be recognized by the West if something goes wrong, so now they can only be slaughtered by others, and at the same time, hope to come back to their own country to rescue their selves.

Soon, Don Albert’s welder welded a mask to the hapless man with thin steel bars, and put a mask on his head.

People who didn’t know thought he was imitating a fencer.

Don Albert directly locked the hood with an extremely ordinary three-ring lock, and said in a cold voice,

“Listen to me. If you dare to open the hood by yourself, I will have someone weld an iron coffin, and weld you in it! Do you understand?”

When the man heard this, he humbly said, “I understand, I understand!”

Don Albert said coldly to the younger brother around him, “Take off all their clothes, leave them a pair of pants for each, and then put them all in a cage!”

Several subordinates immediately took off the clothes of the group, cut off the nylon ties on their hands one by one, and pushed them into the cage.

Due to the soldiers in the Dragon Hall standing next to them, none of these agents dared to resist, so they could only get into the cage honestly.

As soon as they entered the cage, the group felt desperate.

This cage is invaluable to humans.

Thirty millimeters of rebar is cross welded, leaving only a square gap of ten centimeters on each side.

It is so empty that it can stretch out the arms at most.

Such a strong cage is almost non-existent. The possibility of brute force cracking it is impossible.

After all these people were stuffed into cages one by one, all their hopes were pinned on this iron gate.

Most of these people are masters of unlocking.

As long as it is a lock with a normal mechanical structure, they don't have much difficulty in their eyes.

As long as the time is right, they will have a chance to escape by quietly opening the lock.

However, just when they were dreaming about how to crack the door of the cell, they saw a few of Don Albert's men running over, dragging the power cord and electric welding machine, and squatting at the door of the cell, crackling against the iron door.

All of a sudden, the flames of electric welding blazed all over.

The faces of this group of people were instantly ashen, and their hearts were desperate.

The iron gate is welded to death, then if they want to escape from here, there is almost no possibility other than to chop themselves up first!

Chapter 3705

Don Albert has a strong reckless aura, and his reckless aura is not terrifying in front of people who have really passed through life and death, through strong winds and waves, and even makes people feel a little ridiculous.

However, once he is in a suitable environment for him, the reckless atmosphere on his body will burst into a very strong deterrent.

At this moment, Don Albert is standing in front of the iron cage of the dog farm, just like an African hyena standing on the endless African prairie!

This is his home court.

At his home court, even the lion of the king of beasts will tighten the chrysanthemums when it sees his fierce appearance.

Because this thing looks inconspicuous, but it's really cruel.

So what about lions and hippos?

No one is afraid of African hyenas when they get up, and they can directly play the most ruthless and cruel methods in the animal kingdom, which is beyond the reach of no one.

Although these agents usually experience a lot of dangers, or even be captured, this is in peacetime.

The arrest of agents is generally private political mediation between countries.

As for the captured agents, they will not only not be tortured, but will also enjoy better humanitarian treatment than ordinary prisoners.

However, in the face of Don Albert now, they will not guarantee them any humanitarian treatment and basic personality.

It is said that if you want to weld a hood for someone, immediately weld a hood and then lock your head in.

There is no doubt that if you continue to provoke him, I'm afraid they will really be welded into the coffin.

Moreover, they have never been in such prison in their lives.

As soon as you enter the cell, someone weld the cell door directly from the outside...

This is f*cking not even an idea.

At this time, Don Albert looked coldly at the iron gate being completely welded to death, sneered, and told the people around him, "Listen to me. From now on, you can only give them one meal every day, try to eat as low in fat and low carbon water, and take a cold bath for them every hour to exhaust them. Let them not only have no physical strength to escape, but also the brainpower to escape!"

The little brother immediately agreed loudly, but a group of agents suddenly fell into the ice cellar.

Take a cold shower every hour.

The weather in April can't kill anyone, but this is obviously to kill their physical strength and will, while interrupting their rest coherence.

In this way, even basic sleep cannot be guaranteed, and even iron-clad people will collapse.

At this time, Isaac Cameron said, "Don Albert, you should add some laxatives to them in the water."

Don Albert smiled and said, "Mr. Cameron, that's a good idea!"

After saying that, he immediately turned to his little brother beside him and said, "You have all heard Mr. Cameron's words."

"Prepare the laxatives for me!"

The little brother nodded quickly, "Okay Master!"

Don Albert then asked Isaac Cameron again, "Mr. Cameron, are there any goods to deliver one after another?"

"Yes." Isaac Cameron nodded, "I guess those people will not give up."

"They will definitely touch Oracle Pharmaceutical to find out how many people come and catch as they come."

Don Albert smiled and said, "Okay! Then I will empty the two cages next to me."

"Anyway, there are many places here."

"I was afraid that there were too many people coming, but now it seems that there must be no big problem with management."

With that, Don Albert said with some concern, "Mr. Cameron, what I'm worried about now is whether there will be any mistakes when there are too many people to transport them out."

"No matter how strong the cage is, it will be cut when they are released."

Isaac Cameron smiled and said, "It's easier. At that time, I'll prepare some anesthetic needles for bears for you, give them one through the cage, put them all down, and then put them directly into containers."

“A truck is pulled to the dock to load the boat, and it will be delivered to Commander Hamid’s soon.”

Don Albert was relieved and said with a smile, “That’s much easier!”

At this moment.

It’s early morning in Washington, D.C.

At the military’s R&D base, Rutgers and James Smith sat smoking in the office, and in front of them were military and CIA executives.

Early this morning, the heads of their four departments held an urgent meeting.

The CIA reported to several other people that the agents had disappeared one after another, while Rutgers reported to several others that there had been no progress in the reverse research and development of drugs, and the drugs sent back by Shunhie Nakamura were still ineffective.

James Smith also told everyone of a bad news.

He contacted Oracle Pharmaceutical on behalf of the FDA several times, and even increased the price of the drug several times, but Oracle Pharmaceutical was always unwilling to give them even one more box of Healing Salve pills.

If it goes on like this, it won’t take a few days, and five patients will stop taking drugs.

The senior executives of the CIA were also at a loss.

He said irritably, "All our agents who entered the interior of Oracle Pharmaceuticals disappeared without exception."

"All these agents are well-trained top masters, but I didn't expect that their whereabouts in a private pharmaceutical company were unknown."

"At present, I have temporarily stopped them."

"It seems impossible to get confidential information about Healing Salve Pills in a short time for the agent's work."

The military representative was surprised by this and said, "You agents are all very strong. Forget it if they don't run out. Don't you have any useful feedback?"

"No." The CIA executive said at a loss, "It feels like that Oracle Pharmaceutical is like a black hole."

"As long as you go in, you will completely lose contact."

"Several European agents are said to have also disappeared, and no information has been sent."

The military representative hurriedly asked, "Then what are your plans next?"

The senior executive of the CIA said, "We still need to find an opportunity to understand the internal situation of Oracle Pharmaceutical."

“Let’s not talk about whether we can find the confidential information of Healing Salve Pills, but at least find the specific whereabouts of our agents, and then find a way to save them.”

The military representative said worriedly, “I think this matter will be very tricky.”

“You sent agents to sneak into a private enterprise to steal secrets.”

“This matter could not be on the table in the first place. If the other party refuses to let go, then you can only suffer from this dumb loss.”

The senior executive of the CIA sighed and said, “If it really doesn’t work, then we can only send representatives to discuss a release condition with the person in charge of Oracle Pharmaceutical in private.”

“As long as the two sides can reach a consensus, our people still have a chance to go home.”

With that, he looked at James Smith and blurted out, “By the way, Mr. Smith, aren’t you going to China again to talk to the person in charge of Oracle Pharmaceutical?”

“Yes.” James Smith nodded and said, “I really plan to go there again and buy some medicine from them.”

The CIA executives said quickly, “Then I’ll go with you. At that time, I will claim to be your assistant.”

“Contact the person in charge of Oracle Pharmaceutical first and find out.”

James Smith said awkwardly, “I’m not sure if they would like to see me yet.”

“If they don’t want to see me, I may have to go to their middleman to mediate to see if I can get a chance to meet.”

“If I don’t see them, I can only return in vain.”

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3707-3710

Registration for the rejuvenation pills auction will close soon.

Nearly a thousand millionaires around the world signed up, but only two hundred people were finally selected.

After the registration deadline, Jasmine Moore began to arrange the team to start capital verification.

If there are a rich man on the Forbes ranking, the latest value published in the Forbes list will directly refer to the latest value.

However, if the rich who does not appear on Forbes, a series of tedious and thorough capital verification processes will be carried out.

As for Charlie’s side, he also began to prepare for the auction.

Rejuvenation Pill does not need to be prepared.

After all, it is ready-made and needs to be prepared.

It is nothing more than the amulet he promised at the beginning.

Amulet is not difficult to make, but its function is relatively simple.

Some can ward off evil spirits, some can be transferred, and some can avoid disasters, but there are almost no all-round amulets.

Moreover, according to the records of the Apocalyptic Book, the effect gap between amulets varies greatly according to the production materials and the ability of the producers.

If you are an entry-level person who can point Dunjia and Rune seal, the amulet produced often has only a very weak effect.

For example, if the level of the transshipment amulet is average, you can win five yuan if you buy a lottery ticket, but with the blessing of the amulet, you can win ten yuan at most.

However, if the charmer is very strong, the lottery ticket may win five million yuan.

Moreover, the effect of this thing is not superimposed layer by layer like heap data.

To put it more plainly, the bonus level of the lottery is very large, with a minimum of five yuan, followed by ten yuan, two hundred, three thousand, hundreds of thousands, or even five million yuan.

This amulet can make ten yuan for people who win five yuan, because its greatest ability is to increase five yuan from the original, not to add a gear to the original.

If a person's own luck is already very good and he can win a bonus of three hundred thousand yuan, even if he wears an amulet, it is impossible to win five million, because the gap between them is too big, far beyond the ability of the amulet itself.

Therefore, if such a person wears a low-level amulet, at most, he won a three hundred thousand yuan of bonuses by his own luck.

After redeeming the prize, you can have five yuan at the gate of the lottery center with the help of the amulet.

That's all.

The same is true for disaster-free amulets.

According to the records of the "Apocalyptic Book", it can indeed protect the master from disasters, as the folks say.

Therefore, many folk legends say that it will break the jade after protecting the owner from disasters.

This is not groundless.

Because after the jade reaches a certain level of quality and is worn by the owner for a certain period of years, it will naturally become amulet that can block disasters.

However, what kind of disaster such amulet can withstand also depends on the effectiveness of the amulet itself.

If the effect is low, it may avoid the scourge of nodding and bleeding after going out, but in case of a car accident, it may not work at all.

But if the effect is high enough, it can theoretically save your life at a critical moment.

Charlie rarely made amulets before, mainly because he needed to consume aura to make amulet.

Chapter 3708

At that time, his own aura was insufficient and difficult to replenish, so he did not dare to waste too much aura on amulet.

The only times he made amulet were still because there was a bloody disaster at Graham Quinton's house.

He used the Thunder Order to make a thunderbolt at the auction, a shock charm, and a bracelet that can calm down and replenish his breath.

He kept the thunder order, and the shock charm was given to Graham Quinton, and the bracelet was given to his wife Claire Wilson.

At the beginning, his aura was extremely short, and there were still a lot left in advance.

Charlie has been well preserved.

Now, with the help of Enchanted Pill, his aura is more than a hundred times stronger than before, so he just took this opportunity to refine a few amulets and seals that are more useful to him.

Charlie first refined several medium-level amulets with part of the amulet.

With the blessing of this amulet, ordinary people can at least avoid death.

However, this is also limited to ordinary people.

Not to mention a master like aura, even a martial artist like WesleyDrake, this kind of amulet is useless.

Several amulets were refined very easily.

Charlie made ten out in one go, intending to auction those two, and the rest were given to his wife's friends.

After the amulet refining was completed, Charlie was ready to refine a stronger rune for himself.

Although the previous thunder order can summon thunder, if he really meet a strong master, I'm afraid it will be difficult to kill the enemy like before.

Therefore, Charlie plans to upgrade the thunder order.

At the beginning, the thunderbolt was jointly refined from ten thousand years and lightning wood, but because Charlie had less aura at the beginning, only a relatively simple layer of runes was added to it.

Now, Charlie's aura is much stronger.

It can completely superimpose multiple layers of runes in this thunder order to double its effectiveness.

Therefore, Charlie consumed a lot of aura to superimpose the lightning charm seal in the thunder order to ten layers.

At the same time, he also added the charm seal to attract wind and rain.

After the great success is completed, this thunder order can not only attract stronger thunder, but also call for wind and rain.

Moreover, with the superposition of multi-layer runes and seals, it can also be strong at will and freely retracted when used.

When using it again, Charlie can only stimulate one layer, or multiple layers, or all runes according to his own needs.

After the production of the new thunder order, it has become smaller and more transparent.

It was like jade with ice flowers, but it seem to be more moisturized than jadeite, which makes Charlie unable to put it down.

However, he is also very clear that this kind of thunder order can't be used indiscriminately at ordinary times, and he can only use it with all his best as a last resort, otherwise the noise will be too big, I'm afraid it's not easy to end.

Thinking that as long as the thunder order was stimulated, even if it was only the most basic layer of rune seal, it was still a thunderbolt on the ground, Charlie began to think about whether to prepare a silent weapon for himself.

He is not an agent or a special forces soldier.

He can't use guns or likes to use guns.

He usually fights with people, either using thunder order or just relying on fists and feet.

Thinking about it, he always feels that the shortcomings are safe offensive methods.

Charlie couldn't help recalling the ninjas he met in Japan, who were two extremes that were completely opposite to himself.

He didn't bring any weapons when he go out, and Japanese ninjas can't wait to load weapons in his throat.

In addition to the useful darts, sleeve arrows, arrows, and swords in hand, there are also all kinds of long knives and short blades, and even two daggers have to be stuffed with the tip of the shoe, which can be said to be armed to the teeth.

Among these weapons, Charlie is most interested in the sword in his hand.

This kind of thing is the same as the flying knife.

The weapon is short and concise, easy to hide, and it can also surprise when shooting.

Therefore, Charlie followed this idea and found a magic weapon that suits him very well in the Apocalyptic Book, the soul blade.

Wearing the soul blade and thunder order, it belongs to a kind of magic weapon.

Thunder order use aura to stimulate the lightning charm and lead the thunder from the sky, while the soul blade is to use aura to drive the inner blade charm to turn the aura into a silent and invisible blade.

What Charlie values most is this silentness and invisibility.

The reason why the appearance rate of Thunder Order is not high is that it is too dynamic because of this thing.

For Charlie, if the soul blade is refined, if he encounter the provocation of the four kings of the Dragon Hall again, he doesn't need to kick the gravel at all.

If he silently urge the soul blade in their hearts, he can take their heads hundreds of meters away!

Chapter 3709

The strength of magic weapons is closely related to three aspects.

First, it is the material for refining magic weapons.

The better the material, the more powerful the refined magic weapon is, which is the same as casting sword.

The better the steel used, the sharper and harder the sword will be;

The second is the refiner's own ability.

The stronger the aura and the higher the cultivation, the stronger the magic weapon will be refined, just like the gap between ordinary people and swordsmith, which is insurmountable.

As for the third, it is naturally the user's own strength.

All magic weapons are by no means a perpetual motion machine that can be used indefinitely.

Take the thunder order as an example, there are two kinds of magic weapons.

One is that the refiner directly injects the aura into the thunder order.

Such a thunder order can be used even if there is no cultivation, as long as he knows the formula.

But in this way, how long and how many times can it be used depends on how much aura contained in the thunder order.

Like the principle of the water gun, how much water can be exposed is not about who uses it, but how much water is stored in it.

There is another kind of refiner to use aura to seal the thunderbolt into the inside of the thunder order.

Every time he uses it, he must inject the aura into it to stimulate it.

Now Charlie's aura in his body is quite pure, so he plans to refine the soul blade in the second way.

In this way, only he can use this soul blade, and everyone else can't inspire it.

However, Charlie's best refining material at present is the rest of the refining material.

There is no other choice.

Therefore, Charlie used the rest of his aura to refine a soul-piercing blade for himself.

Charlie superimposed ten layers of flying blade charm in the soul blade, so that the power of the soul blade is relatively more controllable.

After the soul blade was refined, the whole body was almost as long as Claire's lipstick.

It looked like a flying knife carved from a shell.

The whole body was the colorful pearly color, which was extremely exquisite.

No matter who sees it, they will think that it is just a small handicraft, and no one will regard it as a weapon.

In order to test the power of this soul blade, Charlie drove to the Champs Ely's Hot Spring alone, went straight from the half-mountain villa to the back, climbed several mountains, and came to a leafy uninhabited valley.

In this valley, Charlie just stimulated a layer of flying blade charm, and felt an invisible blade composed of aura roaring out of his fingertips, instantly cutting off the cypress tree as thick as a washbasin in front of him!

Seeing a dense tree suddenly cut off obliquely, and then the upper half of the trunk collapsed with dense branches, a large number of birds flew out of the leaves in panic, and several squirrels fled in horror.

Charlie himself was shocked by this power, but it's not over yet!

After cutting off the first cypress tree, he continued to cut back and cut off three big trees one after another.

When it came to the fifth tree, the power of the soul blade was much reduced a lot.

Only when the trunk of the tree was cut in half, it finally dissipated!

In front of Charlie, four big trees collapsed, and a large area of emptied in the dense woods in an instant!

Charlie looked at the scene in front of him, looked at the soul blade in his hand, and muttered to himself, "This thing, even using only one layer, is so powerful."

"If I use ten layers, won't it cut off dozens of big trees in one go?"

Charlie didn't know what would happen if he uses all the power and cut off dozens of big trees in one go. But he was also curious if it was used on metals and rocks.

So he immediately found a huge stone the size of an adult elephant and suddenly used ten layers of soul blade at a distance of dozens of meters.

At this moment, he only felt that the aura in his body seemed to have been pulled away by three percent of a sudden.

Then, a powerful aura in front of him suddenly burst out!

After a while, the boulder was detonated by the explosives that opened the mountain.

With a roar, it completely broke into countless gravel flying all over the sky!

Chapter 3710

For a moment, the broken rubble and dust filled the surroundings, simply covering the sky and the sun!

Charlie stood where he was and experienced a stone rain that lasted for several seconds.

Each piece of gravel took great strength and rowed Charlie's clothes into shabby!

Fortunately, his body has been strengthened as steel after aura and a large amount of rejuvenation pill, otherwise he would have really be hit by the blow he had just now!

After the gravel rain hit, Charlie looked at the original position of the boulder in a daze. It used to be a huge boulder, but now it is empty.

The mountain behind the boulder was also smashed into a big hole about one meter wide and about three or four meters deep!

Charlie was shocked, but he was also overjoyed!

He couldn't help sighing to himself, "WesleyDrakeis indeed a little lucky."

"Fortunately, before I went to Wade Mountain, I didn't think about refining such a soul blade."

"Otherwise, if I gave them such a blow on Wade Mountain, I'm afraid I could directly take away WesleyDrake, his fourth world war kings and more than a hundred war generals."

“In that case, what else do I have to take? I can’t even take away the corpse!”

Immediately, he also gave up the idea of continuing to try ten layers of thunderbolt.

With the effect of the ten layers of soul blade just now, the thunderstorms led down by the ten layers of thunder order may scare the whole Aurous Hill people.

At this point, he quickly put away the two spiritual charms and quickly left the scene.

Back at the Champs Ely’s Hot Spring Villa, Charlie changed his clothes with rags and asked Isaac Cameron to arrange someone to send him a new clothes.

Then he left the Champs-Elysees and drove back to the city.

On the way, he received a call from Don Albert.

On the phone, Don Albert said, “Master Wade, James Smith from the United States came to me again, saying that he would spend another five million dollars to meet Liam Weaver and you.”

“Coming again?” Charlie smiled and casually said, “Don’t talk to him. Let him go back and forth.”

Don Albert immediately said, “Okay, then I’ll get him kicked out.”

For Charlie, the first time he saw James Smith was to arouse his appetite, even the appetite of the whole United States.

Now that his appetite has been suspended, there is naturally no need to talk to him again.

At this moment, At Aurous Hill's Heaven Spring Mansion.

Michaela Joules has eaten four meals in the golden box for two days.

For four meals, she waited for that Master Wade to appear.

After waiting for two days, she didn't consume her patience, but she ate this kind of Man-Han banquet for four days.

Her appetite was really a little unbearable.

In order to keep fit and keep healthy, Michaela Joules usually pays great attention to diet.

Although she is not a vegetarian, she also has very clear control over meat.

She eats little red meat and raw seafood. She usually eats low-calorie chicken.

However, in places like Heaven Spring Mansion, chicken is one of the most inconvenient, so there is only broth made of chicken on the dinner table, but this kind of broth is generally used to cook those very expensive ingredients.

For example, shark fins, abalone, floral gum and other high-end ingredients that are highly respected in Chinese food.

But this is really difficult for Michaela Joules to swallow.

The highest-level banquet in Heaven Spring Mansion, which is hundreds of thousands of yuan a table, is in her opinion, a large table of inferior protein and a proper gout set meal.

She felt that if she continued to eat like this, sooner or later she would get anorexia.

So she greeted the waiter and asked her, "Hello, can you ask the kitchen to make me a chicken salad?"

"Just add some salad vegetables and boiled chicken breast, and a little less salad dressing."

The waiter said respectfully, "Sorry, madam, we don't have chicken salad."

"There are Bluefin tuna with caviar salad, Australian lobster sashimi salad, foie gras black truffle salad and puffer fish sashimi salad."

"Do you think you want to choose one from here?"

Michaela Joules only felt that her head was as big as a fight.

She felt nauseous just when she heard the names of these meals.

So she said helplessly to the waiter, "Forget it, go ahead."

With that, she stood up and said to Shan Elliott and others, "You eat slowly. I'll go out and see if there are any local snacks in Aurous Hill nearby."

Shan Elliott said quickly, "Miss, let me accompany you!"

Several bodyguards also stood up and said with one voice, "Miss, let us stay with you!"

Michaela Joules waved her hand and said, "This table of dishes hasn't moved much yet."

"So how can we come over tomorrow? It will definitely be strange for people here to see it."

With that, Michaela Joules said again, "You don't have to follow me."

"I'll just go out for a walk. The public security in Aurous Hill is so good that everything will be fine."

Everyone else knows that Michaela Joules has a Unspeakable temper.

Hearing this, they didn't say much, so they had to agree.

Michaela Joules walked out of the box and walked all the way to the gate of Heaven Spring Mansion.

She happened to meet several waiters blocking an American.

The American men kept begging, "Please help me tell Don Albert again."

"I came from the United States so far with full sincerity."

"If Don Albert can help me meet Mr. Weaver, I am willing to give him ten million dollars!"

“If it really doesn’t work, even if you can make an appointment with Mr. Wade last time!”

When Michaela Joules heard the words “Mr. Wade”, she couldn’t help frowning slightly and muttering to himself, “Mr. Wade, I don’t know if it has anything to do with that Master Wade.”

“This man ran from the United States and offered ten million dollars to meet someone, which was really inconceivable...”

“Even if you spend for Buffett, you can’t spend so many tens of millions of dollars. Who are these Mr. Weaver and Mr. Wade?”

Just thinking about it, she couldn’t help looking at James Smith more.

At this moment, she suddenly felt that James Smith was a little familiar.

After all, James Smith is the head of the FDA, the general manager of food and drug safety in the United States, and does have a certain popularity in the United States, so Michaela Joules quickly recognized him.

Michaela Joules immediately guessed his intention to come to China and thought, “Since he is in charge of the FDA, it must have been for Healing Salve pills, which has been on fire recently.”

Thinking of this, she couldn’t help muttering, “Healing Salve Pill... Rejuvenation pill...Master Wade...Mr. Wade... Will there be any connection between them?”

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3711-3712

At this time, desperate James Smith was still begging the waiter in Heaven Spring Mansion, but he didn't notice Michaela Joules and stood not far away looking at him.

James Smith just wants to see the people of Oracle Pharmaceuticals now.

Hurry up and try to fight for some Healing Salve pills, otherwise his son will soon cut off the medicine.

However, the waiter of Heaven Spring Mansion did not let go at all, and even said, "Sir, if you mess around like this again, we will call the police to deal with it!"

Seeing that the other party was resolute, James Smith knew that it was hopeless to pester here today, so he had to say, "Please tell Don Albert that I will go back to the hotel today and visit him tomorrow..."

With that, James Smith turned around in dismay and walked away from Heaven Spring Mansion.

At this time, James Smith was so confused that he did not take a taxi back to his hotel immediately, but walked slowly along the road in the direction of the hotel.

He can't see Don Albert, let alone Liam Weaver and Charlie.

James Smith is in no mood at present, and he is as if he had lost his soul.

The senior executive of the CIA is still waiting for his news at the hotel, but if he can't make an appointment with Oracle Pharmaceutical, the CIA's affairs will definitely be miscarried, and the two will have to return to Washington in dismay.

Just as he was at a loss, he suddenly heard someone say behind him, “Mr. Smith!”

When James Smith heard this, he subconsciously turned around and saw a young oriental beauty standing behind him.

James Smith recognized her at a glance and said in surprise, “Miss Joules, why are you here?”

James Smith naturally knows Michaela Joules.

Although the Joules family acts in the United States in a low-key way as many Jewish families, Michaela Joules’ grandfather Ferdie Joules has been investing heavily in the research and development team in the field of medical drugs over the years and has been very famous in the pharmaceutical system.

In the United States, there are many rich entrepreneurs, but very few of them can invest a lot of money in the field of medical drugs like Ferdie Joules.

Therefore, Ferdie Joules has a very oriental nickname in the field of medicine, the God of Wealth.

His popularity in the field of medicine is almost unknown to everyone.

James Smith happens to be the head of the pharmaceutical field in the United States, so he knows a lot about many projects invested by Ferdie Joules, and even has a lot of contact with Ferdie Joules, and has several fates with Michaela Joules.

Now, James Smith was particularly surprised to see Michaela Joules in Aurous Hill.

He didn’t expect that Michaela Joules, a daughter of a family of hundreds of billions of dollars, would come to such a place.

Michaela Joules smiled and said to James Smith, "I came to Aurous Hill to do something."

"I didn't expect Mr. Smith to be here. I don't know why Mr. Smith came to Aurous Hill for?"

James Smith didn't cover it up.

He said calmly, "I came to China and wanted to meet the person in charge of Oracle Pharmaceutical and talk about the introduction of drugs."

Michaela Joules asked in surprise, "If you want to meet the person in charge of Oracle Pharmaceutical, why do you want to find Don Albert?"

"If my intelligence is correct, Don Albert is just the leader of the underground world, which should have nothing to do with Oracle Pharmaceutical, right?"

James Smith said truthfully, "Miss Joules didn't know anything."

"Liam Weaver of Oracle Pharmaceutical once took Healing Salve Pills and took the initiative to come to the United States to see me."

"At that time, he spent fifty thousand dollars to meet me through the public relations company, but that time I was ignorant and offended him."

Chapter 3712

"Now if it were me to beg him, he deliberately asked Don Albert as middleman to see him."

“I can only make an appointment through Don Albert, and I will charge a public relations fee of five million dollars at a time I meet him.”

Michaela Joules recalled the conversation she had just heard and asked him, “I see that you were blocked by Don Albert’s people.”

“Is it because the other party doesn’t want to see you?”

“Yes...” James Smith sighed and said, “Don Albert said that Oracle Pharmaceuticals are unwilling to meet me.”

Michaela Joules nodded and asked him again, “By the way, Mr. Smith, you just said you wanted to see Mr. Wade.”

“Can I ask who is Mr. Wade?”

James Smith said, “Mr. Wade is the head of the operation of Oracle Pharmaceutical.”

“He is the master of drug sales. Last time, he made up to give us twenty boxes of Oracle remake pills.”

Michaela Joules asked him again, “What’s the name of Mr. Wade you mentioned?”

James Smith thought for a moment and frowned, “I’ve met him once. The last time I met him, he didn’t seem to mention his name.”

“When Liam Weaver introduced him to me, he just said his name was Mr. Wade.”

Michaela Joules asked again, "What does Mr. Wade look like? How old is it?"

James Smith thought for a moment and said, "He is about twenties."

"He is tall and good-looking, but I can't remember clearly what you asked me to describe. After all, I only saw it once."

Speaking of this, James Smith remembered something and said, "By the way, this person is very strong and young, but he has a strong sense of oppression when talking with him."

Michaela Joules nodded and was basically sure that Mr. Wade was probably the Master Wade he met.

Thinking of this, she asked James Smith, "Mr. Smith, are you here this time just to recreate Healing Salve pills?"

James Smith didn't know what Michaela Joules meant, but thinking that the CIA could not be exposed, he nodded and said, "Yes, why did Miss Joules ask that?"

Michaela Joules paused for a moment and asked him with a serious expression, "Mr. Smith, have you heard of rejuvenation pill?"

James Smith shook his head and asked in surprise, "What is rejuvenation pill? Is it also a medicine?"

"It's okay." Michaela Joules said, "Rejuvenation Pill, it is said that taking one can dispel all kinds of diseases, and even prolong people's life for ten years or even twenty years."

"This..." James Smith said astonished, "This medicine...it shouldn't exist..."

Michaela Joules smiled and said calmly, "I'm not sure if it really exists, but there will be an auction in Aurous Hill in a few days, and rejuvenation pill will become the finale."

James Smith said awkwardly, "Miss Joules, if I remember correctly, you are a top student at Stanford University, right?"

"I heard that you were admitted to Stanford at the age of 15 and your doctorate at the age of 21, right?"

Michaela Joules nodded and laughed at herself, "Mr. Smith, you mean that as a Stanford graduate, I shouldn't believe this kind of thing that goes against the logic of science, right?"

"Yes..." James Smith said seriously, "I don't believe in what medicine in this world can really eliminate all kinds of diseases, let alone any medicine in the world can make people live longer for ten or twenty years."

"If there is such a thing, I'm afraid the whole world will go crazy."

Michaela Joules said helplessly, "To be honest, I don't believe it very much, but there are many top rich people who believe it, including my grandfather."

With that, Michaela Joules said again, "It's a pity that the auction mechanism of rejuvenation pill is too confidential this time, and it is absolutely impossible to take it out of the auction venue."

"Therefore, even if it really has such an effect, I'm afraid the outside world will not know it."

"Moreover, even if the outside world knows and there is no real evidence, they will probably follow you when they hear it."

"SO, I WON'T BELIEVE IT."

James Smith was silent for a moment and said, "Miss Joules, how to attend this auction? Can I see it?"

"There is no chance." Michaela Joules said seriously, "Registration has been closed. If Mr. Smith wants to participate, wait for the next time!"

The Amazing Son-In-Law

James Smith was also curious about Michaela Joules' words, so he asked her, "Miss Joules, which auction house will hold this auction? I can try to find someone to run it and see if there is any way to add a quota."

When James Smith said this, he didn't think there was anything wrong with it. After all, he was the head of the FDA, a standard high-class society, an elite, and he knew many people from all walks of life, and several major international auction houses, so he believe he can find connections.

However, when Michaela Joules heard this, she couldn't help but smile, and said seriously, "Mr. James Smith, this auction of Rejuvenation Pills is extraordinary. It is hosted by a local antique company in Aurous Hill. The entry threshold is very high. Only those with assets of more than 10 billion yuan are eligible to sign up. I guess your connections will most likely not reach here."

James Smith was stunned, and blurted out, "10 billion yuan? This is too exaggerated?!"

Michaela Joules shook her head and said, "It is not an exaggeration at all, and there are a lot of applicants. If the worth is only 10 billion, there is no chance of getting the final admission ticket."

James Smith said with a look of horror, "So many top wealthy people believe that there is this miraculous medicine that can cure all diseases and even prolong life for more than ten years?”

Michaela Joules nodded slightly, and said, “Yes, to use an old Chinese saying, I would rather believe that there is something than nothing.”

James Smith smiled helplessly and said, “This kind of thing, it feels like it must be a carefully planned trick.”

Michaela Joules shrugged and smiled, “I was a little skeptical before, but now I believe it more and more, especially after meeting you.”

James Smith asked puzzledly, “What does Miss Joules mean?”

Michaela Joules smiled indifferently, “It’s nothing, but I feel that many veins in my mind become clearer after seeing you.”

What Michaela Joules didn’t say was that she felt more and more that Master Wade, and Mr. Wade in James Smith’s mouth, is a very important person.

In places like Aurous Hill, the two incredible medicines, Healing Salve Pill and Rejuvenating Pill, can appear at the same time, which is very strange.

If the clues behind these two medicines point to two different people, it would be even more incredible.

But if the clues behind the two medicine all point to the same person, then this is much more reasonable.

Thinking of this, the clues in Michaela Joules’ mind became clearer. Moore Group and Oracle Pharmaceutical, the two companies must also have a common connection behind them.

She has asked Shan Elliott to collect all the information of the Moore Group. It seems that now, another Oracle Pharmaceutical will be added.

So she said to James Smith, "Mr. Smith, I have something else, let's talk another day."

James Smith nodded and said respectfully, "Yes, Miss Joules, please say hello to your grandpa for me."

After Michaela Joules bid farewell to James Smith, he immediately called Shan Elliott and asked her to immediately mobilize all the resources that could be mobilized, and collect all relevant clues about Oracle Pharmaceutical at any cost.

All of the Joules family intelligence channels were operating at a high load. That night, Shan Elliott sorted out all the information she had collected and presented it to Michaela Joules.

Michaela Joules stayed up late to read all the information of the two companies, the Moore Group and Oracle Pharmaceutical, frowning and said, "Jasmine Moore of the Moore Group had no parents in her early years, and her status in the Moore family was not high, she only had uncle, and a cousin..."

"Before, the Moore Group had more than 100 billion assets, and Jasmine Moore was in charge, but it was just a small Antique Collection..."

"Before Moore Group's Antique Collection hold the Rejuvenating Pill auction, the valuation of the whole Antique Collection was only a few hundred million yuan, and it did not even account for 1% of the Moore Group. It can be seen that Jasmine Moore was in the Moore family before and has not taken seriously."

"That's the case, Jasmine Moore still overwhelmed her Uncle and cousin, and became the successor of the Moore Group at a young age..."

As she said, Michaela Joules said again, "Furthermore, from these data, it can be seen that in all the middle and high-level positions of the Moore Group, there is no information about Jasmine Moore's uncle and her cousin. This proves that Jasmine Moore is more than just overwhelming them, even completely squeezing them away..."

Speaking of this, Michaela Joules couldn't help sighing, "I'm very curious about how a young woman who has no parents and is somewhat marginal in the family did all this..."

Shan Elliott said, "I guess that Jasmine Moore should be a strong woman with extraordinary methods."

Michaela Joules smacked her lips, "If this is the case, then this woman is not an ordinary strong woman, otherwise, how can she win the battle for hundreds of billions of wealth?"

After that, Michaela Joules said again, "There is also Oracle Pharmaceutical! The predecessor of this company is Weaver Pharmaceuticals and Japan's Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals. The two companies have a huge difference in scale, and Weaver Pharmaceutical's market value is only a few billion yuan, but the market value of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals at its peak reached hundreds of billions of yuan, one hundred times that of Weaver Pharmaceuticals."

"But it is just that two pharmaceutical companies of different countries, sizes, and priorities have completed the merger! Moreover, after the merger, both of them are only small shareholders, but the major shareholder is a very mysterious offshore company."

"These two pharmaceutical companies are both family businesses. The founder of Weaver Pharmaceuticals is Douglas Weaver, and the founder of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals is called Masao Kobayashi."

"And Liam Weaver, the current general manager of Oracle Pharmaceutical, is the illegitimate son of Douglas Weaver, the founder of Weaver Pharmaceuticals. He didn't even have a serious position at Weaver Pharmaceuticals before. He was just a driver and assistant for his half-brother Gary Weaver. "

“It can be seen that Liam Weaver’s situation in the Weaver family is much worse than Jasmine Moore’s previous situation in the Moore family! He is under-appreciated in the Weaver family, and even received strong pressure and squeeze out.”

“However, such an oppressed illegitimate child turned over and became the master last year and successfully inherited Weaver Pharmaceuticals!”

“Furthermore, after Liam Weaver inherited Weaver Pharmaceuticals, Weaver Pharmaceuticals was unable to find out information about Douglas Weaver and Liam Weaver’s eldest brother Gary Weaver!”

“If I guessed correctly, this father and son have also been kicked out.”

“Jasmine Moore just kicked away her uncle and cousin. Her grandfather Lord Moore is still alive after all. She stepped back and said that if her grandfather fully supports her, then it is not impossible for her to inherit the position of the head of the family.”

“But this Liam Weaver kicked away his father and half-brother. His father is the owner of Weaver Pharmaceuticals, so I want to know how an illegitimate son who can only serve as a servant for his brother at home get his father to abdicate to the virtuous? This is illogical!”

When Shan Elliott heard this, she couldn’t help exclaiming, “Miss, do you think there are noble person behind them?”

Michaela Joules said decisively, “There must be!”

Having said that, she said again, “After Liam Weaver inherited Weaver Pharmaceuticals, he took the initiative to change Weaver Pharmaceuticals into Oracle Pharmaceuticals, but Oracle Pharmaceuticals is just a shell that has just been registered for less than a year. Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, which has more than 100 billion RMB, has also taken the initiative to merge into Oracle Pharmaceutical, which is even more incredible!”

Immediately, she turned up the information of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, pointed to the photo of Kobayashi Masao, and said, "This person is the founder of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical and the former president of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd., Masao Kobayashi."

"But this Kobayashi Masao died of poisoning some time ago. There was a rumor that Kobayashi Ichiro killed his father. His brother Kobayashi Jiro even offered a huge reward to kill Kobayashi Ichiro for his father's revenge."

"However, Kobayashi Jiro disappeared soon. Kobayashi Ichiro regained control of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, and then merged Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals into Oracle Pharmaceuticals, and Kobayashi Ichiro even gave up 90% of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals for this!"

Shan Elliott was very puzzled and said, "When I saw this, I also found it too unbelievable. I really can't figure out. Who would give up 90% of the hundreds of billions of property so simply?"

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3715-3716

Michaela Joules gathered a lot of information in front of her and sighed, "I really didn't expect that there would be so many things that I was extremely afraid of the little Aurous Hill..."

With that, she said again, "Whether it's Jasmine Moore, Liam Weaver, or Kobayashi Ichiro, there must be a man with hands and eyes behind them!"

Shan Elliott quickly asked, "Miss, do you think the person behind them is also Master Wade?"

Michaela Joules nodded and said calmly, "I think the characteristics of the mysterious man behind these things overlap highly, and it is likely to be the same person.”

With that, she picked up Weaver Pharmaceutical’s original financial statements and said, “You see, Weaver Pharmaceutical used to be a medium-sized pharmaceutical enterprise, and the market is also in China.”

“As can be seen in their financial statements, most of the drugs they sell are small profits and quick to sell, and the profit margin is very low.”

After a pause, Michaela Joules continued, “Grandpa has invested a lot of money in the pharmaceutical field in recent years, and I have some research in this field.”

“If the profit margin of a pharmaceutical company is very low, the biggest possibility is that they don’t have any high-end products to sell, as what Weaver Pharmaceuticals is.”

Shan Elliott said in surprise, “Miss, if you say so, Weaver Pharmaceuticals does not have the ability to develop Healing Salve Pills at all!”

“I’m afraid it’s difficult for the world’s top pharmaceutical companies to develop Healing Salve Pills, not to mention a Weaver pharmaceutical.”

“Yes.” Michaela Joules nodded admiringly and said, “This is the key. Weaver Pharmaceutical does not have the ability to develop Healing Salve Pills.”

“Not to mention Healing Salve Pills, even Nova Dias, it is impossible to develop it.”

“Oracle Pharmaceutical has made Nova Dias, which is definitely the best stomach medicine on the market.”

Shan Elliott quickly asked, "Then Nova Dias and Healing Salve Pills, will it be Kobayashi Pharmaceutical Technology?"

"It's impossible." Michaela Joules waved his hand and said, "Kobayashi Pharmaceutical used to have a stomach medicine product, which has the same positioning as Nova Dias, but the product strength is more than one grade worse."

"If Kobayashi Pharmaceutical has this ability, why be acquired by Oracle Pharmaceutical?"

"With the product power of Nova Dias, as long as it is on the market and fully distributed, Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals can't sell a package."

Shan Elliott squeezed her lips and then said, "In this way, Oracle Pharmaceutical's technology also has mysterious person behind Weaver Pharmaceutical and Kobayashi Pharmaceutical..."

Michaela Joules nodded, bit her thin lower lip and smacked her lips.

Then she said, "Behind Jasmine Moore inherited the Moore family, there was a mysterious person who helped."

"The same is true behind Liam Weaver's illegitimate son turning over to become the master."

"Oracle Pharmaceutical, there is also a mysterious person providing technical support behind Jasmine Moore's Antique Collection to host the auction of Rejuvenating Pill."

"There is still a mysterious person behind."

"So many mysterious people seem to me to be inextricably linked!"

“Moreover, whether it is Nova Dias, Healing Salve Pills, or Rejuvenation pill, these three drugs are all ancient Chinese prescriptions, and the efficacy of the drugs is extraordinary in their respective fields, so I think these three drugs may also come from the same person.”

Shan Elliott remembered one thing and quickly said, “By the way, miss, you asked me to find a top doctor in Aurous Hill before.”

Chapter 3716

“I figured out and found that there were at least thousands of traditional Chinese medicine doctors in Aurous Hill.”

Michaela Joules asked in surprise, “So much?”

“Yes.” Shan Elliott said, “Forty percent of these thousands of people work in public hospitals, thirty percent work in private hospitals and clinics, and thirty percent open their own clinics.”

“Among them, the most famous is an old traditional Chinese medicine doctor named Anthony Simmons.”

“He opened a traditional Chinese medicine clinic in Aurous Hill.”

“Business is very booming. There are rumors that he once had a patient with high paraplegia and has been cured!”

“Anthony Simmons?” Michaela Joules seemed to have grasped something and frowned and muttered, “I seem to have heard of this person.”

“A few years ago, there was a traditional Chinese medicine summit in the South China Sea.”

“My grandfather was very interested and flew over to participate in it once.”

“Although I didn’t go, I read some written materials of the summit, which contained Anthony Simmons’s introduction.”

“This person is the leader of traditional Chinese medicine.”

“The domain is really famous.”

Shan Elliott quickly asked, “Miss, do you think the mysterious man we just analyzed be him?”

Michaela Joules frowned and couldn’t help muttering, “I don’t think so...”

Shan Elliott said, “But it seems that he is the most likely.”

“After all, he is a top traditional Chinese medicine doctor himself.”

“High paraplegia is also a problem that cannot be treated in Western medicine, but it can be cured by him.”

“It is not impossible for such a person to develop Nova Dias, Healing Salve Pills or Rejuvenation pill.”

Michaela Joules nodded and said, “At present, Anthony Simmons is indeed the most likely, but I don’t know why I always feel that these things are more like Master Wade’s work.”

Shan Elliott disagreed. She said, “Miss, don’t traditional Chinese medicine pay attention to experience and qualifications?”

“Anthony Simmons is in his eighties and has been practicing medicine for more than sixty years.”

“He is absolutely respected in the field of traditional Chinese medicine.”

“It is reasonable for such a person to develop good traditional Chinese medicine.”

“As for Master Wade you mentioned, he is estimated to be in his twenties, and his experience and qualifications must be much worse.”

Michaela Joules shook her head and said, “Anthony Simmons’s background of practicing medicine for so many years is really excellent, but I always feel that it still lacks something.”

“Something is amiss?” Shan Elliott asked in surprise, “Miss, what do you mean...”

Michaela Joules said, “As I said before, there must be something when things go wrong.”

“All Anthony Simmons’s experiences are natural.”

“It is the experience of a national hand of traditional Chinese medicine.”

“In other words, at least ten national traditional Chinese medicine players with similar resumes can be found in China.”

“Why didn’t others make Healing Salve pills? Even Rejuvenation pill, but Anthony Simmons did it?”

Shan Elliott quickly said, “Then Anthony Simmons’s treatment of high paraplegia patients should be regarded as what you said, miss?”

“Yes.” Michaela Joules nodded, “But it doesn’t seem to give me enough feeling.”

“Frankly, although traditional Chinese medicine is a very profound discipline, there are countless liars in this industry and celebrities fishing for fame.”

“Traditional Chinese medicine often claim that they have cured all kinds of terminal diseases, but it turns out that most of them are deceptive.”

After saying that, Michaela Joules hurriedly said, “Shan, please investigate the beginning and end of Anthony Simmons’s treatment of high paraplegia.”

“I want to know the details of this matter, including the time, place of occurrence, who the patient is, and whether the patient has a medical record of a public hospital.”

“If so, put him in a public hospital.”

“If you have medical records, including video data, you can find a way to pull them out!”

Shan Elliott hurriedly agreed and said, “Okay, miss, I’ll do it right away.”

Michaela Joules nodded slightly and said seriously, “If Anthony Simmons’s treatment of high paraplegia patients is true, then this matter is likely to be a breakthrough!”

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3717-3720

After Jacob Wilson was injured in a car accident, he was taken to Aurous Hill People's Hospital by ambulance.

Dr. Simmons was also invited by Charlie to come to Aurous Hill People's Hospital in person to give Jacob the second half of the Life-Saving Pill.

Therefore, all medical records of Jacob's injury and recovery are kept in the large medical record system of Aurous Hill People's Hospital.

In recent years, with the development of computers and the Internet, almost all hospitals have begun to adopt electronic medical records.

This medical record can not only save all the patient data, the results of each examination, the medical records filled in by doctors and the diagnosis certificate, but more importantly, It can also save all the patient's medical imaging data, which is convenient for doctors to check at any time.

However, while this large medical record system is convenient, it also leaves a huge hidden danger, that is, information security cannot be absolutely guaranteed.

For a super powerful family like the Joules family, they have a variety of special teams at any time, including hacking teams.

Therefore, Shan Elliott immediately let people conquer the large medical record system of many public hospitals in Aurous Hill overnight, and then used exclusion to find usable clues under Michaela Joules' instructions.

First of all, Michaela Joules asked hackers to extract all the information of patients diagnosed with high paraplegia.

Subsequently, Michaela Joules asked hackers to screen the cases of these high paraplegia patients to see if there was any record of recovery and discharge.

Soon, a result was sent to Michaela Joules.

In recent years, there has been diagnosed with high paraplegia patients, with a total of one thousand and three hundred people, of which more than a dozen have recovered and discharged hospitals.

However, most of the so-called rehabilitations are because the patients' spine is not completely damaged.

Therefore, after systematic treatment and recovery, such patients can gradually stand and walk slowly.

It can be regarded as a complete cure.

And there is only one person who really recovered and was discharged from the hospital.

This person is Charlie's father-in-law, Jacob Wilson.

Michaela Joules looked at Jacob's hospitalization record and said in shock, "This Jacob Wilson...."

"Last summer, he was admitted to the hospital because of a car accident."

"The CT results showed that he had a complete spinal cord injury, which was clinically irreversible high paraplegia."

“However, his CT results that afternoon showed that he had fully recovered!”

Shan Elliott stepped forward and exclaimed, “Miss, this time of Jacob’s hospitalization is very close to Dr. Simmons’s time to open his clinic in Aurous Hill, and there is only about half a month away at most!”

“This person must have been cured by Dr. Simmons!”

Michaela Joules nodded gently and said, “In a day, the spinal cord injury can be completely cured.”

“This can hardly be described by medical skills. It seems that Dr. Simmons is really awesome!”

“Previous speculation may have been really wrong...”

Chapter 3718

With that, she immediately said to Shan Elliott, “Shan, you will get me Dr. Simmons’s number no matter what tomorrow.”

“I’m going to his clinic to meet him!”

The next morning.

Shan Elliott bought Dr. Simmon’s number from a patient at the cost of fifty thousand yuan.

Dr. Simmons is old and can only see a few patients every day now, so his account has always been very popular.

Subsequently, Michaela Joules, accompanied by Shan Elliott, came to the waiting area inside the clinic.

This morning is Dr. Simmons's visit.

His granddaughter Xyla acted as his assistant, helping the front and learning more experience by the way.

As soon as she saw Michaela Joules, Xyla was shocked by her appearance.

Although she had always been very confident in her appearance, she was inevitably a little ashamed in front of Michaela Joules.

After checking Michaela Joules' registration certificate, she temporarily arranged her to sit in the waiting area and said, "Madam, please wait a moment. I'll inform you when Dr. Simmons arrive."

Michaela Joules nodded and politely said, "Thank you for your hard work."

Michaela Joules waited in the waiting area for about an hour.

After Dr. Simmons saw the first three patients, Xyla came over and said, "Madam, please follow me."

Michaela Joules quickly stood up and entered Dr. Simmons's consultation room with Shan Elliott.

Dr. Simmons looked at the two people and asked, "I don't know which of you wants to see a doctor?"

Michaela Joules hurriedly said, "Hello, Dr. Simmons. I'm not here today to see you, but to consult you for a relative at home.”

Dr. Simmons nodded and asked her, “What’s wrong with your relative?”

Michaela Joules sighed, “Dr. Simmons, my relative had an accident some time ago.”

“The doctor diagnosed high paraplegia. We inquired many times and learned that you had cured a high paraplegia patient last year, so I made a special trip from Eastcliff to ask you for help!”

“High paraplegia...” When Dr. Simmons heard this, he immediately shook his head helplessly and sighed, “Since my clinic opened, people have come to me almost every day to treat high paraplegia.”

“Like you, they have heard about last year’s case, so they found me...”

Speaking of this, Dr. Simmons said very seriously, “But I have to tell the truth that last year’s case was indeed a high paraplegia and healed, but what cured the patient was not that I had too much medical skills, but by chance.”

Michaela Joules asked in astonishment, “It’s a coincidence? Why do you say this?”

Dr. Simmons said seriously, “I can’t say the details clearly.”

“Please forgive me, but what I can say is that the credit for curing that patient is indeed not mine, and if I are asked to treat the same patient again, I can’t have this ability.”

Michaela Joules quickly asked, “Dr. Simmons, you said that the credit was not for you, but the patient’s high paraplegia did heal, so do you say that there was actually someone else behind the cure of the patient, or did you benefit from some panacea for curing that patient at the beginning?”

Dr. Simmons looked at Michaela Joules in surprise and sighed in his heart, "I didn't expect this girl to catch the key point between the flashlight flint, and she caught two as soon as she caught it!"

"Behind Jacob's recovery, there is indeed someone else."

"That person is Master Wade."

"Moreover, Jacob's recovery does benefit from some kind of panacea, and that medicine is the magic medicine refined by Master Wade..."

However, Dr. Simmons was also very clear that he could not disclose more about this matter, so he said to Michaela Joules, "Madam, I'm inconvenient to talk about this matter in detail."

"If the opportunity is right, maybe your relatives may be cured, but whether there is such opportunity, I don't mean what I said. Everything depends on fate."

Michaela Joules quickly pleaded, "Dr. Simmons, my relative is really important to me. I beg you to reveal some more clues to me..."

Dr. Simmons shook his head and said seriously, "I'm sorry. That's all I can really can say."

"Please forgive me."

After saying that, he said to Xyla, "Refund the medical fee to this girl."

Xyla immediately nodded and said, "Okay, Grandpa."

Michaela Joules was glad that it was impossible for Dr. Simmons to ask any more key clues, so she hurriedly said, "Thank you, Dr. Simmons."

"I'll think about another way when I go back, and the medical fee will not be refunded."

After saying that, she bowed slightly to Dr. Simmons and said, "Dr. Simmons, we will leave first!"

After Michaela Joules took Shan Elliot out of the clinic, she got directly into a car by the roadside.

As soon as the car door was closed, Michaela Joules immediately said firmly, "It seems that Jacob Wilson's cure should not be Dr. Simmons's credit. Dr. Simmons is just a cover tool launched, so there is still a mysterious man behind this matter."

Shan Elliot couldn't help asking, "Miss, is it really that Master Wade? I'm afraid he is the only one who is the most suspected to exclude Dr. Simmons."

Michaela Joules nodded and said excitedly, "The current breakthrough point should be on Jacob Wilson! He was injured and hospitalized, and the mysterious man even moved out Dr. Simmons to cover up. I think he must be very close to him!"

Shan Elliot also said excitedly, "We have looked for a lot and finally locked in a specific goal! Then I'll find someone to adjust Jacob Wilson's information!"

"Okay!" Michaela Joules' eyes were like a torch and told her, "You must pull out all the information about Jacob Wilson and all his relatives, his identity background, educational background, work history and family background, etc. In addition, remember that you must use the one-way channel with the highest level of confidentiality, and never expose any clues."

The so-called one-way channel means that identity information transmission can only be transmitted in one direction.

That is to say, you may know the informant's information and can receive the information and intelligence sent back by the informant, but the informant does not know your information.

In this way, once the informant exposes his traces, the other party can't find himself through the informant's follower's clues, which can be regarded as the safest way to obtain information.

Michaela Joules is very clear about the characteristics of the intelligence network. This thing is sometimes a double-edged sword. If you can query the other party's information in the intelligence network, the other party may install an early warning alarm in the intelligence network. Once someone inquires about his information, he can immediately receive relevant feedback.

In this way, she was originally in the dark, and the other party was in the open, but because she used the intelligence network to check the other party's information, she instantly exposed her motives and identity to the other party.

Therefore, she must ensure absolute safety.

At this time, Charlie did not know that a woman sorted out the layers of clues of Aurous Hill thoroughly for the first time, and peeled them off layer by layer, and finally focused the clues on his father-in-law.

Moreover, the strength and means of the Joules family are more than one level better than the Wade family.

Therefore, Michaela Joules' investigation did not touch the Wade family's alarm.

When Shan Elliot put all the information of Jacob Wilson and all the information of surrounding relatives in front of Michaela Joules, she took the lead in picking up Jacob Wilson's family context map.

On this context map, from the old man of the Wilson family to the old lady, and then Jacob and Elaine, they are listed very clearly.

After all, the Wilson family is not a famous family, let alone a secret family, so their information can be easily found.

Michaela Joules scanned the names one by one. When she saw Claire Wilson, Jacob Wilson's daughter, she immediately looked at the words in the notes next to Claire Wilson: spouse Charlie Wade.

Seeing the name Charlie, Michaela Joules' eyes immediately floated with excitement.

Since she came to Aurous Hill, she has been extremely sensitive to the word "Wade".

When she saw that Jacob Wilson's son-in-law was actually called Charlie Wade, she almost immediately said firmly, "It's him! It must be him!"

Chapter 3720

After saying that, she immediately raised her head and asked Shan Elliot, "Has this Charlie Wade's information been transferred?"

"It's out." Shan Elliot quickly said, "In the pile of specific information behind."

"Okay!" Michaela Joules immediately turned out Charlie's information, opened it, and immediately saw Charlie's ID photo.

She immediately clenched her fists and said excitedly, "It's really him!"

With that, she gently tapped Charlie's photo avatar with her finger and muttered, "Hello, Master Wade, I finally meet you again!"

Later, she immediately began to check Charlie's official information, but after a cursory glance, she said in surprise, "This Charlie Wade doesn't have any relevant information about his family background?! Without parents, grandparents, grandmothers, or even no relatives, did he jump out of the cracks in the stone?"

Shan Elliot nodded and explained, "Miss, Charlie Wade's life is relatively pitiful. Official data show that he was abandoned at birth and then adopted by Aurous Hill Welfare Home. At that time, the household registration management was also relatively chaotic, so he stayed in the welfare home as a black household until the age of eight. After the age of eight, the welfare home unified as soon as a group of orphans were registered collectively, he could have a household registration."

This is the cleverness of Stephen Thompson.

Charlie actually entered the welfare home at the age of eight, and his household registration is not from Aurous Hill.

In order to make Charlie absolutely safe, he must give Charlie a brand-new identity, a local identity in Aurous Hill, and an identity that can withstand scrutiny and will not be seen through in the future.

That's why he fabricated Charlie's background and asked his official information to show that he was abandoned by his parents after birth and couldn't find his biological parents. He didn't enter his household registration through the welfare home until he was eight years old in the welfare home.

In this way, it is basically seamless.

After all, many abandoned babies who can't find their parents always have their own household registration in the end, which is also a routine operation.

When Michaela Joules saw this, she didn't have any doubts, but couldn't help exclaiming, "How can Charlie Wade's life be so miserable? And I think he dropped out of college after graduating from high school. He didn't study in college for a year until he got married, and he didn't have a degree certificate."

"Yes." Shan Elliot also sighed, "It looks very miserable, and after he got married, the household registration moved out of the collective household registration of the welfare home and entered Jacob Wilson's family household registration. If I guess correctly, he should be the son-in-law of the Wilson family."

"In-door son-in-law?" Although Michaela Joules has lived in the United States since she was a child, she was born and raised in a Chinese family after all, and she still knows many unique Chinese customs very well.

She couldn't help frowning and muttering, "This Master Wade is actually an in-door son-in-law? If he really has such great ability, why should he be an in-door son-in-law? Moreover, the strength of the Wilson family seems to be very, very ordinary..."

In her impression, the identity of in-door son-in-law can be said to be the lowest label in Chinese society.

Only those whose family is very difficult, or whose family strength and status are much worse than women, will give up their dignity and become in-door son-in-law.

After all, as long as you are a son-in-law, it means giving up a man's face, or even your original native family.

Moreover, many Chinese families Michaela Joules knows let their daughters recruit sons-in-law because they don't have sons or think of others more prospering. Although those in-door sons-in-law are well-dressed and well-oriented, they have almost no dignity in front of their wives and their wives' mother' families, and are often called back and drunk and insulted in various ways.

Even the child born must follow the woman's family name.

Because of these impressions, Michaela Joules was extremely surprised. She really couldn't figure out why Charlie had to be in a small family and an in-door son-in-law if this Charlie was really awesome?

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3721-3722

Chapter 3721

Because she couldn't figure it out, Michaela Joules furrowed her brows and remained silent for a long time, still thinking about the possibilities.

Shan Elliott saw that her expression was serious, so she couldn't help asking, "Miss, what do you think of this matter now?"

Michaela Joules sighed, staring at the pile of materials in front of her, rubbing her temples with her slender and tender white jade hands, and said in a melancholy voice, "From these materials, if the entire Wilson family starts to count from Lady Wilson, all their assets add up to no more than 100 million yuan."

"However, if this Charlie Wade is really the master of the Rejuvenation Pill I was looking for, then even just a pill, probably worth tens of billions of dollars!"

"In that case, Charlie's strength is hundreds of thousands of times stronger than that of the Wilson family, so how can he be the son-in-law of the Wilson family?"

Speaking of this, Michaela Joules said again, "According to a proportional calculation, it is like a rich man who is worth nearly tens of millions of dollars, and his family's assets add up to a pauper family who doesn't even have 10,000 yuan. Then I want to know, why did he join the family, is it to help the poor family?"

"Yeah..." Shan Elliott also nodded in agreement, "If according to this value gap, the whole family of the Wilson family would have to treat Charlie as God, but how could it be said that Charlie was just an indoor son-in-law?"

Then, she asked, "Miss, could it be that we made a wrong judgment at the beginning?"

Michaela Joules pursed her lips, and suddenly a firm look burst into her eyes, and said in a deep voice, "We have been focusing on this little by little from the clues all the way, everything is right, there should be no mistake!"

"Furthermore, the case of Jacob Wilson is also here. He did have a hemiplegia due to a complete spinal cord injury, but he was completely healed in less than a day. This unprecedented medical miracle has really happened!"

"Regardless of whether or not Charlie is the person we are looking for, I can be sure that Jacob Wilson must be cured by the person we are looking for!"

Speaking of this, Michaela Joules stood up, her expression and eyes were more determined and said, "This Jacob Wilson has a very mediocre personal resume, and basically there is nothing that can be easily obtained. If it weren't for someone to help him, once he was paraplegic, he can only lie in bed and there is absolutely no chance of recovery. And I have read about Jacob Wilson's family and connections. Except for the mysterious background of Charlie Wade, everyone else is as mediocre as Jacob Wilson, and it is impossible to help Jacob Wilson from his accident!"

Shan Elliott hurriedly said, "Miss, Charlie Wade's background is not mysterious at all. All his backgrounds are clear at a glance. Compared with the Wilson family, he is also a mediocre..."

“No.” Michaela Joules said seriously, “Charlie’s life history before the age of eighteen is almost completely blank. This shows that he has never attended a formal elementary school, nor a formal junior high school, and nine years of compulsory education. Accepted in the orphanage, this kind of resume is almost equal to blank. The more it is, the more unfathomable I feel.”

Speaking of this, Michaela Joules said again, “As for why Charlie wanted to enter the Wilson family, to be honest, I didn’t want to understand, but I think he must have his reasons!”

Shan Elliott asked, “Miss, can you be sure now, is this Charlie Wade the one you are looking for?”

“I can be sure!” Michaela Joules said firmly, “If it weren’t him, it would prove that I was wrong from beginning to end in this matter, but if I had one place right from beginning to end of this matter, then it must be him!”

Speaking of this, Michaela Joules quickly picked up Jacob Wilson’s information and said, “This Jacob Wilson is now the executive vice president of the Aurous Hill Painting and Calligraphy Association. Please check the details of the Aurous Hill Painting and Calligraphy Association. What breakthrough has been found in Jacob Wilson’s body!”

Jacob Wilson often leaves early and returns late in recent days.

Although the Aurous Hill Calligraphy and Painting Association is a professional non-governmental organization in name, it is actually half of the official nature.

Generally speaking, it is a semi-official and semi-civilian people’s organization.

If there is no need for official business, it is a small group of hobbyists.

But if there is an official event, it will represent the official attendance.

In this cultural exchange between Aurous Hill and South Korea's sister cities, the Calligraphy and Painting Association has naturally become the official friendship representative and exchange messenger.

Therefore, in order to ensure the success of the exchange activities, Jacob Wilson has been attending various symposiums in the city with Chairman Peter of the Calligraphy and Painting Association these days.

Although very busy, Jacob Wilson has been very energetic recently.

He has been mediocre in his life. He hasn't done anything deceptive in 50 years. As the second-in-command of the Calligraphy and Painting Association, he participates in various formal meetings and meets with various leaders and elites every day, giving him the illusion that he is also an elite.

This afternoon, representatives of the Calligraphy and Painting Association went to the city for a meeting again, this time to communicate the details of the Korean exchange with colleagues from the Folk Arts Association, the Writers Association, and the University for the Elderly.

Not only Jacob Wilson, who represented the Calligraphy and Painting Association, but also Mathilda, Jacob Wilson's first love, who represented the senior university, and Bryan Scott, the old classmate of Charlie's mother and Stella Scott's father, attended the meeting.

Both Mathilda and Bryan Scott are PhDs who have returned to China from the United States. Mathilda has been engaged in the law industry in the United States for many years and has extremely rich experience, and Bryan Scott is an internationally renowned economics expert. Although they have not been in the senior university for a long time, But soon relying on his outstanding abilities, he became the two most prestigious visiting professors in senior universities.

In contrast, Jacob Wilson is not so eye-catching.

Although he is the vice president of the Calligraphy and Painting Association, he knows nothing about the field of calligraphy and painting.

If you really give him a brush, he will not be able to write much good words or paint, it is nothing more than the level of an amateur fancier.

He had a lot of water when he joined the Calligraphy and Painting Association as an ordinary member, and now he can climb into the second-in-command position of the executive vice president, and it is all dependent on the leadership of Chairman Peter along the way.

Since Chairman Peter saw Don Albert's humility and respect for Jacob Wilson in Heaven Spring Mansion that time, he has attached great importance to Jacob Wilson.

Now on some big public occasions, he will take the initiative to bring Jacob Wilson to see the world.

However, Jacob Wilson has no real facts, he really wants to make some comments in the field of painting and calligraphy. Professionals will know that he is half-hearted when he hears it.

In order to prevent him from showing his timidity and laughing generously on the spot, Chairman Peter took him out to participate in the event and would ask him to listen more and talk less, so as not to make more mistakes.

Jacob Wilson naturally knew that he was not good at it, so he basically didn't express his opinions on such occasions.

However, at this exchange meeting, both Mathilda and Bryan Scott shined brightly.

In order to demonstrate the positive self-improvement style of Aurous Hill senior citizens in the university for the elderly in this exchange event in South Korea, the two made a set of very professional presentation courseware together. The general resume amazed everyone present.

The vast majority of domestic colleges for the elderly are actually entertainment centers for the elderly. Retired elderly people go to learn calligraphy, painting, dance or even Tai Chi, or engage in recreational activities together. This is basically the entire content of the elderly colleges.

However, both Mathilda and Bryan Scott feel that since it is an elderly university, they still have to sort out some in-depth teaching courses. Therefore, both of them have invested a lot of energy in the elderly university and organized a group of relatively high cultural levels of the elderly, make several subjects vivid.

Except for Jacob Wilson, who nodded his head repeatedly during the whole meeting, he was really a little bit curious in his heart.

On the one hand, he feels low self-esteem because of the huge gap between his level and Mathilda and Bryan Scott;

On the other hand, he also felt that the cooperation between Mathilda and Bryan Scott was too close, and the cooperation was perfect, which overturned the jealousy in his heart.

The meeting was about to end. Someone suggested that everyone gather for a dinner at night. Jacob Wilson also wanted to take the opportunity to have more contact with Mathilda. Unexpectedly, Mathilda said, "Professor Bryan and I will not participate in the dinner. We will have to go back to the university for the elderly, and there will be an internal learning experience sharing session tonight."

Chairman Peter couldn't help but praised, "Professor Mathilda is so responsible! Even organizing a sharing session at night, compared with your senior university, our Calligraphy and Painting Association is really a bit reluctant to make progress!"

Mathilda said humbly, "Chairman Peter, don't say that. Senior colleges are different from the Calligraphy and Painting Association. The Calligraphy and Painting Association is a professional group composed of professionals. It is like a regular army. We are all retired and don't know what to do. Good idle personnel, so I can only learn more, and when we become professionals, we will be able to follow you!"

Jacob Wilson was also a little bit upset. If Mathilda didn't want to go to the dinner party, he didn't have much interest in having dinner with these elders, so he said, "Mathilda, or I'll send you to the university for the elderly. It's just right to walk with me from here on the way."

Mathilda smiled slightly and said politely, "No need Jacob, I came with Professor Bryan today. Professor Bryan drove, and we happened to be going back together."

"Oh..." Jacob Wilson felt even more disappointed, and he didn't know how to continue the topic for a while.

At this time, Chairman Peter's cell phone rang, he went out to answer the phone, and soon rushed over happily, and said to Jacob Wilson excitedly, "Jacob, we should go back to the association! There is a great thing!"

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3723-3724

Seeing that Chairman Peter was so excited, Jacob Wilson was curious, but he still asked listlessly, "Chairman, what is it that makes you so excited?"

Chairman Peter said excitedly, "The secretary of the association called and said that there is an overseas Chinese who was entrusted by the old family to donate the works of eight calligraphers Timothy Jones (fǔ) to our calligraphy and painting association!"

“Timothy Jones?” Jacob Wilson asked blankly, “Is this person very famous?”

When Chairman Peter heard this, he couldn't laugh or cry immediately, and said, “Jacob...I told you a long time ago. You are now the vice president of the Calligraphy and Painting Association. It doesn't matter if you have no talent in calligraphy and painting, but you must be able to look at the collection of ancient and modern paintings and calligraphy if you are fine, but you just don't listen, Timothy Jones, you don't even know, if you go out by yourself in the future, it's easy to be asked by others in two or two sentences!”

As he said, he quickly explained, “Timothy Jones is one of the most famous calligraphers in the history of Aurous Hill. He has the title of the first man in official script of the Qing Dynasty. Although among so many top calligraphy masters in history, Timothy Jones is not so famous, but he is after all our local calligrapher in Aurous Hill, which is of great significance to our Aurous Hill Calligraphy and Painting Association!”

Jacob Wilson smiled awkwardly, and said, “Oh, I remember... You said that you were anxious, I didn't want to understand...”

Jacob Wilson said so, but in fact he didn't know much about Timothy Jones.

Chairman Peter did not tell him seriously, and said excitedly, “This is not the most important thing. The most important thing is that the overseas Chinese also said that she really wants to promote our Aurous Hill local historical accumulation in the field of calligraphy and painting, and want to sponsor us to organize a large-scale Aurous Hill historical painting and calligraphy exhibition! Take out all the famous works of our Aurous Hill dynasties in the field of calligraphy, and organize a good exhibition, and she also promised to help us find some famous works of Aurous Hill in history!”

As he said, he patted Jacob Wilson on the shoulder and said excitedly, “If this exhibition is successful, our Calligraphy and Painting Association will become famous! Let's go back to the association and meet this overseas Chinese.”

Jacob Wilson was not interested in this because he was in a bad mood. Overseas Chinese and exhibitions were of little significance to him. He just wanted to fly with Mathilda as soon as possible, so that he could cut off other men's thoughts, especially that Bryan Scott!

But, after all, he is the number two figure in the Calligraphy and Painting Association. Chairman Peter said so. He definitely can't drop the chain, so he can only agree and say, "Okay, let's go now!"

Coincidentally, Mathilda and Bryan Scott also packed the laptops they brought. Seeing Jacob Wilson and Chairman Peter were leaving, Mathilda stepped forward and asked curiously, "Jacob, are you not going to dinner?"

"Not going anymore." Jacob Wilson said, "There is something urgent in the association. I have to go back with Chairman Peter."

Mathilda nodded and said, "It just so happens that Professor Bryan and I are also going to leave, let's go out together."

The four of them walked to the parking lot together. Bryan Scott's car stopped close, so Mathilda said to Jacob Wilson and Chairman Peter, "Jacob and Chairman Peter, then we two will leave first and see you another day."

Chairman Peter said cheerfully, "Professor Mathilda, you and Professor Bryan will go first, we parked far away."

"Okay." Mathilda smiled slightly, Bryan Scott on the side also greeted the two of them, and then got into the car and started the car to leave.

Seeing the two driving far away, Chairman Peter couldn't help but sigh, "Jacob, don't you think that Professor Mathilda and Professor Bryan are a good match?"

Jacob Wilson's eyes widened, and he blurted out, "How do they match?! How can a guy with the surname Scott deserve Mathilda!"

Chairman Peter said seriously, "You see, two of them are talents of the same kind. Although they are almost fifty, they look like they are about forty years old, and they are both high-achieving students who have returned to the United States. There must be more topics in common, and I heard that they are both widowed. This is so good that they can be a good match!"

Jacob Wilson felt very uncomfortable in his heart, and couldn't help but mutter a little depressed, "I see him, that Bryan Scott, he's just a toad that wants to eat swan meat!"

Chairman Peter frowned and asked in surprise, "Everyone has a very good impression of Professor Bryan. Why do you have such a big prejudice against him? Two of them are the real kind of people. The male swan eats the female swan, and the family is right, it matches well!"

When Jacob Wilson heard him say that the male swan eats the female swan, his heart is even more fierce, and he can't help but curse in his heart, "What do you mean, Chairman? What male swan eats the female swan? Do I suppose to be the toad?!"

Chairman Peter saw Jacob Wilson's expression of irritation and exclaimed, "Jacob, are you interested in Professor Mathilda?!"

Chairman Peter didn't know the past of Jacob Wilson and Mathilda, only that they knew each other and were old classmates.

Moreover, Jacob Wilson has a family. Chairman Peter knows this very well, so he has never thought about it.

However, seeing that Jacob Wilson seemed to be very annoyed by Mathilda and Bryan Scott's approaching, he immediately felt a little scent.

Jacob Wilson was really a veteran at the textbook level.

At this time, he was pierced by his mind, how dare he admit it!

So he waved his hand quickly and said, "I don't, I just feel that Bryan Scott is not good enough for Mathilda."

Chairman Peter nodded and said earnestly, "Jacob, you are best if you don't have this idea! You know, our Calligraphy and Painting Association is half of the official nature. We represent the face of the cultural field, and you have a wife, if there is a scandal involving chaos and abandonment at this time, or the scandal of stepping on two boats, then it is a matter of style, and I can't keep you!"

When Jacob Wilson heard this, his heart suddenly became cold, and Elaine's face suddenly appeared in his mind.

He could almost imagine how violently Elaine would react if he knew that Mathilda had returned to China and had walked closer to him.

At that time, I am afraid that Mars will hit the earth!

However, he didn't have a chance to divorce Elaine. Elaine had clearly stated that she would not divorce himself, so even if she unilaterally sue for divorce, it is impossible.

According to the current regulations, on the premise that both parties have no major faults, the first two years of prosecution for divorce are scored. Otherwise, even if the prosecution is filed, the court will rule that the divorce is not allowed.

Moreover, he really want to separate from Elaine. In the past two years, Elaine must not torture himself to death?

The thought of this made Jacob Wilson nervous and uncomfortable.

He has been with Elaine for so many years, and has been suppressed by Elaine in various ways, and has already developed a strong emotional fear of Elaine mentally.

Although he is a big man, and Elaine is just a bitch, but sometimes, psychological shadows appear, or by years of suppression and the big masters are also easily placed in an absolutely passive and weak position.

In real life, although most domestic violence is violence against women by men, there are also a few domestic violence committed by women against men.

And men's violence against women is mostly because men are inherently stronger than women and rely on their bodies to gain the upper hand.

And women's violence against men is mostly because women use their own methods to give men years of mental pressure, which leads to the mentally accustomed to the other side and the habit of being constantly suppressed by the other side.

This is the case with Jacob Wilson.

He knew that Elaine was blocking the stumbling block between him and Mathilda, but he still didn't have the courage to kick her away.

Chairman Peter saw him in a daze and couldn't help asking him, "Jacob, what do you think?"

Jacob Wilson came back to his senses and said hurriedly, "Nothing, it's nothing."

Chairman Peter didn't think much, and said, "Hurry up, that overseas Chinese is still waiting!"

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3725-3728

Soon, Chairman Peter and Jacob drove their own cars and returned to the Calligraphy and Painting Association with their front and back feet.

At this time, Michaela Joules had been waiting here for a long time.

As soon as Chairman Peter came back, the secretary took him and Jacob to the conference room and said to Michaela Joules, who was waiting here, "Miss Lavigne, these two are Chairman Peter of our Calligraphy and Painting Association and Vice President Wilson!"

After saying that, she introduced to the two people, "Chairman Peter and Vice President Wilson, this is what I mentioned on the phone, Miss Lavigne."

Michaela Joules did not use her real identity to be on the safe side.

However, for her, she has a completely legal and real identity in several countries. The identity of this French Chinese, is only one of her many identities.

Michaela Joules took a look at Jacob more and was finally relieved. As long as she came into contact with Jacob, she would definitely have a chance to find out about his son-in-law Charlie.

So she stood up very politely and said with a smile, "I have heard about you lot for a long time. I finally met you two."

Chairman Peter didn't expect that this overseas Chinese was a young and beautiful girl. After a little stunned, he quickly laughed and said, "Miss Lavigne is so polite. I heard that an overseas Chinese wanted to donate calligraphy and paintings, but I didn't expect it to be a young lady. Was Miss Lavigne from Aurous Hill before?"

Michaela Joules smiled and shook her head and said, "Our ancestors are from Aurous Hill. Although the recent generations have settled overseas, the elderly in my family still have a deep affection for Aurous Hill, but the old man is too old to come over, so he entrusted me to do some modest contribution to the Aurous Hill calligraphy and painting industry."

With that, she greeted Shan Elliot beside her and said, "Shan, bring the calligraphy and paintings prepared by the old man quickly."

Shan Elliot quickly took a step forward and brought over a wooden box made of Jinsi Nanmu. The wooden box was opened on the conference table with eight picture scrolls in it.

These eight scrolls were bought by the Joules family from an American collector last night and sent to Aurous Hill that night.

The purpose is to cooperate with Michaela Joules to fabricate the story background so that she can take the opportunity to go online with Jacob.

However, neither Chairman Peter nor Jacob knew that Michaela Joules played such a big role just to find a chance to get close to Jacob's son-in-law, Charlie.

Later, Michaela Joules made a gesture of invitation to Chairman Peter and Jacob. Respectfully said, "These are the eight works of Timothy Jones brought back by the old man in my family. Please have a look."

Chairman Peter was naturally very excited. He quickly took out a pair of white gloves from his pocket, carefully picked up one of the scrolls, gently spread it out on the table, and praised as he looked at it, "This is indeed Timothy Jones' authentic work, and looking at the handwriting, it is Timothy Jones's most prosperous golden age, which is very preserved. It's intact and precious!"

Michaela Joules nodded and said with a smile, "These eight works of Timothy Jones are a series deliberately written by Timothy Jones. Eight scrolls have written eight articles to praise the four seasons and four sides of Aurous Hill, and the eight scrolls are perfectly preserved, which is really rare!"

Chairman Peter said excitedly, "There is one of these eight scrolls nicknamed Aurous Hill Eight Sighs!" It is of great significance to the local history and customs of Aurous Hill! When I first came into contact with calligraphy, I heard of these eight scrolls, but I only heard that they had flowed overseas before, but I didn't expect that I'm so lucky to see them today in Aurous Hill!"

Chapter 3726

With that, he said to Jacob, "Jacob, come and have a look! This can be said to be the most famous local calligrapher in Aurous Hill. These eight scrolls can also best represent our culture and history in Aurous Hill! Look at this stroke, it is vigorous and powerful, and the subtleties are extremely round and full of charm. It's simply wonderful!"

Jacob can't understand any calligraphy. All he knows is that this thing looks really regular, but it's still too early to understand the essence.

Therefore, he could only make up the number in a row of praises, "It's really a good word! At first glance, it's everyone's work. It's amazing!"

Jacob's words made Michaela Joules firmly believe that this old man is a big product.

However, she still supported it very seriously and said, "Vice President Wilson is right. This is indeed everyone's work. Although it is not as good as top calligraphy masters, it is absolutely one of the best in terms of Aurous Hill, water and soil.”

At this time, Jacob came to Chairman Peter and pretended to ask her casually, “Chairman, how much can these eight scrolls be worth?”

Chairman Peter said seriously, “Compared with many top people, Timothy Jones’ works are not expensive, but in recent years, the auction price of excellent works has also exceeded one million, and you know in the collection industry that the more complete sets of things, the more expensive they are, and the more sets there are, the more expensive they are! So if these eight scrolls are really taken out for auction, tens of millions are still needed!”

Jacob was secretly stunned. He couldn’t help looking at Michaela Joules and thought, “This girl must have a lot of money at home, otherwise how could she donate tens of millions of worth of calligraphy?”

Chairman Peter had opened and read all eight scrolls one by one at this time. The more he looked at it, the more he was overjoyed. He couldn’t help asking Michaela Joules, “Miss Lavigne, are these eight scrolls really going to be donated to the Aurous Hill Calligraphy and Painting Association?”

Michaela Joules said without hesitation, “Of course! If Chairman Peter is not satisfied, I can sign the donation letter at any time and confirm the donation in writing!”

Chairman Peter was particularly excited and said in a trembling voice, “Oh! Thank you so much, Miss Lavigne! It must be an extremely sensation for the whole Aurous Hill calligraphy and painting world! On behalf of the Aurous Hill Calligraphy and Painting Association, as well as all calligraphy, painters and calligraphy and painting enthusiasts in Aurous Hill, thank you for your generous donation!”

Michaela Joules said with a smile, “Chairman Peter is serious. These eight scrolls are the heart of the elderly in the family. I’m just giving it for him.”

Chairman Peter asked gratefully, “Miss Lavigne, I don’t know what the old man in your family calls him? I will publicize it in the calligraphy and painting industry of Aurous Hill, so that everyone could remember his contribution to the cultural cause of Aurous Hill!”

Michaela Joules said seriously, “Chairman Peter, my grandfather is relatively low-key. He doesn’t want to disclose too much about his identity. However, the elderly in my family have always been thinking about the promotion and development of Aurous Hill’s history and culture, so this time he also instructed me to hold a Aurous Hill local art exhibition in Aurous Hill. I have to ask you two on this matter. The long-term help is arranged. As for the payment for the event, it is all sponsored by our family. When the exhibition starts, he will definitely come to Aurous Hill to participate, and there will also be a chance to communicate with you two face to face.

Chairman Peter nodded and said seriously, “Then wait for the exhibition to start and see the old gentleman’s demeanor!”

With that, he tentatively asked, “Miss Lavigne, I don’t know what your family’s budget for art exhibitions is?”

Michaela Joules casually said, “Let’s order fifty million yuan initially. If it’s not enough, it can be added!”

Chairman Peter was dizzy when he heard the number of fifty million.

The vast majority of the funds of the Calligraphy and Painting Association rely on the financial allocation of higher levels, but the annual allocation is only millions. When the funds are insufficient every year, Chairman Peter will also lead everyone around to generate income to ensure the good operation of the Calligraphy and Painting Association.

Therefore, they’re used to living a tight life. At first listening to an art exhibition, having a budget of fifty million yuan, they weren’t able to adapt to it at all at once.

Jacob was so excited that he couldn’t help saying to Chairman Peter, “Chairman, with these fifty million yuan, we can do a big deal! At that time, the ostentation will be more magnificent, and it will also make other art associations in Aurous Hill, including those from the University for the Aged, have a good look!”

Seeing that the time was ripe, Michaela Joules hurriedly said, “Why don’t I treat you two to a casual meal in the evening? Let’s talk about the art exhibition while eating?”

Chairman Peter naturally agreed with great excitement. Jacob saw Bryan Scott show off at the exchange meeting today, and he was also a little angry. As soon as he heard that there was a chance to do a big thing, he was naturally very excited, so he did not hesitate to agree to Michaela Joules’ invitation.

However, neither of these two men can see that the little girl in her early twenties in front of them simply means that the drunkard is not to drink!

Chapter 3727

As soon as he talked about the meal, Chairman Peter immediately said, “Miss Lavigne, you are a distinguished guest of our Calligraphy and Painting Association. I have to arrange everything for today’s dinner!”

Michaela Joules is very clear that you are polite when you are not.

For example, if someone else wants to invite him to dinner, if the other party is just polite, he must also be polite, and then gently refuse, so that both sides have steps to go down, and naturally everyone is happy.

However, if the other party really wants to treat, there is no need to be too polite, let alone whether to rush to pay the bill. You just need to agree frankly to give the greatest respect to the other party.

So she smiled and said, “Chairman Peter, since you have said that, I will naturally not treat you! I’ll let you arrange it in the evening!”

Chairman Peter patted his chest and said, "Don't worry, I will definitely arrange the best restaurant in Aurous Hill in the evening!"

With that, he looked at Jacob and said, "Jacob, you have a good relationship with Don Albert of Heaven Spring Mansion. Why don't you book a box for me in Heaven Spring Mansion? Let's hold a banquet for Miss Lavigne in Heaven Spring Mansion in the evening!"

Naturally, Jacob will not refuse this kind of thing. After all, Don Albert respects him. Isn't it a matter of saying that Don Albert arranges a box?

So he immediately said, "Okay, Chairman, I'll call Don Albert and ask him to prepare a good box for us!"

As soon as Michaela Joules heard the words Heaven Spring Mansion, she was as big as a fight. She said hurriedly, "Vice President Wilson, don't worry!"

With that, she quickly said to Chairman Peter, "Chairman, let's not go to such a high-end restaurant. Let's just find a special hotel in Aurous Hill for a home-cooked meal. To be honest, this is my first time to come to Aurous Hill. I'm not familiar with this city. I really want to know the real life side of this city."

As soon as Chairman Peter heard this, he immediately praised, "Miss Lavigne is right! When you first arrived, your ancestors went out of our Aurous Hill again. Aurous Hill is half of your hometown. Now that you have returned to your hometown, you must taste the most down-to-earth taste of your hometown!"

With that, he immediately said, "Then let's try the most authentic Aurous Hill local food tonight!"

"Okay!" Michaela Joules hurriedly agreed.

Soon, Chairman Peter drove the way and led everyone to an inconspicuous small restaurant. Although the restaurant was small, the internal environment was really good and the business was very good.

If Chairman Peter hadn't called in advance, they wouldn't have even had a seat.

Fortunately, Chairman Peter also has some thin noodles here, so he deliberately vacated a table of customers who had booked boxes and left them to Chairman Peter.

Chairman Peter took Jacob and Michaela Joules with Shan Elliot. After the four sat down in the box and ordered some local dishes, Chairman Peter asked Michaela Joules, "Miss Lavigne, I don't know how long you will stay in Aurous Hill this time? It will take next month to do the art exhibition as soon as possible, because we will go to South Korea for cultural exchanges in the second half of this month, and it may take more than a week to come back, and this exchange activity is organized in the city, so we can't shirk it."

Chairman Peter is worried that Michaela Joules is in a hurry. If she can't stay in China for too long, the pace of this art exhibition is bound to accelerate, but at present, all her energy is on cultural exchange, and it may be difficult to take both.

Michaela Joules also knows what Chairman Peter is worried about, and she has been waiting for Chairman Peter to ask herself this question.

Chapter 3728

Therefore, she immediately followed Chairman Peter's words and said with a smile, "Don't worry, Chairman Peter. Your and Vice President Wilson's recent energy is still on the cultural exchanges you two. As for the art exhibition, I can wait until you two come back from South Korea, because I will stay in Aurous Hill for a long time."

"Oh? Really?" Chairman Peter said in surprise, "That's really great! After all, the scale of an art exhibition with a budget of fifty million can be regarded as first-class in China. If you want to succeed in such a large art exhibition, you must spend more time and energy preparing for it."

"Yes!" Michaela Joules nodded and smiled, "To tell you the truth, Chairman Peter, my grandfather actually wants to return to his roots in the future, so I came to Aurous Hill this time to take a front stand for him, first understand the situation in Aurous Hill, and then settle down the house, so that he can move back to Aurous Hill at ease.”

Chairman Peter asked curiously, “Miss Lavigne meant to settle down in Aurous Hill?”

Michaela Joules nodded obediently, “Yes, I just bought a villa these two days, but I haven’t had time to regularize it. Maybe I have to find a more reliable Feng shui master to help me have a look. If there is problem with Feng shui, will there be any impact on the old man?”

Hearing this, Jacob’s eyes suddenly lit up and blurted out almost without hesitation and said excitedly, “Oh, Miss Lavigne, if you want to find a Feng Shui master, then you really have really found the right person today!”

Michaela Joules talked to Chairman Peter so much just to get Jacob in and wait for him to say this!

Therefore, she suppressed her excitement and pretended to be surprised and asked, “Vice President Wilson, do you still know Feng Shui?”

Jacob smiled and waved his hand, “I don’t understand, but my son-in-law knows it very well! He is a master who specializes in Feng shui. He has a lot of customers in Aurous Hill and even all over the country, and he is a big customer like Miss Lavigne!”

“Really?” Michaela Joules said with a surprised face, “It would be a coincidence that!”

Chairman Peter beside him couldn’t help echoing, “Miss Lavigne, Jacob is right. His son-in-law is indeed a Feng shui master. As for Don Albert of Heaven Spring Mansion I just mentioned, he respects his son-in-law. Master Wade is very courteous. You know, Don Albert is a big and famous person in Aurous Hill, such as if his son-in-law is not really talented and learned, it is definitely impossible to convince people like Don Albert so much.”

Michaela Joules was so excited. At this moment, she could completely conclude that Charlie, Jacob's son-in-law, was Master Wade, and he was the man behind Jacob's cure of high paraplegia!

In this way, Charlie has Rejuvenating Pill, which is reasonable!

Thinking of this, she quickly said, "Vice President Wilson, please help me have an affair with your son-in-law and ask him to take time out of his busy schedule to help me see the Feng shui of that villa!"

Jacob has always been a good face. At this time, he naturally took a very straightforward package and said, "Don't worry, Miss Lavigne, my son-in-law respects me very much. When I go back, I will tell him and he will definitely agree!"

With that, Jacob was moved and asked again quickly, "By the way, Miss Lavigne, is the villa you bought a new house or a second-hand house? Is it hardcover or rough?"

Michaela Joules gave the matter directly and completely to Shan Elliot. Unexpectedly, she knew what kind of villa she bought, so she said to Shan Elliot quietly, "Shan, please introduce it to Vice President Wilson."

Shan Elliot said quickly, "Vice President Wilson, the villa we bought by our young lady is a second-hand detached villa. In the suburbs, the interior is decorated, but it has been decorated for some years. Do you ask this? Is there anything particular about Feng shui?"

Jacob laughed and said, "It's not that there is anything particular about Feng shui. The main reason is that my daughter has set up a design studio by herself, mainly for interior design. I want to say that if Miss Lavigne's villa needs to be decorated, you can find my daughter. She is very professional!"

Michaela Joules' eyes lit up and said happily, "That's great! I just want to tear down all the interior decorations and redo them, so I don't have to work hard to go out to find!"

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3729-3732

Chapter 3729

Jacob didn't know that he had just sold his daughter and son-in-law inadvertently.

On the contrary, he felt that he had made a lot of credit today, and he even made a business for his daughter and son-in-law.

This is not to blame him for being too stupid. After all, how could he know that the so-called "Miss Lavigne" in front of him is the real identity of Michaela Joules, and she is also the eldest lady of a top family with hundreds of billions of dollars.

Moreover, he didn't even know that Miss Lavigne came to Aurous Hill for the Rejuvenating Pill auction to find Charlie.

At this point in the meal, Michaela Joules was in a good mood.

At the subsequent dinner, she did not mention Feng Shui and decoration. Everything she talked about was closely related to the art exhibition. It seemed that Feng Shui and decoration were just a random topic.

After finishing a meal, Jacob couldn't help being the first to say goodbye and asked Michaela Joules, "Miss Lavigne, are you sure you need the Feng Shui and decoration matters? If you are sure, I'll just go home and talk to my daughter and son-in-law."

"OK!" Michaela Joules nodded with a smile, and said seriously, "Well, Mr. Wilson, you can make an appointment with your son-in-law for me, so that he has time to help me see Feng Shui. If this house has no problem with Feng Shui, I will talk to your daughter about the subsequent renovation needs. If this house has more Feng shui issues, then I will simply change it. Anyway, it will cost tens of millions."

Michaela Joules did not deliberately show off or deliberately Versailles. She bought tens of millions and thousands of square meters of single-family villas in Aurous Hill. From the perspective of Aurous Hill locals, it was almost over, but for Michaela Joules, it's as casual as ordinary people go to a tourist attraction and buy a souvenir at hand.

Moreover, if Charlie doesn't want to help her with Feng shui matter, Charlie's wife is still next to her. It's better to put the couple in order. If she can't break through Charlie from the front, then she can also turn around from his wife's side.

Jacob also felt that what Michaela Joules said was nothing wrong. First look at Feng Shui, and then decorate after Feng Shui is no problem. This logic is reasonable, well-founded, and convincing.

So he smiled and said, "Okay, I'll talk to my son-in-law when I look back, and let him take some time to show you Feng shui!"

Michaela Joules nodded quickly, handed Jacob a business card, and smiled, "Vice President Wilson, this is my business card. If your son-in-law has no problem, please contact me."

Jacob said with a smile, "No problem, I'll tell him when I get home!"

.....

When he got home, Jacob was in a good mood. He stopped the car and walked into the house whistling all the way.

Charlie, Claire, and Elaine had just eaten dinner. Seeing Jacob coming into the house, Elaine immediately recruited him, "Jacob, come and take the table!"

Jacob was stunned, and said with a black face, "Why do you let me clean up the table? Why don't you clean it up by yourself?"

Elaine glared at him, and said angrily, "You have been outside for too long and come back home so late. Isn't it right for you to do some housework?"

As she said, Elaine grumbled dissatisfiedly, "You've been out there all day long to mess with that shit association, and I haven't seen you go home with millions of dollars. What's the use? Isn't it a waste? And with your level of skill, you are embarrassed to go to Korea on behalf of Aurous Hill to communicate? If you don't embarrass Aurous Hill, it's a scent!"

Elaine's mood has been somewhat depressed recently.

Chapter 3730

The main reason for the downturn was that Jacob told her last time that he would go to Korea for cultural exchanges. This made Elaine feel a little jealous and a little inferior.

After so many years of marriage, she always blamed Jacob. After all, for so many years, Jacob has been squeezed out of his family. Therefore, Elaine is known as a teacher whenever he is scorned by him.

It is precisely because of Jacob's long-term failure to give Elaine the confidence to ridicule him and mock him.

But how could Elaine think that Jacob had seen a mediocre life for most of his life, and when he was old, he suddenly glowed with a second spring.

Although Elaine said that it was useless to mock his vice president position of the Painting and Calligraphy Association, she actually knew very clearly in her heart how much weight this vice president had.

The senior officials of this kind of cultural association have a very special aura of cultural people, and the city leaders have to show some face.

However, Elaine had been tyrannical in front of Jacob all his life. How could Jacob overshadow him at this time, so she deliberately mocked him.

Jacob was originally very upset at Elaine's mockery, and was about to refute it. When he heard that she said he was not good enough and said that he was indiscriminately filling her count, he immediately pierced the humbleness and sensitivity deep in his heart.

Today, in front of Bryan Scott, Jacob felt this way.

He also clearly realized that he really didn't have any real skills, and he finally got mixed up as the vice president of the Painting and Calligraphy Association. After all, he was still a parallel importer.

However, being so ridiculed by Elaine still stung his self-esteem deeply. He immediately retorted, "Do you think I, the vice president, is a dry meal? In this position, you can not only broaden your horizons, but also strengthen your contacts!"

After speaking, he said again, "By the way, I met an overseas Chinese today, and he is still a rich man! The family members donated tens of millions of calligraphy and painting to our Calligraphy and Painting Association, and they are also willing to sponsor 50 million for a local art exhibition in Aurous Hill! With this kind of network, maybe it will be of great use in the future!"

Elaine curled his lips and said, "What kind of bragging? According to you, people donated 100 million to your calligraphy and painting society? I don't believe who can do nothing, donate money to your calligraphy and painting association!"

Jacob blurted out, "You know what a shit! There are more rich people in this world, and many rich people donate money and sponsorship everywhere. What is it to donate some money in the cultural field?"

With that said, Jacob looked inviting credit, and said, “Yes, because I met this overseas Chinese, I also brought Charlie and Claire a business each! If I don’t join the Calligraphy and Painting Association, how can I find such opportunity?”

Elaine frowned and asked, “Promote business for Charlie and Claire? What kind of business?”

Charlie also looked surprised, “Yes, Dad, I don’t do business either.”

Jacob hurriedly said to Charlie, “Good son-in-law, don’t you always show Feng Shui? The overseas Chinese I met today just bought a villa in Aurous Hill, and we chatted during dinner. She just said that she wanted to invite a Feng Shui master over to have a look. When I heard this, I would definitely have to help our own family. After all, the fertile water does not flow into the outsiders’ fields, so I recommended you to her.”

While talking, Jacob said again, “When you usually show Feng Shui to those rich people, you can get one or two million? This overseas Chinese seems to be wealthy, and you will directly quote her two or three million. She must have agreed without hesitation.”

When Elaine heard this, she immediately beamed with joy and said to Charlie, “My son-in-law, this is a good deal. You don’t have to go to another place. You can make millions if you walk around in Aurous Hill!”

Charlie chuckled, and didn’t know how to pick it up for a while.

Although he kept telling his family that he always go out and show his customers Feng Shui, he had never received a similar order at all. It was an excuse for him to go to other places.

Originally, he thought that his excuse was reasonable and perfect, but he didn’t expect that the old man Jacob actually introduced a client to himself.

He doesn't care about the millions, but the key is that he can't refuse it. Otherwise, it will be obviously unreasonable to use the excuse of showing Feng Shui in the future.

So he had no choice but to nod his head and said, "Good dad, give me her contact information, and I will contact her tomorrow."

Jacob handed over a business card and said, "Here, this is Miss Lavigne. You call her tomorrow and she will know my name."

Chapter 3731

Charlie took the business card and looked at it indifferently, finding that there was only a name and a series of numbers on the business card.

The name is Miss Lavigne and the phone number is a national phone number starting with 159.

Additionally, this business card also exudes a faint ink smell, which appears freshly printed.

Charlie didn't think too much, she took out the phone from him and took a photo of the business card, and then handed it back to Jacob.

He planned to contact this Miss Lavigne tomorrow to show her Feng Shui and discuss this matter.

The next day, Charlie had breakfast, Jacob reminded Charlie, "Charlie, don't forget to call Miss Lavigne."

Charlie nodded and said, "I will send Claire to the company later and get in touch with that Miss Lavigne."

Jacob hastily said, "Don't send Claire. I'll take Claire to the company later. I just want you to let Claire leave the car for you. If Miss Lavigne is in a hurry, you can drive directly."

Claire also nodded her head and said, "Husband, this Miss Lavigne has invested so much money in dad's Calligraphy and Painting Association, and she can be considered a noble person in the Calligraphy and Painting Association for this matter."

After that, she said again, "If you don't see a lot of work on this matter, don't charge people for money."

As soon as Elaine heard this, she blurted out, "Claire, what are you talking about, other people have to settle scores, much less this stranger?"

After she finished speaking, she rushed to tell Charlie, "Good son-in-law, don't listen to Claire. The money to be collected must be collected. Let's not do that stupid thing that doesn't even need money for the sake of the face!"

Charlie looked at Claire and said with a smile, "My wife, don't worry, I know it in my heart."

Elaine hastily said, "Good son-in-law, you can't be stupid! Who we can't live with, nor can we live on money! And this is not a small sum, it can easily be millions!"

Charlie smiled and said, "It's fine mom, I know, don't worry."

With that, Charlie silently gave Claire a look of relief.

But it was only a million or two, Charlie really didn't care, and it didn't hurt to send his love down the road.

After eating, Claire planned to leave in Jacob's car. Charlie remembered the amulet he had made earlier, so he took out two charms and handed them to the father and daughter, and said, "Dad, Claire, this is an amulet that can keep you safe in and out. You two take this with you one by one."

Jacob asked curiously, "Amulet? Where did it come from? Why does it look like it is made of shells?"

Charlie smiled and said, "It's made from shellfish and it doesn't really have any effect. It's just for good luck reasons."

Claire took this exquisite little charm and said in amazement, "This glitter is so beautiful! I'm afraid ordinary shells don't have such a good texture!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Who knows, it may be some kind of unusual shell."

As he said, he was quick to say, "You usually drive out, so take it as a precaution."

Claire nodded and smiled, "I'll hang it on my phone with string! It can also be used as an ornament!"

"Okay," Charlie said with a smile, "I knew I'd thread the rope for you first."

Elaine said with some dissatisfaction, "My son-in-law, why don't you give this charm to your mother?"

Chapter 3732

Charlie smiled and said, "Mom, this is to ensure safe entry and exit. You haven't been out recently, and it's cumbersome to bring it with you. I think it's more practical to get two gold bricks for yourself when if you look back, you can also use it as a dumbbell to keep fit. "

Elaine herself didn't have much interest in any amulet, but she found out that Jacob and Claire had, but she didn't have one, and her heart was a bit unbalanced. Furthermore, she was afraid that Charlie would treat her differently, which is why she complained.

When Charlie said that he was willing to give herself two more gold bricks, the original imbalance in her heart suddenly disappeared.

Furthermore, she even felt that things like charms should be wholesaled in the small commodity market, and it was only a few dollars or more than ten dollars, which could not be compared to the value of two gold bricks.

She is making a lot of money now!

So she immediately clapped her hands happily and said, "Oh that's really cool! My legs and feet aren't good enough anyway, and I won't be going out for a while. The safe entry and exit charm is also a waste for me. It is still a brick of gold that I can stay in shape! Thank you my good son-in-law!"

Claire saw her mother looking like obsessed, and shook her head helplessly, carefully putting away the amulet that Charlie gave her, and then said in a low voice to Charlie, "Husband, then Dad and I will go first."

"Okay". Charlie nodded and said to Jacob, "Dad, remember to take the amulet, don't lose it."

Jacob also put the amulet in his pocket, nodded and said, "Hey, don't worry, I can't lose it!"

The father and daughter left, Charlie stood in the courtyard and called Miss Lavigne, that is, Michaela Joules.

Michaela Joules has been waiting for the call from him since last night and she didn't even get much sleep all night.

She asked his assistant Shan Elliott to create this mobile phone number. She also bought a new mobile phone to install this card. Since it was a new number, no one knew, so when she heard the phone ring, she was excited.

Responding to the emotion in her heart, Michaela Joules deliberately waited for the phone to ring twice before picking up the phone and asking very politely, "Hello."

Charlie asked, "Hello, is this Miss Lavigne?"

Hearing Charlie's voice, Michaela Joules immediately concluded that this voice was the voice that she heard when she first saw Charlie at Shangri-La Hotel.

She knew Charlie's identity right away, but she still pretended to be calm and asked, "Who are you?"

Charlie said, "Hello, my name is Charlie, and Jacob is my father-in-law."

Michaela Joules said suddenly, "You are what Vice President Wilson said, the Master of Feng shui, right?"

Charlie smiled slightly, "I just know a little. I don't know what Miss Lavigne's specific needs for Feng Shui."

Michaela Joules said, "That's right. I just bought a second-hand villa in Aurous Hill. I have not started renovating it yet. I would like to ask Mr. Wade for help to see what the Feng Shui of this villa is like."

Charlie smiled and said, "Most people are optimistic about the Feng Shui before buying a house. Miss Lavigne already bought the house. If there is any problem with the Feng Shui of the homestead, it may be more problematic to change it.”

Michaela Joules smiled and said, “Never mind. If this house is not good with Feng shui, I’ll let it go for the moment. Then I will have to pester Mr. Wade to choose better Feng shui.”

Seeing that the other party is really rich and wealthy, Charlie didn’t say much, so he asked her, “Where is Miss Lavigne’s villa? I’ll show you if it’s convenient for you.”

Michaela Joules hastily said, “The villa is in The Croft Villa. I don’t know if Mr. Wade has any impressions. As for the time, I can do it at any time, and now there is no problem.”

Charlie thought, he had nothing to do in the morning, so it was better to just finish the matter, so he said, “The Croft Villa, I know it, or am I going to drive now?”

“Alright!” Michaela Joules said hurriedly, “Then I’ll run over there now, and we’ll see you at the gate of The Croft Mountain Villa later!”

“No problem, see you later.” After Charlie finished speaking, he ended the call, returned to the villa, took the key, and drove Claire’s BMW out of Thompson’s First Villa.

The Croft Mountain Villa is on the edge of the Aurous Hill Reservoir in the suburbs, dozens of kilometers from the city, and is a bit remote. Charlie has been to The Croft Mountain Villa twice. Because Graham Quinton’s village is in this community, he is also familiar with the road. After driving directly out of town, he drove in the direction of The Croft Villa.

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3733-3736

When Charlie arrived at The Croft Villa, Michaela Joules hadn't arrived yet.

Charlie called her and heard that she was still ten minutes away by car, so he simply waited at the gate of the community.

Originally, he thought of saying hello to Graham Quinton at his home, but thinking that there was not so much time, he decided not to bother.

Ten minutes later, a low-key Cadillac drove to Charlie's side.

As soon as the car stopped and the rear door opened, a young woman in her early twenties stepped out of the car.

Seeing Michaela Joules' first glance, Charlie felt a little surprised, because this woman was not only beautiful in appearance, tall and sexy, but also in the temperament of the whole person, there was also a sassy demeanor.

Michaela Joules looked at Charlie standing at the front of the car, and knew at a glance that this was the Master Wade that she had met at Shangri-La Hotel a few days ago. At this moment, her heart was completely let go and she walked in front of Charlie, smiled and said, "You should be Mr. Wade, right?"

Charlie smiled slightly and said calmly, "Miss Lavigne, right? I'm Charlie Wade."

Michaela Joules took the initiative to reach out to Charlie and said generously, "Hello, Mr. Wade, I'm Miss Lavigne."

Charlie nodded and shook hands with her gently, and then went straight to the topic, "Miss Lavigne, let's go to your villa now and take a look."

“Good!” Michaela Joules said with a smile, “Mr. Wade, please.”

At this time, a man and a woman came down from the front row of Cadillac. The man was Michaela Joules’ bodyguard, and the woman was Michaela Joules’ assistant Shan Elliott.

Shan Elliott spoke at this moment, “Miss, I’ll accompany you in.”

Michaela Joules waved her hand and said, “No, you two will just wait for me in the car. I will go in with Mr. Wade.”

The bodyguard said sternly, “Miss, the master told me to protect you at all times. I will go in with you and it will not affect you and Mr. Wade.”

Charlie glanced at the bodyguard, and with only one glance, he realized that this bodyguard was also a martial artist, and his strength was so great that he had already reached the strength of a six-star warrior.

This made Charlie a little surprised, and he thought to himself, “This Miss Lavigne is away from home, and she has a six-star warrior close guard. This is already the same strength of the four kings of war of the Dragon Hall. According to the Dragon Hall, anyone of the Four Kings of Wars cost tens of millions of dollars a day. Miss Lavigne could hire a six-star warrior as a bodyguard. It seems that her family strength must be extraordinary!”

Michaela Joules didn’t know that even it was the first face-to-face meeting, Charlie already saw through the strength of her bodyguard. The reason why she didn’t want her bodyguard to follow was because she felt that there would be no danger here, and felt that she was also using another identity to contact with Charlie. In this case, it is natural to be very careful to avoid showing the horse’s feet, so she didn’t want to bring other people with her.

So, she said in an unquestionable tone, “Aurous Hill has a very good law and order, and in this broad daylight, in such a high-end community, there is definitely no danger. You two need not say more. Just wait for me here.”

After all, without waiting for the two to respond, she directly said to Charlie, “Mr. Wade, let’s go!”

“Okay.” Charlie nodded, and entered the gate of The Croft Villa with Michaela Joules.

Chapter 3734

As expected, Michaela Joules’ bodyguard and assistant did not follow them.

After entering The Croft Villa, Michaela Joules took Charlie directly to the lake.

The biggest selling point of The Croft Villa is its location on the bank of Aurous Hill Reservoir on the mountainside.

Surrounded by mountains and rivers, the environment and scenery are excellent. Living here is definitely a paradise experience.

However, the only regret is that it is far from the city. If you enter and leave the city during peak hours, there will be more inconvenience in traffic.

Charlie came over this morning. It was against the peak, but it was better. If he came during the evening after get off work, the time along the way would have to be more than doubled.

In this The Croft Villa, the most expensive villas are the villas next to the reservoir. There are only five villas in total, two of which were bought by Graham Quinton and cost a lot to build and transformed into a set.

Seeing that the two were getting closer and closer to the side of the reservoir, Charlie smiled and said, "Miss Lavigne should have bought this mansion, right?"

"Right." Michaela Joules nodded and smiled, and said, "It is said that the best houses here are those near the water. I don't know if there is anything special about Feng shui."

In fact, after Shan Elliott bought a house here, she didn't know the specific location. Shan Elliott reported to her that she was not very concerned.

However, after finally making an appointment with Charlie yesterday, she asked Shan Elliott to take her over to get acquainted with it overnight and found out the internal situation of The Croft Villa and the location of her own villa.

Charlie smiled calmly at this moment, "In Feng Shui, mountain is a symbol of power, while water is a symbol of wealth. It means that there is wealth in the front and backing behind, which is naturally the best choice."

After speaking, Charlie said again, "Furthermore, the layout of The Croft Villa is very good. The front of the waterfront mansion is facing the water bank, which is just low in the front and high in the back. Moreover, it faces the north and faces the south with sufficient sunlight. It is definitely a treasure of geomantic omen."

Speaking of this, Charlie couldn't help laughing, "If I had known that Miss Lavigne bought the waterfront mansion here, then I wouldn't have to come here at all. Feng Shui would definitely not have any problems."

Michaela Joules smiled and said, "How can it be Mr. Wade, you are a Feng Shui master, and you must have a lot of unique insights on Feng Shui. I hope you can help me take a closer look and see the internal and external structure and decoration of my house. On the above, is there any room for further improvement? I am not pursuing a prosperous wealth. The main reason is that the elderly at home can be healthy and avoid disasters."

Charlie nodded, and said, "Well, let's go in and take a closer look."

While talking, Michaela Joules took Charlie to the door of a familiar mansion, which was the house of Graham Quinton's family.

Before Charlie could ask her, she took out a magnetic card and swiped it at the entrance guard outside the gate, and the gate automatically opened from both sides inward.

Charlie couldn't help but asked her, "Miss Lavigne, you bought this house?"

"Yes." Michaela Joules nodded and asked curiously, "Mr. Wade is familiar with this house?"

Charlie was surprised. He didn't know why Graham Quinton actually sold this house. He didn't hear any news about it.

However, he changed his mind to think that Graham Quinton is his friend, not his own subordinate, it is impossible to sell a villa and say hello to himself.

Therefore, he calmly said to Michaela Joules, "I have heard of this house before. It is said that it was remodeled by two single-family villas. It can also be seen from the outside that the area and construction area of this villa is much larger than other villas."

"Yes." Michaela Joules said with a smile, "I heard that the original owner said that it was indeed two houses that were rebuilt. I heard that they were bought early. At that time, there was no one in charge of the reconstruction and addition of the villa, but now it is not working."

Charlie nodded and smiled, and said, "Now the management department is very strict in the management of illegal additions and reconstructions, and the technology is developing faster, and there are many survey methods. Aurous Hill's current villa area often conducts aerial surveying and mapping, and there are violations. Additions and reconstructions can be compared with aerial photography at once. Once they are discovered, they will be directly asked for rectification. However, these changes have been completed early and have long since become established facts, so rectifications will no longer be required.”

Speaking of this, Charlie sighed, “Miss Lavigne’s villa is already considered rare now, and it will be difficult to have it again in the future.”

Michaela Joules nodded, and said, “The house as a whole is pretty good, but the two things that give me the most headaches are that it is too far away and too old. It is said that this villa is more than 20 years old, although the original owner has been refurbished it in a few years, but it still has a sense of age. If it is to be completely rebuilt, the amount of engineering is still very large.”

After that, Michaela Joules thought of something and asked curiously, “Mr. Wade, I heard from Vice President Wilson that your wife does the decoration? I wonder if she is interested in picking up the decoration of my villa?”

Chapter 3735

When Michaela Joules mentioned his wife Claire, Charlie didn’t feel anything wrong.

After all, Jacob had already told him about the situation last night.

However, seeing that Michaela Joules’ house was going to be renovated, Charlie immediately said to her, “My wife has a lot of projects on hand recently. It’s too big. I guess she won’t be able to pick it up even if she wants to. Miss Lavigne can try to look at other decoration companies.”

Michaela Joules nodded lightly and smiled, “If I have a chance, I will visit your wife’s company. If she can pick it up, it’s best, and it doesn’t matter if she can’t.”

With that said, Michaela Joules was afraid that Charlie would be disgusted, and added, “Vice President Wilson greeted me yesterday. If I directly find someone else on this matter, I am afraid that Vice President Wilson will be disappointed with in his heart.”

Michaela Joules put the reason on Jacob, and it was very natural and reasonable.

After all, yesterday, Jacob was very proactive in recommending Claire's decoration company to Michaela Joules. Michaela Joules saw Jacob's face and went to meet Claire, and gave priority to this project for cooperation with Claire, which was completely reasonable.

Charlie felt a little worried when he heard this.

What he worries about is the energy problem of his wife Claire.

He knew that Claire couldn't be free, so he suggested that Claire start a business, but he did not expect that after Claire started her business, she became a workaholic, working almost all year round.

It was because he saw that Claire was too busy at work, that Charlie didn't want her to continue taking on new projects.

But as Michaela Joules said, she also wanted to give Jacob a face, so he still had to talk to Claire.

Charlie knew in his heart that if Claire really wanted to take up the project at that time, he would not be able to oppose it.

So he said helplessly, "Miss Lavigne, let's take a look at the villa first."

Michaela Joules nodded and said cheerfully, "Okay Mr. Wade, please come in."

Entering the villa, Charlie found that most of the furniture of the Quinton family was still here, but the more personal items had completely disappeared.

Michaela Joules took Charlie in and introduced, "These furniture and appliances are basically left by the original homeowner before, but I plan to send them directly to the recycling company so that they will be emptied. All the original decorations must be torn down and refurbished."

In fact, Michaela Joules didn't care about this villa.

The reason she bought this villa was just because she guessed that Charlie might be a Feng Shui master, so she bought the villa first and kept a guise that was convenient for getting close to Charlie.

So she didn't plan to renovate, or even plan to live in the villa.

However, after knowing that Charlie's wife Claire had opened a decoration company, she moved the decoration plan, but not to live, but to take the opportunity to get to know Claire.

Chapter 3736

After hearing this, Charlie said seriously, "Since Ms. Lavigne intends to redecorate everything, in fact, the internal Feng Shui is not that important now. The overall Feng Shui of the house is not a problem. As for the future internal Feng Shui problem, I need your help. After deciding on the design plan, we then make specific adjustments according to the specific arrangements on the design plan."

Speaking of this, Charlie said again, "However, since Ms. Lavigne hopes that the elderly who will live here can be healthy, heal illnesses and disasters, then I can give you some directions and suggestions."

Michaela Joules hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, please tell me."

Charlie said earnestly, "The room for the elderly is best to be in an extended year position in a house, and it should be arranged on the first floor as much as possible, so that it is more grounded; the room should be as close to the east as possible, and it should have windows. Purple qi comes from the east, which is beneficial to health; besides, the room must not be too large, because in Feng Shui, a smaller room can gather qi, otherwise, if the room is too large, it will consume the energy of the occupants, and natural stone must be used sparingly in the decoration of the house.”

Michaela Joules asked puzzlingly, “Mr. Wade, I probably understand everything else, but why use less stone?”

Charlie explained, “From the perspective of Feng Shui, the material of stone is homonymous with wealth. It is naturally good for Feng Shui, but stone is cold and is not suitable for being placed in the bedroom, which will affect the body.”

After speaking, Charlie said, “The ancestors’ scientific methods are limited after all. They can use Feng Shui and gossip to infer that stone has an impact on the body, but they can’t make a scientific explanation.”

“But I saw a report some time ago that all natural stones are radioactive, and the radioactivity of the stone produces a kind of radioactive substance called radon gas, which is colorless and tasteless. It has been confirmed by the World Health Organization that it is harmful to the human body. It is very carcinogenic, and it is one of the main culprits of lung cancer. It is second only to cigarettes. If there are more stones in the room, getting along with people day and night is like releasing chronic poisons for many years. The impact on the human body is great, but most people don’t know anything about it. Even if they really get lung cancer, they don’t think that the lung cancer is probably due to the natural stone in the house.”

Speaking of this, Charlie couldn’t help sighing, “So it can be seen from this that our ancestors are indeed very intelligent. Although they did not have scientific theories and advanced technology, they were able to pass outstanding abilities. Comprehending a set of ways to understand everything in the universe, they were able to deduce the impact of natural stone on the body hundreds of thousands of years ago. After hundreds of thousands of years, scientists have detected the culprit and confirmed us at the same time. Our ancestors had extremely advanced judgments on this matter.”

Michaela Joules could not help but admired, “I usually focus on economics and management, and I don’t know much about science and engineering. This is the first time I heard about radon, but from what Mr. Wade said, the ancestors did have extraordinary wisdom. This further proves that Feng shui divination is indeed not nonsense.”

Charlie smiled and said, “Miss Lavigne is so young. It stands to reason that you should be dismissive of Feng Shui.”

Michaela Joules shook her head very seriously and said, “I have always been in awe of Feng Shui divination and gossip. Although I don’t understand very well, I really believe that this may also be related to my grandfather since I was a child.”

Charlie nodded and said with a smile, “In recent years, there have been fewer and fewer young people in China who believe in Feng shui.”

Speaking of this, Charlie said again, “Miss Lavigne, there are basically so many things you can see right now. The exterior of this house is excellent in Feng shui. If you pay attention to the interior, you will be able to go smoothly.”

Michaela Joules nodded slightly and asked Charlie, “Mr. Wade, how do you charge for Feng Shui? Should I give you a check or direct transfer?”

Charlie waved his hand and said calmly, “It’s not a very troublesome thing, Miss Lavigne doesn’t have to be so polite. Besides, my father-in-law’s painting and calligraphy association has also received a lot of help from Miss Lavigne, so it’s a matter of courtesy!”

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3737-3738

Michaela Joules knew better than anyone that Charlie couldn’t care about these millions of commissions from Feng Shui.

After all, just a rejuvenating pill could be worth billions, or even tens of billions of dollars, not to mention that Charlie is very likely to be the behind-the-scenes boss of Oracle Pharmaceutical.

If that were the case, the net profit of Oracle Pharmaceutical in one year could be at the level of tens of billions of dollars.

How could such a person care about several million?

Therefore, Michaela Joules quickly guessed why Charlie wanted to establish the image of a Feng Shui master in front of his family.

Since it was not for money, there must be other reasons.

Most likely, it was to give him another level of identity, to gain time and space.

So she said to Charlie, "Mr. Wade, I don't know how to repay you for such a big favor."

"But I hope we can have more courtesy in the future!"

"If there is anything that Mr. Wade needs me in the future, please tell me Mr. Wade. I'm polite!"

Charlie nodded slightly and smiled, "Miss Lavigne, since there is nothing wrong here, let's go back."

Michaela Joules hurriedly said, "Okay, Mr. Wade."

Later, Charlie walked out of The Croft Villa with Michaela Joules.

When he reached the gate of The Croft Villa, Michaela Joules asked Charlie, "Does Mr. Wade has time at noon?"

"How about I treat you to a light meal?"

Charlie smiled, declined and said, "I'm sorry, Miss Lavigne, I still have something to do in a while, I will have a chance to eat together another day."

Hearing this, Michaela Joules didn't continue to fight for it.

She smiled and said, "Mr. Wade, anyway, I must stay in Aurous Hill for a while."

"If there is a chance another day, I will invite you to dinner with your wife."

Charlie smiled politely, nodded and said, "If this is the case, then I will leave first."

Michaela Joules nodded and said, "Mr. Wade, go slowly."

Watching Charlie get into the BMW car and drove away, Michaela Joules got into his Cadillac.

As soon as she got in, she asked her driver and bodyguard, "Mr. Rogers, did you see how strong Charlie was just now?"

What Michaela Joules calls Mr. Rogers is Michaela Joules' personal bodyguard, Louis Rogers.

Louis Rogers is 45 years old this year, but because of his strong strength and physical fitness far beyond ordinary people, he also looks like a middle-aged person in his thirties.

Louis Rogers has been with Michaela Joules for more than three years.

Although he is very strong, he still has some respect for Michaela Joules.

In the eyes of Louis Rogers, Michaela Joules is the most outstanding one of the Joules family's generation.

Following her is also an excellent choice for himself.

At this time, Louis Rogers started the car and said respectfully, "Miss Joules, I can't see the strength of that Charlie, he is either not a martial artist, or his strength is above me."

Michaela Joules said in surprise, "The possibility of being above you is very small, right?"

"After all, he is only in his twenties. I haven't heard of anyone who can become a six-star warrior in his twenties."

Louis Rogers said earnestly, "After the cultivation level reaches a certain level, his age cannot be seen from the outside."

My master is 78 years old this year, but he looks like he is only 40 years old."

Michaela Joules shook his head and said, "I have read all the information about Charlie. He is indeed only in his twenties."

Louis Rogers thought for a while, and then said, "The greater possibility is that he is not a martial artist, otherwise, as long as he enters the gate of the martial artist, I can see through his cultivation."

Michaela Joules nodded lightly, and said, "Although this person is young, he feels very mysterious and hard to see through."

Shan Elliott, who was sitting in the co-pilot, said, "Miss, I just discovered a very interesting thing."

Michaela Joules asked curiously, "What's the matter?"

Shan Elliott said, "The length, wheelbase, and tire width of the car Charlie drove are all top-notch in BMW."

"I just compared it. This car is the top model of last year's BMW 760. But the one posted on the back of the car is a BMW 520."

Michaela Joules was taken aback for a moment, then smiled, "It seems that he is really not an ordinary low-key, and he has to cover up when driving a BMW."

Chapter 3738

As she said, she remembered something, and said to Shan Elliott, "Shan, connect your mobile phone to the driving recorder, and look for it to see if you have photographed Charlie's appearance just now."

Shan Elliott chuckled, and handed the phone to Michaela Joules, and said, "Miss, when you and Charlie went in just now, I had already exported the pictures from the driving recorder, and I chose some of the pictures that were clearer, you take a look."

Michaela Joules said admiringly, "Yes, Shan I'm getting more and more active."

Shan Elliott smiled and said, "Miss, by following you, the speed of progress is very fast."

Michaela Joules smiled slightly, took the phone and looked through it seriously.

Since Charlie arrived first and Charlie was waiting outside the car, Cadillac took very clear images when approaching Charlie, and the photos taken by Shan Elliott were also very clear.

Michaela Joules said with satisfaction, "I have to meet James Smith of the FDA and let him look at these photos to see if Director Wade was Charlie when he was negotiating with Oracle Pharmaceutical."

After that, she said to Shan Elliott, "Shan, please contact James Smith for me, ask him out to meet him, and say that I have something to ask him in person."

"Okay!"

At the same time.

Charlie always felt something was wrong on the way back.

The driver of Michaela Joules suddenly appeared in his mind, and he suddenly realized it.

What's wrong is that this young woman can carry a six-star warrior by her side.

This is almost the strongest bodyguard he has seen so far.

A six-star warrior can stay by her side and be a bodyguard.

From this perspective alone, the strength of the family behind this Miss Lavigne is likely to be far above that of the Wade family.

If the Wade family could have a six-star warrior oppressing the formation, Apollo Wainwright of the Dragon Hall would never dare to bring the coffin directly to the Wade family mansion.

And there is also a very important key point, that is, this Miss Lavigne is still very young, and it is absolutely impossible to be the head of the family.

If she can even be equipped with a six-star warrior as a bodyguard, then the master of this family, I am afraid it's not just a six-star warrior.

It is even possible to have multiple six-star warriors, or even higher-level warriors.

According to the market price of the six-star warrior of the Dragon Hall, at least 200 million US dollars a year will start.

Moreover, the six-star warriors in the Dragon Hall are all serving as generals leading troops to fight, and it is impossible to accept employment alone, so it is even more impossible to serve as bodyguards.

If a family raises three or five six-star warriors, the cost for that year may exceed one billion U.S. dollars.

This amount is definitely a staggering astronomical figure. There are many large families worth hundreds of billions of dollars in China, and their net profit throughout the year is not one billion US dollars.

Take the Moore Group as an example.

Although it has a market value of 100 billion yuan, its annual net profit is only 3.5 billion yuan. This is still a good market situation.

If Jasmine Moore were to hire a six-star warrior, the cost of this individual might have caught up to half of the net profit of the entire Moore Group.

Thinking of this, he immediately called WesleyDrake.

As soon as the phone was connected, Charlie directly ordered, "Wesley, can you check for me if there is a Chinese family with the surname Lavigne in France."

"By the way, check how strong this family is!"

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3739-3742

WesleyDrake's efficiency is extremely fast.

He quickly replied to Charlie, "Mr. Wade, there is indeed a Chinese family surnamed Lavigne in France. The family strength is relatively average, and the total assets that can be counted are about tens of billions of euros."

"Total assets are only tens of billions of euros?" Charlie asked a little surprised, "Isn't there any major projects missing?"

Wesley explained, "Mr. Wade, I dare not say that this is 100% without any omissions, but the overall deviation will not be too big."

Hearing this, Charlie felt even more puzzled.

The Lavigne family's total assets are around 10 billion Euros, which is less than 100 billion yuan, which is not as good as the Moore family.

Therefore, Charlie felt that this matter was a bit weird.

So Charlie called Graham Quinton.

As soon as the phone was connected, he heard Graham Quinton's surprised voice, "Master Wade, why are you free to call me today?"

Charlie asked curiously, "Mr. Quinton, did you sell your villa in The Croft Villa?"

Graham Quinton on the other end of the phone was obviously startled, and asked in surprise, "Master Wade, how did you know?! Couldn't it be Aurora who told you...this girl, can't keep a secret every day, unexpectedly, she herself would tell you directly..."

Charlie smiled and said, "Aurora didn't tell me about this, but the person who happened to buy your villa knew my father-in-law."

"Really?" Graham Quinton exclaimed, then smiled helplessly, "It seems that I blamed Aurora by mistake."

After speaking, Graham Quinton said, "Master Wade, this is the case. The villa of The Croft Villa is indeed too far away from the city, not too convenient, so we live in a flat in the city most of the time. Some time ago, Aurora said that she want to live in Thompson's First Villa and be a neighbor with Master Wade. She is especially concerned about this, so we have been waiting for a suitable housing to come out. Just a while ago, a set of A03 was released, and we hurriedly bought it. "

Having said that, Graham Quinton said again, “Master Wade, don’t tell Aurora that I told you! Otherwise, this girl will definitely be angry with me!”

Charlie asked curiously, “Ms. Quinton, your business is getting bigger and bigger recently. Even if you buy a first-grade Thompson’s First Villa, you don’t have to sell The Croft Villa? Isn’t it a problem?”

Graham Quinton hurriedly said, “No, no, Oracle Pharmaceutical has given too many orders to the Quinton family during this period of time, which has doubled the Quinton family’s medicinal material business several times, and the Quinton family’s business has become bigger and bigger. I have invested a large sum of money in Altimore over time, so I have been a little nervous recently.”

Charlie frowned, “Altimore? I don’t seem to have heard of this place.”

Graham Quinton explained, “Master Wade, Altimore is our country’s largest medicinal material trading center and production base. However, the city is relatively small and only a fourth-tier city, so it is not very famous.”

Charlie asked him, “Do you invest in medicinal materials there?”

“Yes.” Graham Quinton explained, “I’m telling you Master Wade, now the amount of medicinal materials I handle is getting bigger and bigger, so I want to expand upstream.”

Chapter 3740

After a pause, Graham Quinton said again, “Some time ago I just bought a large-scale local Chinese medicine production base in Altimore, and then invested a sum of money to expand the scale. To be honest, this step is a bit big. Funds are basically filled in...”

“Unexpectedly, the listing of Thompson’s First Villa also came out at this moment. Because I didn’t have enough funds, I sold the villa of The Croft Mountain Villa. Anyway, the villa will most likely be vacant in the future.”

Charlie said, "If you don't have enough funds, just tell me. I can support a part of you at any time. Can you still transfer the funds now? If it can't be transferred, I will solve some for you now."

Graham Quinton said flatteredly, "Master Wade, I am very grateful for your words, but there is no big problem with funding right now. Liam Weaver called me just now and said that he would settle the matter immediately. The payment for the medicinal materials, once the money arrives, I will be regarded as a blood back."

Charlie said, "Mr. Quinton, if you have similar problems in the future, please contact me as soon as possible."

"Okay!" Graham Quinton said excitedly, "I know Master Wade!"

Charlie asked him again, "By the way, when do you plan to move to Thompson's First Villa?"

Graham Quinton said, "Aurora has been preparing for this in the past few days. The villa has been renovated, and there is nothing to change. Some furniture needs to be replaced. It is estimated that it should be finished in a few days. Aurora said that I will invite you to eat at home at that time and give you a surprise. Then you must pretend not to know..."

Charlie smiled and said, "Okay, I will definitely come to congratulate you at that time."

With that, Charlie thought of Miss Lavigne, and asked him, "By the way, Mr. Quinton, is the person who bought your The Croft Villa called Miss Lavigne?"

Graham Quinton said, "No, the woman who bought the villa was a Chinese-American named Shan Elliott."

Hearing the name Shan Elliott, Charlie guessed that she should be Miss Lavigne's assistant.

At this time, Graham Quinton said again, "However, the house was indeed transferred to the name of Miss Lavigne at the end, but I did not see Miss Lavigne herself. The transfer procedures were handled by Shan Elliott on her behalf."

Charlie was surprised, and blurted out and asked him, "What? You haven't seen Miss Lavigne herself, hasn't she seen the room?"

"No." Graham Quinton said, "It was Shan Elliott who came by herself and saw it once. After seeing it that day, she decided on the spot."

Charlie asked, "Then when she was looking at the house, did she take photos and send them to others, or talk to others for video calls to let others see the house?"

"No." Graham Quinton said, "She was brought by the agency on the day she saw the house. We agreed to meet directly at the villa. After she came, I took her to look at the house and gave a brief introduction, and then she decided to ask for it. Yes, I haven't seen her take photos or record videos, let alone call or video call other people."

Charlie was even more surprised when he heard this.

According to what Miss Lavigne said, she bought this house for the elderly in her family to return to Aurous Hill to live.

Moreover, it can be seen from her performance that she is very attentive to this house. Not only did she ask Jacob to let him come and see Feng Shui, but she even wanted to find his wife Claire to help her redecorate.

However, if Miss Lavigne hadn't come forward from the selection of this house to the decision to buy it, then the gap between the front and back of Miss Lavigne's attitude towards the house is too obvious.

Before you buy, you don't care at all, you don't even look at it, and you just let the assistant make the decision;

After she bought it, she suddenly became extremely concerned. Not only did she had to confirm the Feng Shui problem, but also invested heavily in redecorating. Why on earth?

Charlie thought about it, but there was only one answer.

That is, Miss Lavigne's performance before buying this house is her true attitude towards this house.

And her performance after buying a house is just a play that she deliberately showed herself on the basis of this house!

Chapter 3741

Thinking of this, Charlie frowned, and felt that Miss Lavigne seemed a little suspicious.

Charlie even speculated that this Miss Lavigne asked her assistant to buy Graham Quinton's villa, not to live in for the elderly at all, but simply to get closer to himself.

If this is the case, then her funding of the Aurous Hill Painting and Calligraphy Association is probably just a cover.

And her true purpose is most likely to get close to the old father-in-law Jacob, and then through the old father-in-law's relationship, using the grounds of Feng shui to approach himself.

This made Charlie's heart suddenly a strong alert.

Since he received the 10 billion from Stephen Thompson and accepted the Emgrand Group, Charlie has tried to hide his identity as much as possible, especially in front of his wife's family.

The reason is that they don't want anyone to find them because of their true identity, especially his wife Claire.

And over the past year or so, Charlie has been hiding very well. Although he has made many enemies, except for his arrogant and domineering aunt Cynthia Wade, no one really focused his attention on Claire.

However, this Miss Lavigne broke this situation. Not only did she find Charlie, she even found Charlie's father-in-law and wife.

This has undoubtedly touched Charlie's negative scales, and at the same time made him determined that he must dig out Miss Lavigne's true identity, and then use her own way to treat her, and quietly put her into his own. In the pocket.

If she dares to do anything threatening to the people around her, let her have no return!

At the same time, on the return highway, Michaela Joules couldn't hide his excitement and said to Shan Elliott, "Shan, you will meet Claire for me this afternoon, so I want to invite her to The Croft Villa to see the house and decorate the house. The budget is 30 million, and the design fee accounts for 10%. If she is willing to undertake, I can package all the decorations to her."

Shan Elliott couldn't help asking, "Miss, you have found Charlie, so why waste time on Claire?"

Michaela Joules said earnestly, "I do this to be prepared. If Grandpa can't get the Rejuvenation Pill at the auction, then I still have a glimmer of hope here."

Shan Elliott couldn't help but said, "Miss, I think with the strength of the Joules family, the chance of the master winning the Rejuvenation Pill at the auction is still very high."

Michaela Joules shook her head and said, "To be honest, I don't report any hope for the auction."

Shan Elliott asked incomprehensibly, "Why did the young lady say this? Did you hear anything about it?"

"No." Michaela Joules said calmly, "I just deduced the future development trajectory of this matter based on my own knowledge. In my deduction, it is difficult for Grandpa to get the rejuvenation pill at the auction. "

Shan Elliott was stunned when she heard this. She couldn't figure out why Michaela Joules was so pessimistic about the auction, so she asked, "Ah? Why do you say that, miss?"

Chapter 3742

Michaela Joules looked out the window, chuckled, and said, "I have my analytical model, but this model involves too many areas and too many elements. You can't say it clearly, so don't ask."

"Okay..." Shan Elliott nodded helplessly, and asked again, "Miss, then do you think it's possible to get Rejuvenation Pill from Charlie?"

Michaela Joules shrugged her shoulders, spread her hands, and said, "Actually, I'm not sure about Charlie. This person is too weird. Everywhere is unreasonable, so I can't judge him with normal experience."

After speaking, Michaela Joules sighed, and said with more firm eyes, "But if I don't want to know Charlie, I can only pin all my hopes at the auction. After I get to know him, there is one more possibility. Even if the second one may only have a 1% success rate, I will never give up! Because as long as there is a glimmer of hope, it is better than hanging from a tree!"

Immediately, Michaela Joules said again, "If you get to know his wife smoothly, you will definitely be able to increase it moderately on the basis of 1%. If you have the opportunity to lay a certain foundation for friendship with them, the possibility will be further improved."

Shan Elliott nodded and said, "Miss, if Claire is also included, the success rate should be higher, right?"

"Yes." Michaela Joules nodded and sighed, "What we have to do now is to show her good to the family around Charlie with all her strength. Only in this way can we win more chances. Otherwise, it won't take a few years. , We are about to be kicked out of the Joules family and reduced to being a branch of the Joules family."

As a hidden Chinese family, the Joules family's internal operation logic is very similar to that of most Chinese families.

One of the cruelest is the struggle for inheritance rights.

Although Michaela Joules is the most favored in Joules' family, it is mostly because the old man really loves her. Others look at the old man's face, and on the surface they love her.

Michaela Joules is like the princess in the ancient palace, the princess favored by the emperor, with the emperor's favor, she was in the palace before she was in the palace, and everyone would give her three points.

But once the princess married and the old emperor died, her status in the palace would be greatly affected.

Unless the newly enthroned emperor is her father, then her princess will become a princess, and her status will rise instead of falling.

However, in Michaela Joules' view, with so many grandfathers and heirs, her father is the least likely to inherit the position of Patriarch.

And now, Ferdie Joules' deadline is approaching. If he can't get the rejuvenation pill, then Ferdie Joules will drive west, maybe it's just the past two years.

And because her father was the youngest among many brothers and sisters, his accumulated energy and strength was also the worst. Once the old man dies, her father will be the first batch of objects to be purged by the new Patriarch.

Generally speaking, in a large family, except for the line that really inherits the position of the head of the family, the others will gradually become side branches.

However, after the new owner succeeds, in order to stabilize the development of the family, he will not immediately expel all the brothers and sisters at once, but will choose to clean out the brothers and sisters with weaker sense of existence and less usefulness first, so as to compare the sense of existence. The strong and useful brothers and sisters stay at the main house for the time being.

After that, the new Patriarch will continue to give more benefits to the remaining brothers and sisters in exchange for them to help them consolidate their position as the owner.

As their status was consolidated, these brothers and sisters also got the part of the benefits they wanted, so they were willing to leave the master's house and stand on their own.

The main family, after sacrificing part of the benefits, also completely laid the foundation of the head of the family, and then the whole family developed with great concentration, waiting for the next separation in decades.

Nowadays, the Joules family has the strongest right to speak, it is the eldest son family, that is, Michaela Joules' uncle.

Michaela Joules' uncle was the first son born when the old man was eighteen years old.

He followed the old man all the way from the hardest days, experienced the most and practiced the most. In the entire Joules family, besides the old man, he was the most convincing to the people below.

In the future, he must be the head of the Joules family.

As for Michaela Joules' father, he still failed to impress the old man, and his role in Joules family seemed a little irrelevant.

If it hadn't been for Michaela Joules to have a strong sense of presence in front of the old man, the line of their family would have been completely abandoned by the old man.

Because of this, Michaela Joules can basically conclude that once his grandfather dies and he loses his father's blessing, then his family will be kicked out of Joules family as soon as possible.

And she knew very well in her heart that even if she did have some abilities, her uncle would never use her, let alone give her any opportunity to grow.

Therefore, Michaela Joules now had to work up one hundred percent to help her Grandpa get his wish and get the Rejuvenation Pill.

No one wants her father to live longer than her, because only in this way can she and her family be exchanged for another decade or even longer development window!

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3743-3746

Chapter 3743

Charlie wanted to investigate Michaela Joules' true identity as soon as possible, but it wasn't that easy.

Therefore, after returning home, he asked Wesley Drake to investigate the specific details of Miss Lavigne's identity through Dragon Hall's connections abroad.

Charlie originally thought Miss Lavigne's identity should be fake, but Wesley Drake's response was that this Miss Lavigne existed in France.

At least, in the French home registration system, you can find very detailed home registration information.

France itself is a great country of immigrants, and the management of citizen's home registration data is very detailed.

Not only does it include basic information such as birth, sex, and education of citizens, but it also records citizens' occupation, income, and religious beliefs in detail.

According to Miss Lavigne's home registration information, Miss Lavigne was born in Paris, France.

Her ancestors emigrated to France in the early 20th century.

The family has been rooted in France for many years, starting diligence from scratch and rooted in France step by step, now it has become a large commercial group with a market value of tens of billions of euros.

In this information, even the name of the doctor in charge of Miss Lavigne's delivery is clearly on the register.

Besides, there is everything about studying in Miss Lavigne's primary, secondary and college school, there is no doubt in this identity.

This identity, from anyone's perspective, I'm afraid there's no problem, but Charlie just captured one key point, that is, the six-star warrior.

In Charlie's eyes, Miss Lavigne's information, combined with the six-star warrior, is like a rich man worth three billion, buying a private yacht worth 1.5 billion.

It's certainly affordable to buy, but even a rich man with a little brain wouldn't do such a stupid thing.

Besides, a person so stupid can't become a billionaire.

Therefore, based on this alone, Charlie conclude that this Miss Lavigne must have another identity that is more hidden.

At the same time, Charlie was also thinking about the purpose of this Miss Lavigne to deliberately approach himself and his family.

In his opinion, the opponent's reason to approach him is only four possibilities.

The first possibility is due to his condition as a young Patriarch of the Wade family;

The second possibility is due to his identity as Master Wade;

The third possibility is due to Oracle Pharmaceutical;

The fourth possibility is due to Rejuvenating pills.

However, if he want to confirm even more which of the previous four is Miss Lavigne's reason, he must understand more clues.

Chapter 3744

So he asked Stephen Thompson for help and asked him about Miss Lavigne's entry register.

At night, Stephen Thompson reported the results to Charlie, and the content surprised Charlie.

Because, according to entry records, Miss Lavigne, a French Chinese, did not enter China from France, her exit point turned out to be the United States.

Also, Miss Lavigne's entrance city is not Aurous Hill, but Eastcliff.

Even more strange, this Miss Lavigne has been in the country for many days, had been in Eastcliff before and had just arrived in Aurous Hill these days.

Although the content of Stephen Thompson's commentary was short, there were many key points that were of great help to Charlie.

In the first place, Miss Lavigne traveled from the United States to China, making Charlie feel more likely that Miss Lavigne's deity was American;

In the second place, Miss Lavigne's first stop in China was Eastcliff, which make Charlie dismiss the possibility that Miss Lavigne might be after the name Master Wade.

Because, only in Aurous Hill he is Master Wade.

If Miss Lavigne is looking for Master Wade, he should go straight to Aurous Hill.

Besides, there is another key point, Miss Lavigne has been in China for many days.

He entered the country before he let Liam Weaver bring Healing Salve Pills to the United States, and even before the moment the Moore Group's Antique collection announced the rejuvenating pill auction.

In this way, Charlie could completely dismiss the possibility that Miss Lavigne would come for Healing Salve Pills, because when she entered China, Healing Salve Pills had not yet come out.

Generally speaking, it seems that the Rejuvenating pill can also be excluded.

But the reason Charlie didn't immediately exclude the Rejuvenating pill was that the Rejuvenating pill had been available for a long time before the auction news was announced.

Travis Lane, Don Albert, Orion Exeor, Orrin Sun and even the former queen of northern Europe have taken Rejuvenating pill.

Maybe Miss Lavigne had heard about the Rejuvenating pill before this auction!

Therefore, following Stephen Thompson's comments, Charlie's speculation about Miss Lavigne's true motives decreased to two possibilities.

The first is due to the identity of Wade Family's Young Master;

The second is due to Rejuvenating pills.

Of these two possibilities, Charlie preferred the last one.

Because, while the identity as the young Patriarch of the Wade family is deeply hidden, this identity has no practical benefit for many people.

Unless they are enemies of the Wade Family, they will be interested in digging out the information about the Young Master of the Wade Family.

Otherwise, for the vast majority of people, knowing that he is the Young Master of the Wade Family, it has no real benefit.

It's impossible to go all the way to Aurous Hill in search of gossip.

Therefore, Charlie began to focus on Rejuvenating pills for reasons.

He discovered that Miss Lavigne's first stop in China wasn't Aurous Hill, but Eastcliff.

This proves that if she came for the rejuvenating pill, then the source of rejuvenating pill information should be inseparable from Eastcliff.

There are two people who have taken rejuvenation pill in Eastcliff.

One is Orion Exeor and the other is Orrin Sun.

The possibility of Orrin Sun filtering information is zero, while Orion Exeor...

When deduction got to this point, Charlie's inspiration suddenly shone!

He thought a few days ago, he had asked Orion Exeor to help spread the message of rejuvenating pills among the rich circles in North America, to first warm up the rejuvenating pills.

As a result, he immediately found the record of his call with Orion Exeor.

The call-time was only twenty hours before the time Miss Lavigne entered Eastcliff.

Miss Lavigne will take at least twelve or three hours to fly from the United States to China.

Adding time to prepare the plane and time to go to the airport to go through customs and board the plane, the whole trip will take at least 15 hours.

This means that as soon as Orion Exeor spread the message, Miss Lavigne immediately left for China!

These two knots of time were so coincidental that Charlie completely eliminated all other possibilities one by one, and firmly believed that Miss Lavigne's goal is the Rejuvenating Pill!

Realizing this, Charlie was even more surprised. He couldn't understand how Miss Lavigne gradually focused the clues of the Rejuvenating pill herself.

Because he knows very well that Orion Exeor cannot reveal his identity to the outside world.

Also, if Miss Lavigne had known that the Rejuvenation Pill was related to him, she would go straight to Aurous Hill.

The reason why she was delayed in Eastcliff for so long was precisely because she didn't know what hand the Rejuvenation Pill was on.

Also, the moment Miss Lavigne arrived in Aurous Hill was right after the Moore Group's antique collection published the news of the Rejuvenating pill auction.

This also means that before Miss Lavigne came to Aurous Hill, she didn't know the rejuvenating pill was related to him!

Thinking of this, Charlie couldn't help secretly sigh, "This Miss Lavigne, what method did she use to find me in just a few days?"

Chapter 3745

Just when Charlie was surprised by Miss Lavigne's ability, a loud whistle sounded in the yard.

Soon, Charlie heard Elaine swear loudly in the third floor room, "Who is honking in the community? Is he sick?"

Down, though the sound of the whistle stopped, he heard Jacob's voice again, who shouted, "Elaine, my son-in-law, come down and check out my new car!"

As soon as the voice was heard, Elaine's steps climbed the stairs and walked out of the terrace..

At this moment, Charlie, who was in the second floor bedroom, was also attracted to the movement, approached the window and looked down.

In the courtyard of the village, Jacob was standing in front of a Rolls Royce Cullinan, with a face full of excitement and triumph.

And Elaine was standing on the terrace of the third floor, looking at Jacob standing in front of a huge all-rounder he didn't know in the ground floor yard, and asked surprised, "Jacob, is this your new car?"

Jacob triumphantly said, "Yes! Come down and have a look!"

Elaine frowned her lips and said, "What's good about a broken Jeep?"

"How can you compare to a BMW? Maybe you sold the BMW and bought something so broken."

In the eyes of Elaine, all SUVs are Jeeps.

Even in the eyes of all middle-aged and older people who don't know much about cars, SUVs and off-road vehicles of any brand can collectively be called jeep.

Jacob said angrily right now, "Elaine, you really have long hair and little knowledge!"

"How the hell is a Jeep! This is Rolls Royce Cullinan! And it's still the BB version! Rolls Royce, you get it?"

Elaine got stunned and let go, "Omg, what kind of car do you think is this Rolls Royce?"

Jacob pointed out the golden sign on the front of the car and said with a grumpy look, "Even if you don't understand cars anymore, can you still know Rolls-Royce?"

"Look at this golden little man, do you recognize that?"

Elaine released, "Aren't Rolls-Royce all those kind of big cars? When did this type of jeep come out?"

“What the hell is jeep...” Jacob said with a doubt, “This is called SUV! And this is the most expensive SUV in the world!”

Elaine asked unconsciously, “The most expensive one in the world? How expensive is this?”

Jacob doubled, “Humph, how expensive is it? I tell you at least over a thousand can’t escape!”

“Oh my God!” Exclaimed Elaine, “More than a thousand hits?”

“Aren’t they more than ten million? Damn, stay there and wait for me!”

After all, Elaine licked, ran and quickly jumped the elevator.

Charlie was also very surprised at that time. He knew that even if the car was a normal version, it would cost 8 million to go up.

Chapter 3746

The so called BB version was even more expensive, it really can’t get down from 10 million.

What Charlie couldn’t understand was how he, the old man Jacob, could afford to drive such an expensive car.

Jacob doesn’t have much money. Revenue from the Calligraphy and Painting Association may not be sufficient for their own daily expenses.

Where can he use the money to buy a Cullinan?

Thinking of this, Charlie quickly walked out of the room and went down the stairs to the yard.

At that moment, Elaine was lying on the hood of this Rolls-Royce Cullinan, looking at the Golden Man in front of the car closely.

While watching, he exclaimed excited, "Oh my gosh, it's really a Rolls Royce!"

"I used to hear people say that such a gold brand cost a hundred thousand or two hundred thousand.."

"Are the devices pure gold?"

After talking, Elaine extended her hand to touch the little golden man.

Unexpectedly, at this moment Jacob suddenly pulled out the key and pressed the lock key.

Following Cullinan's message, the little golden man suddenly drowned in the hood.

Then, a metal cover slipped from one side, completely covering the original position of the little golden man.

Elaine was about to stretch his hand and touch him, when he saw Jacob suddenly put the hood and asked with surprise, "Oh my God, is this thing hidden? This is amazing!"

Jacob mocked, "Look at the one you've never seen in the world. This little golden man is worth more than 200,000 yuan."

"If you're like this anytime and anywhere, if you meet a guy like you who sees money and is obsessed.

With money, it must be just a rump!

“So, the Rolls-Royce design is very easy to use. To prevent people like you from sabotaging it, as long as the car is closed, it will automatically hide it.”

Elaine was ridiculed by Jacob for a long time.

She would have been anxious if she had to put it in normal times. Maybe she'd already dig Jacob's face now.

However, this time, she had no attack at all.

Instead, she looked at Jacob with a flattering expression.

She was extremely excited and asked with extreme surprise, “Jacob, where did you get this car from? Did you took a loan?”

Jacob arrogantly said, “When you talk, I don't like to listen. What can I borrow? This car belongs to me! I, own this car!”

With that being said, he took this Cullinan driving license out of the car, threw it in front of Elaine and said with a smile, “Come on, look at it clearly, who is the owner of the vehicle on the driving license!”

Elaine quickly opened the driver's license and looked at the end of the column.

In fact, it was written in the characters 'Jacob Wilson'.

And she suddenly exclaimed, "Really! Jacob! Is it really yours?!"

"This... what the hell is going on?! How can you afford a car this expensive?!"

Just as she was talking, Claire came back from work at this hour and just walked into the yard.

She saw this Cullinan and asked with surprise, "Dad, where is this Cullinan from?"

Elaine came forward, took her by the arm and said excitedly, "My little girl, this is your dad's new car!"

"Ah?!" Claire was dumbfounded when she heard it, and let go, "Mom... Do you know how much this car costs? How can dad be able to pay it?"

Elaine immediately handed Jacob's driver's license and said, "Look at it yourself, it has your father's name written all over it!"

Claire was stunned when she saw it. Immediately, she asked Jacob, "Dad... did you buy the car with a loan?"

Jacob laughed between his teeth and asked, "Good girl, you really despise your father. Do you think your dad can pay the down payment if he buys this car?"

Claire suddenly nodded and whispered, "Yes... Even if you buy this car on a loan, the down payment will cost you three or four million."

"Even if you sell your BMW 530, it won't be enough."

Speaking of this, she hurried to ask, "Dad, where did you get this car from?"

Jacob smiled, then turned around and looked at Charlie, and said with a flattering expression, "Charlie, my good son-in-law... Dad has to explain this to you..."

Seeing Jacob's attitude, Charlie smiled lightly, as he had the answer in his heart.

In his opinion, Jacob should have received this Rolls-Royce Cullinan from Miss Lavigne.

However, he deliberately pretended to be baffled and asked, "Dad, does this matter have anything to do with me?"

Jacob hurriedly approached Charlie, hugged him and said sternly, "My son-in-law, this matter has a lot to do with you!"

"To say it without any reason, this car is not for me, it should be for you."

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3747-3750

Chapter 3747

"For Charlie?" Elaine was even more perplexed when she heard this, "Jacob, what do you mean by this?"

Jacob quickly said, "That's it, my son-in-law, didn't you show Miss Lavigne Feng Shui this morning?"

"Miss Lavigne came to the Calligraphy and Painting Association this afternoon and said that she's very grateful to me for letting you see the Feng Shui of the Villa.”

“She highly recognized your professional level. Originally, she wanted to give you a generous compensation, but you insisted on not accepting it. Miss Lavigne, who was overwhelmed, bought this car, named it with my name and delivered it directly to me at the Calligraphy and Painting Association, so I took it!”

When Claire heard this, she couldn't help but blame, “Dad, how can you accept such an expensive gift for Charlie?”

Jacob said with an innocent look, “At first, I didn't want to accept it, but when people bought this car, it was straight to my name.”

“Even if I didn't take it, this car is mine too in the legal sense. That's right, I'm too hard to take off..”

As he said, he rushed to tell Charlie, “Good son-in-law, dad really didn't want to accept anything for you.”

“The point is this Miss Lavigne is really too smart. When she knew that you didn't want to charge money for seeing the Feng shui, she immediately sent the car in my name. I was told that the least favorite thing in this life is duty favors. If I didn't accept this car, then she might not sponsor us for cultural exhibitions.. so Chairman Peter also did his best to convince me to accept this car..”

Claire angrily said, “Dad, even if Miss Lavigne sent the car to your name, you should at least call Charlie and ask for his opinion!”

Jacob was criticized by Claire, and his face was a bit out of control, and he said, “Hey... I... I am afraid of betraying the goodness of Miss Lavigne... as you know, Miss Lavigne is not only a client of Charlie, but also a distinguished person from our Calligraphy and Painting Association..”

Charlie smiled lightly at this moment and said, "My wife, it's also helpless for dad not to accept this car, so don't blame him."

As soon as Jacob heard this, he was immediately forgiven and excitedly said, "Ay! My good son-in-law! You are still the most fair and objective!"

After speaking, he asked carefully, "Good son-in-law, you said this car... what should I do with it?"

When he said this, Jacob was very nervous. He was afraid Charlie would let him return the car.

After all, he is also a person aware of his face and he likes this Rolls Royce Cullinan from the bottom of his heart.

He drove this car back on the road a while ago and discovered that almost everyone on the street would look at this car for a long time.

And when he drove this car down the street, no one dared to add their plug! No one dared to honk behind him!

Chapter 3748

Unlike before, when he was driving his BMW 530, people often blocked him mischievously, especially the cars that were more expensive than his. He was even more ruthless when they added him to his car. Many times he almost hit his car. In the end, he took the initiative to make way for others.

Besides, Jacob's temperament himself is awkward, so he drove slowly, not fast at all. Many times, when he met the most impatient drivers who thought he was driving slowly, he kept honking the back to urge him, even the constant flashing road light.

What's more, when he dripped and flashed, and finally walked by his side, dropped the window and shouted at him that he was a fool.

This makes Jacob feel like all the drivers in this world are patient with fury at the wheel.

However, when he drove this Rolls-Royce Cullinan a moment ago, on the way back to Thompson's First Villa from the Association of Calligraphy and Painting, he discovered that all the drivers in the world had symptoms of road rage that seemed to be healed all at once.

Whenever he press the turn signal, the car from behind, even if it is tens of meters away from it, it will immediately stop and allow him to change lanes first.

Because no one dared to go against these tens of millions of luxury cars.

In the case of a person who does not take care of their own responsibility or full responsibility, all three risk the amount of one or two million, which simply isn't enough.

Therefore, this also greatly satisfied Jacob's vanity.

Walking down the road, he felt like he had become king of the road, the feeling that he would leave wherever he was something he had not experienced anywhere else in his life.

Due to this, although he was asking Charlie what to do with the car, he silently prayed in his heart for Charlie to allow him to keep the car.

As a result, before Charlie spoke, Elaine said excitedly at this moment, "Good son-in-law! Since this car came through our door, we can no longer send it back!"

After all, she caressed the golden waist of Cullinan's body and said painfully, "I've never had a Rolls-Royce in my life!"

“You see, it’s been a while since we lived in the Villa, although this villa is the best in Aurous Hill, but our car really isn’t acceptable in this community. The cars that come in and out every day are millions of luxury cars. Our two BMW 5 series, together, aren’t as good as the others. Half a car is worth a lot of money, and now we finally have a luxury car that is the same degree as our villa, and we can’t return it for nothing!”

Jacob rarely agreed with Elaine’s words, and immediately echoed, “Yes, my son-in-law! Your mother is right! Our family needs nothing more than a luxury car!”

In fact, Charlie has always owned two top notch sports cars.

Those two cars were delivered by Graham Quinton and Zeke White, a shared brand model Hermes of Bugatti, and an Aston Martin One77.

However, because these two cars are too flashy and really not very practical, Charlie has never driven home and Graham Quinton has always kept them to his name.

Those two cars had been in hand for so long, and they were used when Claire’s high school mate got married.

Since the wedding, the two cars have been dusted again and so far they have not been driven again.

Also, despite Elaine and Jacob had seen those two cars, Charlie told him that they had borrowed them and had no doubt.

However, because of those two cars, Elaine had sparked the dream of luxury cars in her heart.

Now, someone delivered a Rolls-Royce Cullinan in her garden and the name of her husband Jacob had been written, so she said nothing could allow Charlie to return the car.

Even though if Charlie really wanted the car back, she'd just lay under the wheels of this car!

It doesn't matter who wants the car back, let it go over it!

Charlie could see the heat in the eyes of his old father-in-law and mother-in-law, but he didn't want too many ties with that Miss Lavigne.

However, he changed his mind, since Miss Lavigne had a ghost in his heart, so he didn't have to be polite to her.

So he said to Jacob, "Since mom and dad like this car, we'll keep it then."

Chapter 3749

When Charlie said that he'll keep this car, Jacob and Elaine were so excited that they almost shed tears!

Especially Elaine, clapping her hands with passion, then scolding Jacob, "Jacob! Don't open the car door so fast, let me come in and feel it! I've lived for years, and I haven't taken a Rolls-Royce yet! "

Jacob was also in a very good mood, he quickly pulled out the car key, pressed the unlock button, and then opened the copilot door, and said to Elaine kindly, "Come on, please sit down and see what Rolls Royce's starry sky peaks!"

Elaine asked wondering, "What's the roof of the starry sky?"

Jacob waved his hand and said, "Oh, you'll know if you walk in and see!"

Elaine quickly climbed into the Rolls-Royce co-pilot, hollered, and suddenly shouted, “Oh my, there are so many stars in this car!” “

Jacob giggled, “Watch out, there is still a meteor passing by from time to time!”

Elaine looks mesmerized and mummified, “Oh, how beautiful! Or maybe I’ll just sleep in the car tonight!”

After she had finished talking, she suddenly sat up and said to Jacob, “Hurry up and get in the car and take me out for a drive!”

Jacob drove home from the Calligraphy and Painting Association all the way back. He didn’t have a car addiction. He thought of taking a short drive and had a good experience, but Elaine was the first one to ask.

So he agreed without thinking, and laughed again and again, “Okay, okay, then I’ll take you out for a few laps!”

After finishing talking, he looked at Charlie and Claire, and said, “Claire, Charlie, come with us, let’s go out and drive!”

Charlie shakes his head, “Dad, we’re not going, you both go, we won’t disturb the world of you two.”

Claire also said, “Dad, just go with mom, I have something to talk with Charlie.”

When Jacob heard this, he stopped insisting and said with a smile, “If so, I’ll go with your mother first, and call me if there’s anything to be done.”

After speaking, he immediately went into the cabin and pressed the start button of the car.

Rolls-Royce 12 cylinder machine suddenly made a deep swamp. Jacob asked Elaine, "Where are we going?"

Elaine yelled, "Go in front of your mother's house first!"

"My mother?!" Jacob said awkwardly, "Isn't that next door?"

"That's right!" Elaine sniffle, "Just drive the car down to your mom's house and let them stare at their dog's eyes."

"The old lady also want a Rolls-Royce! They didn't have this before. I know where they got the money from to buy a Bentley. I should give them eye drops this time!"

Jacob hurriedly calmed down and said, "Okay, my mom has a pretty bad life now, what are you encouraging her to do..."

Chapter 3750

"Is she miserable? "Elaine angrily cursed, "Can she be more miserable than me? First, I broke my leg, it was because of her. Did you forget ? Do you want me to accept what happened then? I'll tell you from start to finish, don't let you, the immoral, turn and forget about it."

Jacob coughed twice, and said powerless, "It's okay, can't we go?"

He then started the car and drove out of the yard.

Claire sighs at this moment and said to Charlie, "My husband, are you really planning on keeping this car?”

Charlie nodded, and said casually, “Mom and Dad liked it, so just let them play.”

Claire rushed to say, “It’s not suitable for them to drive this car out ... that would be too uncommon... “

Charlie smiled and said, “Give them this chance, all their hormones and energy will go outside, but if they are not given this opportunity, then all their hormones and energies will become hate in the future. As soon as we get back into this house, they’ll sigh at us and complain that we didn’t keep the car. Instead of this, it’s better to accept it and satisfy them.”

Speaking of this, Charlie looked at Claire with a slight smile, raised his eyebrows and asked, “Wife, what do you think?”

After hearing this, Claire shook her head powerlessly, and said emotionally, “What you said is true ... If you really return this car, I don’t think they’ll be able to pass this in the next few years.”

After that, Claire was also a little worried and said, “My husband, that Miss Lavigne, this is a bit too fancy... You just took the time to show him Feng Shui this morning, and she gave away a very valuable gift. This doesn’t fit, does it?”

Charlie casually said, “Nothing is inappropriate, she’s the one who wanted to send the car.”

Claire hesitated for a moment, and said, “This afternoon, a girl named Shan Elliott came to the company to look for me, saying that she was here to make an appointment with me so that Miss Lavigne could meet and talk to me about home décor..”

“Oh?” Charlie asked with interest, “Miss Lavigne, is she looking for you to decorate the villa?”

Claire nodded and said, "This is what it sounds like."

When she said, Claire frowns her lips and said, "Miss Elliott gave me a brief introduction about the budget. It is said that it will cost 50 million to renovate the villa, and the design cost alone is 5 million.."

In the domestic home improvement market, consumers generally don't acknowledge design costs.

The cost of a designer's design on average hundreds of yuan per square meter is nothing more than robbery in the eyes of most people.

Therefore, most people who are looking for a decoration company for decoration will ask a decoration company to waive off the design costs.

Most of the decorating companies are also quite stupid, formulated design templates are directly brought out for customers to choose, and basically the job is done.

The client does not cost a design, but the installation effects seem satisfactory, so over time, everyone is less willing to pay for the design.

This is also what embarrasses many domestic designers.

Claire has been doing decorating for a long time, most home improvement customers are very generous in decorating, but very stingy in design costs.

Very rare, like Miss Lavigne, she directly and explicitly sets 10% as a design cost.

Charlie was a little shocked when he heard this. Not because he was surprised at how much or less five million design costs. He was just shocked by Miss Lavigne acting style.

Although this woman approached him on purpose, the actual operation is to fulfill and please her. She also donated some scrolls to the Calligraphy and Painting Association, and also sponsored 50 million yuan for an art exhibition, and gave Jacob a Rolls-Royce Cullinan. Then sent a massive 50 million project offer to his wife.

This gave Charlie the feeling that someone was secretly watching at him and pointing gun at him, but the gun didn't shoot bullets, but candy.

Such a huge contrast makes Charlie a little bit dazzled.

Seeing that Charlie is not speaking, Claire asked him baselessly, "My husband, is it why this Miss Lavigne offered me such a great project, just like she sent father the Cullinan."

Charlie nodded in an indecent, "Yes."

Claire rushed to ask, "Is it appropriate for me to receive her proposal? If it's not appropriate, I'll reject it."

Charlie smiled a little and said, "She is looking for you as a normal collaboration between A and B. You can accept it if you want it, and reject it if you don't want to accept it. You don't have to ask for my opinion."

Claire shyly said, "But the budget and design costs she provided can already invite a well-known interior designer in the country. There's no need to come to me... premiums here are too high. I'm worried if I'll take it. The help that will make me owe her... If I don't want to help her from the start, but finally have to because of these trivial things, then I'll make you a trouble."

Charlie smiled and said, "My wife, you don't have to have such a psychological burden at all. The thing that Miss Lavigne asked me was too big, and it's still far from being done in such a small amount."

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3751-3754

Chapter 3751

Charlie has been able to confirm that Miss Lavigne's motive to approach him is definitely for the Rejuvenating Pill.

Therefore, under this premises, no matter how much Miss Lavigne sends help, there will be no waves in his heart.

Because, in front of the value of the Rejuvenating pill, the kind of aid is not even a penny.

But Claire was a little scared, and said, "Or I won't take it... "

Seeing Claire's vague disappointment, Charlie asked, "My wife, do you want to take this project in your heart?"

Claire hesitated and nodded a little and said, "Yes..."

After saying, she rushed to explain to Charlie, "In fact, I'm not mainly for making money, but the villa has a very good framework foundation."

"This is a combination of two villas."

"There's no other type of Villa like this in Aurous Hill, and the decorating budget is very high."

“As far as it comes to design, the higher the budget, the bigger the space to play.”

“In this way, there will be an opportunity to create a set of high-level interior decoration jobs...”

Speaking of this, Claire looked at Charlie in a cowardly manner, and said in a low voice, “My husband... As an interior designer, it is most important to produce a very representative piece.”

“If you can create award winning work for interior décor, it is very helpful to individual designers and designer studio, but I haven’t done a major independent design project yet, so there’s nothing I can do.”

“So I need a major project to participate in the competition...”

Charlie nodded understand, and asked her, “By the way, my wife, do you make the interior design of a six-star hotel in Emgrand Group?”

“No...” Claire explains, “The overall design of the six-star Dorsett hotel was done by a very well-known foreign design studio.”

“Such a big project has to be matched with a famous designer to be the best and makes the most sense.”

“Initially, the Wilson family took part in an interior decorating project.”

“Then, I set up my own studio, and I was also in charge of some outsourcing projects. We also build according to the designs that others make.”

Charlie smiled a little, “I understand my wife, you also want to have a masterpiece that is completely designed by you.”

“Yes...” Claire nodded lightly, and then said, “My husband, I’ve seen the picture of the villa.”

“It’s great for designers to show off their skills. If you’re afraid to owe you a favor, then I don’t have to charge for their design, and I don’t even immediately handle special construction later on.”

“I am fully obliged to take on this project. In this regard, I will work on this project with my heart, and I can apply for this project next year to participate in the National Interior Design Grand Prix...”

After saying this, she raised her head to see Charlie, and asked enthusiastically, “My husband, do you think this is okay?”

By the time Charlie heard this, he already understood Claire’s true pursuit.

Chapter 3752

Claire is like a new director in the film and television industry, but she’s never really had a huge achievable production.

Therefore, she can only play in a major production of other directors, such as being an executive director or a persuasive director.

Most of the projects she led like Deana Thorne’s renovation in the small yard where Charlie’s parents lived.

Overall project size is relatively small, like micro film.

Although it is also a work, it is clearly impossible to participate in various Festival films and a selection of film and television awards.

Now, with a budget of 50 million, Miss Lavigne, matching the villa before Graham Quinton, equivalent to giving Claire enough budget, and even a very good actor.

As long as Claire agrees, she can build it. Becoming her first piece of work.

Therefore, the attraction of this to Claire is naturally very high.

Thinking about this, he immediately stared at Claire, and smiled softly, "My wife, as I said earlier, you don't have to have a psychological burden."

"Because you think this project is perfect for you to show off, then you can accept it with confidence and courage!"

Claire heard this and asked enthusiastically, "Is it okay, husband?"

Charlie nodded and said seriously, "Of course! I always believed in your power in design, and for so long you didn't receive much attention from the Wilson family, who buried your talents, but you want to grow in this field."

So Miss Lavigne's Villa is indeed a good opportunity for you to showcase your personal strength. I believe in your power!"

Claire enthusiastically grabbed the fan's fist and said strongly, "My husband, trust me, I will definitely do my best!"

.....

At this moment, Jacob has followed Elaine's instructions and drove the car to the next door of the villa.

After the car stopped, Elaine pointed to the roof and couldn't wait to say, "Jacob, open the skylight, I'll stand outside the skylight and call them!"

Jacob relaxedly said, "This car has no sunroof."

Elaine's eyes wide open, "What?! A car with over ten million dollars doesn't even have a sunroof."

"Isn't this too shabby? Doesn't your BMW 530 also have a panoramic sunroof?"

Jacob pointed to the starry roof in the car and explained, "People choose the more expensive starry roof."

"If you choose a starry sky roof, the top can't be opened, so there are no roof windows. You can only pick either Starry sky roof or skylight."

Elaine angrily said, "Forget it, I'll open the window!"

With that, she lowered the co-pilot window and yelled towards Lady Wilson's bedroom, "Hannah! Hannah! Are you home Hannah?!"

Jacob was stunned, and said, "Didn't Hannah steal my mother's money and run away?"

"Why are you calling her?"

Elaine said impatiently, "You know fart! My name is 'Snake'!"

After talking, she kept yelling, "Is Hannah home?"

At this moment, the old lady Wilson just finished serving Christopher and Harold's dinner.

As Wendy's income has recently increased, the lives of four families have finally improved.

From a previously unfinished situation, gradually growing to a truly rich level.

Moreover, Christopher and Harold finally had a chance to get formal treatment.

So their speed of recovery wasn't bad, and now they can walk slowly under the crutches.

However, recovery of their fingers is relatively slow, and both still haven't been able to fully care for themselves, so they have to rely on a spoonful of the old lady at home.

Harold just ate when he heard someone calling his mother Hannah.

So, he unconsciously asked, "Dad, grandma, have you heard? Looks like someone is calling my mom's name!"

Christopher suddenly got angry and said, "Don't mention your mom to me! I get mad when I think about her!"

As he speaks, Elaine shouts come from outside again. When Lady Wilson heard it, she shouted, "This voice... how does it sound like Elaine!"

“What?!” When Christopher heard this, he grit his teeth and cursed, “F*ck! What the hell is this Elaine wants?”

“I still haven’t forget when she put green hats on that balcony. Now, she even dares to provoke me. See if I didn’t call it bloody!”

Chapter 3753

Christopher was angry, cursed, and fought to stand up, he extended his hand and touched the stick, ready to rush to the balcony against Elaine.

Although the old woman was a little upset in her heart, she hurriedly stopped Christopher and said angrily, “Elaine is a real dog who has turned around now. We also can no longer make trouble with Jacob’s family.”

When Harold heard this, he suddenly came down, and sighed sadly, “Yes dad, did you listen to Wendy?”

“Charlie gave her job, our family relies on Wendy’s income to sustain our family.”

“If you offend Elaine right now, our family will be dead tomorrow...”

Christopher’s expression suddenly became very ugly, and he said with a black face, “There’s one thing to say, then Charlie did help Wendy too.”

“We are kind for helping us. Because he is Elaine’s son-in-law, I don’t have to care about what Elaine has done to me... “

Speaking of this, Christopher angrily said, “But now she runs towards us and calls your mother’s name.”

“Didn’t this just slap my face? Their house is not far from our house, when your mother stole your grandmother’s money and ran away, your grandmother also reported it to the police.”

“Isn’t she not aware of this issue, isn’t it just a show to find mistakes?”

Harold angrily said, “It’s such a thing, but even if we know it, we can only pretend. I don’t want to have any hungry days in bed...”

Christopher is also a little frustrated. After a while, he waved his hand and sighed, “Forget it! I won’t be familiar with her, I’ll just treat her like a barking dog on the floor!”

“I’m just so tired, I guess I need to get out of here!”

Lady Wilson agreed, “Finally, you’re finally a little better than before!”

At the moment, Elaine downstairs was shouting for a long time, and saw that there was no movement at all, so she said with a little angrily, “The old woman also have a tortoise in the house, Christopher and Harold.”

“Both father and son is a turtle with heads beheaded, and no one dares to step out to challenge!”

Jacob shook his head, and said, “Because they don’t dare answer, let’s go!”

“No!” Elaine snatched and said strongly, “If we leave now, they will still be my horse.”

After that, she turned up his volume a little and screamed loudly, “Christopher?! Christopher?! I knew you’re at home!”

“Donald Webb breaks all your legs, arms, and hands. Except lying on the bed, where else can you go?”

“Don’t be like a turtle with a shrinking head, you don’t even dare fart!”

Christopher spits blood dry, he only wears a crutches to stand, and goes to the balcony with the crutches.

Lady Wilson quickly got up to stop, but she was too old and she was too tired to stop him, so she could only follow him to the porch.

When Christopher stepped on the terrace, he saw Elaine lay her head out of the off-road vehicle, and he angrily raged, “Elaine! Why are you looking for trouble? I, Christopher Wilson, haven’t hired or provoked you lately.”

“You ran up here barking downstairs for a long time?”

Elaine grumbled and said with disgust, “I’m here to find your wife Hannah, where is she? Let her out! I...”

At the end of the conversation, Elaine suddenly forgot what kind of car this is, so she turned around and asked Jacob, “What is the name of this car?”

Jacob rubbed his pen, and said powerlessly, “This is Cullinan...”

Chapter 3754

“Oh, yeah!” After Elaine was done talking, she quickly shrugged her head and said to Christopher, “I just want you to see our new Rolls-Royce Cullinan, it is worth over ten million!”

Christopher stares at this Rolls-Royce Cullinan, shaking from anger.

And the old woman Wilson, who heard that the car was worth more than ten million, almost sucked out of the car's eyes.

Christopher pressed his anger and asked in a cold voice, "If you have new car, just take the car."

"Why do you have to ran into our house and show off?"

Elaine said with a serious face, "Ahhhhh, I'm not showing off to you! I'm here to find your wife."

She couldn't hold her breath, and said with emotion, "Hannah and I fell in love in our lives and became the daughter-in-law of the Wilson family, so we both are considered compassionate..."

At this point, Elaine sadly said, "But Hannah is worse than me! She's so old and she's pregnant and miscarried."

"This really hurts, so I want to call her out. Picked her up with our new car and go out to relax so she can feel better!"

Christopher heard Elaine pretend to say so much, especially when Hannah was pregnant and miscarried, and suddenly became angry and pointed towards Elaine, "Elaine, you... you are an asshole! You know that Hannah escaped a long time ago."

After That, Christopher was about to smash the crutches under his armpit and smash Elaine's head.

Seeing Christopher about to hit herself with the crutches, Elaine suddenly got cold sweat.

Whether he can hit her or not, Christopher can destroy the Cullinan with a crutches.

Elaine feels like this is a car worth over ten million. If it's really broken, how can her family have the money to fix it?

It's better if there's only a scratch, but if the glass is broken, she can't wrap windows with plastic sheets, or use a tape to attach windows like a spider web, right?

She finally have a luxury car, if she get hurt again, doesn't that mean she will cry without tears?

At this critical moment, Lady Wilson hurriedly took a step forward, holding on to his arm, and said, "Don't do it! You're only thinking about yourself. You should think about me and Harold! If you destroy this, how will our family live..."

When Christopher heard this, tears of humiliation suddenly flowed, and he choked, "I don't have to fight you, but Elaine really cheated people too much!"

The old lady Wilson grabbed the stick tightly and said sadly, "Christopher! Hold on to the wind and waves for a while and take a step back to open the sky!"

Christopher was silent for a moment, and finally breathed and threw the stick to the ground.

Seeing the old woman advancing to stop Christopher, Elaine is a little relieved, then she said the old woman Wilson, "Old woman, you know almost three decades, you finally did the right thing today."

Lady Wilson feels insulted, but she can only say to Elaine, "Elaine, our family cannot offend you, consider me an old woman, please don't come to mock our family in the future."

Elaine doesn't think that old lady Wilson, who is always arrogant, would take the initiative to bow her head to herself, which made her a little dazed at once, but she didn't know how to respond.

At this moment, she saw two people walking towards each other under the street light, and she glanced at it unconsciously, and shouted in shock, "Hannah?! You ... why did you come back?!"

Christopher didn't see them both. Hearing Elaine mention Hannah again right now, the anger that Lady Wilson finally persuaded just broke several times!

He angrily scolded, "Elaine! You are a f*cking dog that can't change eating dirty!"

After talking, he took another crutch and was about to throw it away. Lady Wilson quickly grabbed the crutches and hugged him tightly and said loudly, "Christopher! You impulsive devil!"

Elaine is worried at the moment, pointing to a figure who is not far away, and loudly says, "Christopher, see it clearly! Hannah is back!"

Christopher glanced at her, and suddenly he felt his blood like a stabbed oil well, and immediately slipped into the sky with a loud sound.

He saw a familiar figure, and angrily said, "F*ck! Hannah! You really have the face to come back!"

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3755-3758

At this time, Jacob in the car also saw Hannah who was walking along with Wendy.

After seeing the incoming person, his chin almost fell to the ground, and he blurted out, “My God...Elaine...Did your broken mouth be blessed by the God? Why did as soon as you called Hannah, she suddenly appeared?!”

Elaine was also dumbfounded, and murmured, “No...I haven’t been to church in two or three years...”

Jacob said embarrassingly, “You are too evil...I thought it was a hell of a ghost.”

Elaine settled down and said, “Did you not see that Hannah was walking with Wendy? Maybe Wendy called her back.”

Jacob nodded lightly, and muttered, “That’s right, after all, they are mother and daughter...”

At this time, Christopher’s roar from the terrace made the old Lady Wilson couldn’t help but look in the direction of his fingers.

From this look, she saw Hannah cowering and hiding behind Wendy at this time, her face full of tension and fear.

To say that she hates Hannah, Lady Wilson is no worse than Christopher.

In addition to cuckolding her son, breaking the wild breeds of outsiders, and even infecting her son with a disease, the reason Lady Wilson actually hates Hannah the most is because she stole her hard earned money from the supermarket, and the one hundred yuan she was paid after she was slapped in the entrance hall of Thompson’s First Villa.

Although two hundred yuan is not a lot, in the eyes of the old lady, Hannah’s crime is enough to be executed eight times!

In her opinion, Hannah can be forgiven for sleeping with another man, but not for stealing money!

Moreover, no one can steal money from the old Lady Wilson's hard-earned money!

So, Lady Wilson suddenly became angry, pointed at Hannah downstairs, and shouted angrily, "Hannah, you stole my money, and you still have a damn face to come back! You hurry up and get lost, never come into my house!"

Hannah was crying and not knowing how to intercede, so Wendy said, "Grandma, I let my mother come back! It was true that my mother should not steal your money, but she also had troubles. I hope you can see that she is still my mother. For the sake of face, forgive her this time."

"Don't think about it!" Lady Wilson blurted out almost without hesitation, "As long as I'm still alive, Hannah will never enter the door of my house!"

After that, she immediately said to Christopher, "Christopher! Call the police now, and say that the thief who stole my two hundred yuan of hard-earned money is back! Ask the police officer to come over and take her away! Sent her eight or ten years to prison!"

Wendy hurriedly said, "Grandma! There are faults in this matter. It is by no means my mother's fault alone! If you hadn't been bullying her and didn't even let her eat her full mouth, how could she come to that kind of thing!"

Lady Wilson said very emotionally, "Wendy, think about it, why don't I give this stinky lady a meal? That's because she has done a lot of things to your father! Not only does she did to your father, but also to you and Harold, even to me, to the ancestors of our Wilson family! She humiliated our Wilson family!"

Chapter 3756

As soon as Lady Wilson said this, Christopher immediately echoed, "Wendy! Your grandma is correct at all. The faces of our whole family were completely lost by your mother, and I was also miserable by her.

She ran away by herself before, but you are still looking for her back now. Isn't this purely a cause of trouble for us? Just let her go, and never come back again!"

Wendy's eyes reddened and she said, "Dad! Grandma! My grandmother passed away some time ago, and my mother was squeezed out by my uncle in her natal house. Now she has no place to stay. I am her daughter and can't watch her sleep on the street!"

Hannah couldn't help crying, she walked downstairs, knelt on the ground with a puff, and cried, "Mom...it was me before... No, it's because I haven't fulfilled my responsibilities and obligations of being a daughter-in-law and a wife. I beg you to give me a chance to reform and rehabilitate for the sake of raising my children for the Wilson family... Please!"

Old Lady Wilson said in disgust, "As a woman, what happened to you marrying our family and raising children for our family? Isn't this all your duty? Why do I listen to what you mean, it seems you still have a lot of credit?!"

Hannah cried and said, "Mom...I'm not saying that I have any credit, but even if I don't have any credit, I have been in the Wilson family for so many years. Anyway, I have a share of hard work, right? After so many years, you might even have feelings even if you have a dog. Why are you so unsympathetic to me!"

Lady Wilson sneered, "If I raise a dog, will the dog steal my money?! If I raise a dog, will the dog cuckold my son?!"

When Christopher heard this, he felt uncomfortable all over his body stabbing and scratching, and said in a low voice, "Oh, mom...you...what is your metaphor? It's too inappropriate.."

Lady Wilson turned white. Christopher gave it a glance and hummed, "What's wrong? My words are rough because Hannah is in my eyes, she is not as good as a dog! She has a face to do mistakes yet asking me for credit here? She is not worthy of it!"

Elaine, who hadn't spoken all the time, became angry when she heard these words, and blurted out, "You dead old woman, talking is more stinky than farting!"

"Do you think that it is natural for us to give birth to your Wilson family and to work hard?! Don't forget, you are also a woman! When you were a daughter-in-law, if you run into a mother-in-law like you, it is estimated that if you live less than thirty, your mother-in-law will run to death!"

Lady Wilson coldly snorted, "Huh! My life is good, my short-lived mother-in-law died early! When I was 30, my mother-in-law died for two years!"

Elaine immediately sneered, "Yes! I really envy you! Your fate is really good! It's not like me and Hannah's fate are so miserable. When I met a mother-in-law like you, not only that you were shit, but you were still an immortal!"

Old Lady Wilson vomited blood angrily, and blurted out, "Elaine...you...what are you talking about me?!"

Elaine said coldly, "I said that your bad shit is still an immortal! The old immortal is so bad that it's shit!"

"You...you..." Lady Wilson was frustrated, and pointed to Christopher's gritted teeth and said, "Christopher!! Hurry up and smash her for me!"

Christopher's expression was so stupefied. He recalled what the old lady had said in his ear, so he persuaded her, "Mom, bear with the wind and waves for a while and take a step back. This is what you taught me just now!"

Old Lady Wilson was furious, "There is another saying, "Let's endure for a while, take a step back and think more and be more angry!"

"You can retreat today, but I can't retreat!"

As she said, she stretched out her hand, grabbed Christopher's crutches, and said angrily, "You useless thing! Let me go! I will smash her by myself!"

Chapter 3757

Instead, Christopher was no longer angry at this time. He quickly kept the crutches, and said, "Mom! It's easy to smash it, but it's hard to pay it!"

"That car is more than 10 million, and it costs hundreds of thousands to smash a hole. How should we pay for it? When the time comes, you will be caught, don't blame me for not reminding you!"

Old Lady Wilson's face suddenly turned blue and white, and she was struggling to get off the tiger for a while, and she stood on the spot, not knowing what to do.

Hannah at this time really didn't expect that Elaine, who had been overwhelmed by herself for decades, would be able to speak justice for herself at this time.

She has been oppressed by all parties, and her heart is full of gratitude to Elaine, so she hurriedly said to Elaine, "Elaine, thank you for being fair to me, but you should leave now, lest you suffer because of me."

Hearing Hannah's thanks, Elaine was somewhat astonished, but she said with a righteous face, "Hannah, to be honest, I am not only for you, but also for myself! This dead old lady bullied me and I've been so displeased for so many years! I didn't expect that we, daughter-in-laws to be inferior to a dog in her eyes. I really want to tear her mouth apart!"

Lady Wilson was very angry, but Christopher clung to the crutches so she didn't give her a chance, so she had nowhere to vent all of a sudden.

After several attempts to no avail, the old Lady Wilson jumped angrily and cursed, "Why is my life so bitter! I have two daughter-in-laws who married the family, and the two of them are not even as good as dogs.”

After that, she looked at Wendy and gritted her teeth and said, “Wendy! I don’t care about the other things! I only care about one thing, that is, Hannah, a stinky lady, will never enter this house!”

Wendy was also a little angry, and she said, “Grandma! Don’t pick mistakes on others in everything, and occasionally check if you have done anything wrong!”

After that, she looked at her father Christopher and said, “Dad! You always blame mother for her mistakes, but have you ever thought about it. The thing that pitted my aunt Elaine was the idea of the two of you together!”

“Furthermore, in the end, only my mother was sent to the black coal kiln to suffer. You are hiding behind your command, but you never blamed yourself!”

“Speaking of which, it was my mother who bore all the hardships alone!”

“In this case, you still only want to blame her for being sorry, but why have you never thought about thanking her for suffering for you?!”

As soon as Hannah heard this, all the grievances in her heart couldn’t help anymore, and they all burst out instantly, kneeling on the ground and crying loudly.

Christopher was a little speechless at this time.

Although he has always blamed Hannah, as if he hated her deeply, when his daughter Wendy said this, he couldn’t help but feel a little bit of self-blame in his heart.

In fact, Wendy was right. The two of them came up with a bad idea to cheat Elaine, but when it was really implemented, Hannah was alone.

In the end, she was punished by Charlie, and Hannah suffered alone. Christopher stayed at home and had nothing to do. From this point alone, Christopher lost a lot of Hannah.

Therefore, Christopher worked for a while and didn't know what to say, but the hostility between his eyebrows had been reduced a lot.

Chapter 3758

Wendy said again at this time, "Mom has been very pitiful during this time. When grandma was there, even if my uncle and aunt ran her on, she would have a place to live and have a full meal!"

"But grandma is gone, she doesn't have shelter from the wind and rain anymore. Anyway, she is the mother who gave birth to me and raised me. I said nothing would allow her to sleep on the street!"

Speaking of this, Wendy said with a very firm and strong attitude, "Dad, grandma! If you are willing to accept my mother back, then let my mother live in the villa. In the future, one more person will also have to take care of dad and brother. Grandma's burden will also be reduced!"

"However, if you are unwilling to accept my mother's return, then I will pay to rent a separate house for my mother outside, and I will take care of my mother's food and drink in the future!"

"I will spend the money I earn, and you don't have to worry about it, and you have no right to interfere!"

At this time, Wendy paused for a while, and reminded with a serious expression, "But I have to make it clear first! Our family's current expenses are all dependent on me to make money. The company needs to develop, and my salary can't be too high. If I still need to rent a house for my mother outside, the expenses will inevitably be a lot more!"

“In this case, the quality of life for all of us will decline, and I hope you can understand it at that time! It doesn’t matter if you don’t understand it, just physically overcome it.”

As soon as Lady Wilson heard this, her eyes rolled in her eye sockets a few times, and her mind moved quickly, carefully considering the pros and cons.

If Hannah is allowed to stay here, although her mood will be somewhat affected, as Wendy said, she will have an extra helper, and she will be a helper in her prime of life.

In that case, the pressure of serving his son and grandson will naturally be reduced a lot, or even more than half.

And this is also the most cost-effective way. There is no need to rent a house for Hannah alone. The family is nothing more than adding a pair of chopsticks, and the cost increase is minimal.

However, if Hannah is not allowed to stay here, and Wendy goes out to rent a house to Hannah, why can’t it be two or three thousand yuan a month?

At that time, the food expenses will also increase a lot, but it is not as simple as adding a pair of chopsticks.

Family income is less than a few thousand yuan a month, and the actual impact on life is still very large.

Thinking of this, Lady Wilson opened her mouth sadly, “Hannah, for the sake of Wendy’s face, I will let you in this time, but you must be honest and responsible for me when you are at home in the future. Do you understand?!”

When Hannah heard this, she was incoherent with excitement. She nodded her head and said, “Thank you mom...Thank you mom...I...I see..... From now on, I will do my duty and take care of my housework!”

Christopher sighed and didn't speak any more. He was already soft-hearted at this time, and he felt more guilty about Hannah's previous experience.

Wendy finally fell to the ground with a stone.

In fact, she received a call from her mother two days ago.

After Hannah's mother passed away, her younger brother and sister-in-law couldn't wait to kick her out, for fear that she would stay behind to fight for the ancestral property.

Hannah was kicked out and had nowhere to go. Besides calling her daughter for help, she couldn't think of any other way.

After all, she also knew that her mother-in-law and husband hated herself for being into the bone, and her son Harold was seriously injured in bed.

Fortunately, Wendy had reissued her previous mobile phone card, otherwise Hannah would not even be able to get through the phone. In that case, she would not be able to make calls every day and call the ground.

Wendy had also complained about her mother at the beginning, and she couldn't make it through just the fact that all the deposits in the family were emptied.

However, since Charlie helped her and asked her to take charge of the etiquette company, her outlook on life, world outlook, and values have undergone tremendous changes.

She no longer admires vanity as she did before, instead she is obsessed with making money with her own hands.

Moreover, she has a lot of patience and tolerance for many people and things around her.

As soon as she heard that her mother had no fixed place now, she hardly hesitated, and immediately let her mother return to Aurous Hill.

Because she felt that she could not sit back and watch her mother suffer outside anyway.

Therefore, she had already thought of two solutions.

If her father and grandmother can accept her mother, the family will still live together, and those gaps in the past will gradually dissipate over time in the future.

It doesn't matter if they can't accept her mother, but she has the ability to give her mother a stable life.

However, now that her grandma and dad agreed, in Wendy's eyes, it is the best solution.

Elaine couldn't help feeling a little sorrowful when she saw Hannah's tears of gratitude and tears.

She couldn't help but secretly thought in her heart, "Without my good son-in-law Charlie, my position in the Wilson family would not be as good as Hannah, and I don't know how much humiliation I would get by the old lady..."

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3759-3762

At this time, Christopher, not knowing whether he was angry or sad, turned around, silently leaned on crutches and returned to the room.

Although Lady Wilson was very upset, she had no other way but was forced to accept the reality of Hannah's return.

After all, she had to rely on Wendy to support her, and it was definitely not a wise move to offend Wendy at this time.

Seeing that the matter has been successfully resolved, Wendy finally breathed a sigh of relief, and she helped Hannah and said, "Mom, get up quickly, let's go inside."

Hannah cried and nodded, a look of aftermath.

She really has no retreat, otherwise, she wouldn't want to come back to see Old Lady Wilson's face.

Now, her biggest wish is to have a place to shelter from the wind and rain, at least not to worry about three meals a day.

Returning to Aurous Hill and Thompson's First Villa is the best choice for her at this stage.

Moreover, she is fortunate that her daughter, who has never been motivated and has never been to work, now has a career of her own, and the career development is quite smooth. This time, she really doesn't have to worry about life.

She was completely relieved. She was about to enter the door with Wendy.

Suddenly, she remembered something, turned around and walked in front of Elaine's car and said gratefully, "Elaine, thank you so much. I've been all wrong with you before. Please don't be familiar with me. I'm here to apologize to you..."

After all, Hannah immediately bowed to Elaine.

Elaine was suddenly confused by Hannah's humble attitude, and was caught off guard for a while, and said embarrassingly, "Look at you, you have been screaming in front of me for five or six years. Suddenly speaking in such a good voice, you won't be able to give it to me..."

Hannah sighed and said in a low voice, "I didn't want to understand before. I always wanted to fight for favor with you in front of the old lady. In front of the heartless people, there is still some kind of pets who are stubborn and obedient to her for a lifetime. In the end, in her eyes, isn't she still inferior to a dog?"

Elaine immediately felt deeply moved, and said with great agreement, "I told you Hannah, what you said is really true! That old woman is a wolf-hearted thing! You just cut off your own flesh. When she eats, she won't think of your favor, but wipes her mouth when she is full. By the way, she thinks your meat is too much!"

Hannah nodded and said seriously, "Anyway, I really understand this time. She will die in the future, and I won't shed a tear!"

Elaine sneered, "If she dies, not only will I not cry, but I will buy a few firecrackers to set off and celebrate!"

When Jacob heard this, he coughed twice and reminded, "Elaine...you almost get it...you have to know that you are talking about my mother..."

Elaine glared at him, and said angrily, "If you want to feel that you are kissing your mother, then you can move in at night!"

Jacob said angrily, "Why should I move here..."

Elaine said, "You moved here to serve your mother! Don't you want to be a filial son?"

Jacob immediately closed his mouth with interest.

Chapter 3760

He also wanted to understand. If Elaine was a powder keg, then the old lady would be the best fuze, so she would blow it up if she was accurate.

So, don't owe to yourself, and take the initiative to find this trouble.

At this time, Wendy who was on the side also stepped forward and said to Elaine respectfully, "Aunt Elaine... I also had a lot of ignorance before. Please don't be angry with me in the future. If you want, our family can move around a lot."

Elaine didn't expect that Wendy's attitude towards herself was a lot more respectful, and her mood improved. She nodded and said, "I'll be okay from now on. I'll find your mother to play with angry at that dead old woman!"

After that, Elaine said to Hannah in a mysterious voice, "I tell you Hannah, you can't always accept this dead old lady! You used to be too submissive and tolerant to her. She used to be bullish and we have nothing to say, after all, she is the head of the family, but now she still thinks she is still the head of the Wilson family? That era has passed long ago!"

"She has nothing right now, and she's getting older, she can't beat you, and she can't scold you, so what are you afraid of?"

"You were kneeling with her just now, it was a short-circuit in your mind!"

"I want to be you, and I will rush in as soon as I come back. If she dares to stop me, I will kick her from upstairs to downstairs!"

Speaking of this, Elaine became more and more excited, gritted her teeth and said, "So you don't want to frustrate with her in the future! If she dares to make trouble with you again, you just scold her directly! If she dares to talk back, you just hit her! She's honest after being hit twice!"

Hannah was deeply inspired by this, and she nodded her head repeatedly and said, "You are right! I was too afraid of her before! I was afraid of psychological shadows! But now, she is an old woman who can't even support herself."

"Besides, this villa doesn't belong to her, it belongs to Donald Webb. She can only live if Donald Webb allows her to live here. If Donald Webb doesn't let her live, she will have to go right away!"

Elaine nodded and said, "Just know it in your heart. If you have something like this again in the future, just beat her directly!"

Hannah clenched her fists and said firmly with a face, "Okay! If she dares to trouble me in the future, she will have a ghost if I don't hammer her!"

Seeing that her mother had been incited by Elaine, Wendy wished to rush in and beat her grandma violently. She knew that the two women could not continue to talk, otherwise the situation would definitely get out of control.

So she hurriedly said, "Mom, let's go in quickly. You first find an empty room, then tidy up the room and settle down, and then go and say hello to brother."

"Okay." Hannah also missed her son Harold, in her heart.

She haven't seen him for a long time, and don't know how her son is recovering now.

So, she hurriedly said to Elaine politely, "Elaine, then I will go in first, let's talk another day!"

Elaine still had some meaning, but she didn't hold back any more, and said, "Okay, you go in quickly!"

Hannah entered the villa with her daughter Wendy.

Elaine looked at the door for a while, then sat back in the car, and said with a gleeful expression, "Hannah is really born with rebellion, now that dead old woman will suffer!"

Jacob said helplessly, "Oh...then why are you... if Hannah really fights with my mother in the future, as her son, don't I have money to contribute?"

"Dare you!" Elaine said sternly, "If this dead old lady has a long and two shortcomings, you are not allowed to spend a penny!"

After speaking, she immediately waved her hand and said, "Hurry up and drive, I'm still waiting to go for a drive!"

Chapter 3761

Jacob drove away in the Rolls-Royce Cullinan that Michaela Joules gave him.

The two villas regained tranquility.

On the second floor terrace of Villa A05, Charlie and Claire looked at Jacob's Rolls Royce, and gradually disappeared in the corner.

Claire rubbed her temples, and said helplessly, "Aunt Hannah came back, I'm afraid she might cause problems with mom again..."

Charlie smiled and said, "It's okay, I think Aunt Hannah's attitude towards mom is quite friendly, even a little flattering."

"Yes..." Claire pursed her lips, and said melancholy, "What I am most worried about right now is that mom and her get mixed up again... in case they join together to deal with grandma. After that, I won't be able to survive..."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "I don't think you need to worry about this. Mom is right, the old lady has no money and power. It is impossible to be Hannah's opponent in all aspects. It's getting worse and worse."

Claire sighed, and said with emotion, "Uncle and grandma might start the fight..."

Charlie said casually, "My wife, you don't have to worry about their family. At least they will definitely not trouble us anymore. If they want to fight in their house, just let them."

Claire nodded sadly, and turned back to the room with Charlie.

.....

At night, Claire was already asleep, and Charlie was still lying on the bed, thinking about how to deal with the problem of Miss Lavigne.

Although he knew that she was here for Rejuvenation Pill, Charlie has not yet found her true identity, so he is still a little bit troubled.

Because, he has not yet confirmed whether this Miss Lavigne is a threat to him and his family.

If she just wants to establish a better personal relationship with him, trying to mediate the rejuvenation pill through this relationship, then although this person is very scheming, but at least not aggressive, naturally there is no danger.

However, if she regards herself as a source of rejuvenation pills, and even wants to obtain rejuvenation pills from him at all costs, then she will become very threatening to his family.

After all, there is a six-star warrior by her side.

Looking at the entire Aurous Hill, no one is the opponent of that six-star warrior except for himself.

Even if the Dragon Hall soldiers left behind by Wesley, the strongest were only five-star generals, that is, five-star warriors.

On the way to martial arts, the gap between each level is an insurmountable gap, so in front of a six-star warrior, a five-star warrior has no chance of winning.

Therefore, Charlie felt that before he was sure that Miss Lavigne was an enemy or a friend, the first task was to think of a way to control the six-star warrior next to her.

Doesn't this Miss Lavigne like to start from the people around him? Then start with the people next to her!

Chapter 3762

As long as the six-star warrior loses the threat, even if Miss Lavigne is an enemy, it is not enough to be afraid.

At that time, since she wants to play this cat and mouse game, he can continue to play with her.

So Charlie sent Stephen Thompson a piece of information, asking him to find out all the information of Miss Lavigne when she entered the country.

At the same time, Aurous Hill's Shangri-La Hotel.

James Smith, who had lost ten pounds in a few days, walked into the hotel door dejectedly.

The failure to meet Liam Weaver these days has caused him to suffer a blow.

His son's follow-up Healing Salve Pills have become less and less, and if he can't get the medicine, his son will face the situation of stopping the medicine.

James Smith naturally did not want his son to stop taking the medicine, so he called Liam Weaver one day after another, and even sent several emails to the official email of Oracle Pharmaceutical on the Internet, asking for a humble request to meet Liam Weaver, but all the information fell into the sea, and no one paid any attention to him.

The head of the intelligence department is similarly devastated.

Not only did he fail to find any information about the missing intelligence personnel, on the contrary, there were more intelligence personnel who disappeared under his nose.

In desperation, he could only temporarily suspend all agent activities.

James Smith originally wanted to go to Oracle Pharmaceutical to try his luck tonight, and at the same time let Liam Weaver see his sincerity in visiting the cottage.

But unexpectedly, Michaela Joules' assistant suddenly called him. Said that Miss Joules had something to do with him.

James Smith didn't dare to offend Michaela Joules, so he could only hung up and rushed to the appointment immediately.

He came to the door of the presidential suite where Michaela Joules was located. Michaela Joules' personal bodyguard, Louis Rogers, was standing motionless outside the door at this time.

James Smith walked up to him and said, "Hello, I'm here to see Miss Joules."

Louis Rogers just looked at him up and down, then nodded and said, "Miss Joules is waiting for you inside, please come in."

After that, he turned around and pushed open the door.

James Smith asked in surprise, "Don't you want to search or do a security check or something?"

"No." Louis Rogers said calmly, "I know you don't have any weapons."

James Smith shrugged, "Okay, then I'll go in."

After that, he walked in directly.

At this time, in the nearly 100 square meter living room of the presidential suite, Shan Elliott was sitting on the sofa looking through the information. Seeing James Smith came in, she hurriedly said, "Mr. Smith, please sit down for a while. Miss Joules is changing clothes."

"Okay..." James Smith nodded, sat down on a single sofa, and asked curiously, "Ms. Elliott, I don't know what Miss Joules would like to invite me to?"

Shan Elliott said, "Miss Joules wants to ask you about someone, and you might be looking for this person too."

"Really?" James Smith asked in surprise, "Who is it?"

Shan Elliott said, "Miss Joules will naturally tell you after a while."

"Okay." James Smith nodded, whispering in his heart.

At this moment, Michaela Joules, wearing a white dress and a scarf on his shoulders, walked out of the inner room.

Seeing James Smith sitting in the living room, he said casually, "Mr. Smith is here."

James Smith stood up hurriedly and said respectfully, "Hello, Miss Joules!"

Michaela Joules nodded, and said casually, "Please sit down, don't be so polite."

James Smith just sat back again.

Michaela Joules sat opposite of James Smith, and asked with great interest, "By the way, Mr. Smith, how is your business going?"

James Smith said awkwardly, "No progress...Liam Weaver of Oracle Pharmaceutical has been reluctant to see me."

Michaela Joules nodded and asked him, "Is that Healing Salve Pill really amazing?"

"Fantastic!" James Smith said without hesitation, "This medicine treats cancer like pouring molten aluminum water into an ant's nest. The ants won't leave them wherever the rain drops."

Michaela Joules asked him, "Can cancer be cured completely?"

James Smith said, "We have not seen any cancer patients who are actually cured by this medicine, but according to the drug dynamics we have now, continuing to take this drug can continue to kill cancer cells in the body, and the drug is effective. It won't decrease in the slightest with the increase in medication, so according to the model we now know, as long as there are enough medicine, the patient will be able to heal."

Speaking of this, James Smith sighed, "I can say that if this medicine is officially launched and is available in unlimited quantities, then all previous cancer treatments in the world will become the past, because there is no single drug or any cure better than it!"

Michaela Joules was shocked, and asked, "What about the market space for this medicine? How big can it be?"

James Smith thought for a while and said seriously, “The annual global cost of cancer treatment is about 600 to 800 billion U.S. dollars, of which medicines account for more than 200 billion U.S. dollars. If Healing Salve Pill is supplied in unlimited quantities, it will at least achieve the market. For the monopoly with more than half of the share, the remaining half should be patients who cannot afford Healing Salve Pills and can only be forced to choose the previous treatment plan.”

Michaela Joules couldn't help but secretly thought, “If this is the case, then Oracle Pharmaceutical's net profit may exceed 100 billion U.S. dollars a year.”

“If a company whose annual profit exceeds 100 billion U.S. dollars goes public, then the market value of this company will be at least ten times its annual profit, that is, one trillion U.S. dollars...”

“Moreover, if Oracle Pharmaceutical's concept is new enough and the monopoly position is sufficiently stable, the market value will continue to rise. Maybe Oracle Pharmaceutical will surpass Apple and become the world's most valuable company...”

Thinking of this, she was even more curious about whether Charlie was the behind-the-scenes boss of Oracle Pharmaceutical.

So, she took the tablet from Shan Elliott, opened the photo of Charlie taken from the dash cam, and handed it to Smith, and asked, “Mr. Smith, Director Wade of Oracle Pharmaceutical who met you, is it this person?”

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3763-3764

He shouted excitedly, "That's him, he is Director Wade of Oracle Pharmaceutical!"

After saying that, he couldn't wait to ask, "Miss Joules, why do you have this picture of Director Wade? Do you know him? Can you introduce him to me? Please!"

At this time, James Smith felt as if he was about to drown, and finally caught another straw.

He couldn't meet Liam Weaver or get Healing Salve pills. His whole mood was almost on the verge of collapse.

He also tried to find Director Wade. After all, in his impression, Director Wade seemed to speak quite well.

Because Director Wade gave himself the batch of Healing Salve pills at the beginning.

However, when Charlie saw him that day, he did not leave any identity information.

Therefore, James Smith doesn't even know Charlie, let alone how to find him.

At present, he is extremely excited to see that Michaela Joules actually have photos of Charlie.

Michaela Joules smiled at this time and thought to herself, "It's really not as I expected. Charlie is not only Master Wade, who everyone admires in Aurous Hill, but also the actual owner of Healing Salve Pill! In addition, he is even the boss behind Oracle Pharmaceutical!"

Thinking of this, Michaela Joules couldn't help but calculate Charlie's strength and value.

Rejuvenating Pill is worth tens of billions of dollars, no one knows how much Charlie has.

Oracle Pharmaceutical has two commonly used drugs that are selling well now, and Healing Salve Pill is a miracle in the medical field. If the production capacity can really be maximized, it is extremely easy for Oracle Pharmaceutical to break through trillions of dollars.

According to this trend, Charlie alone has the opportunity to become the fourth after the world's three top families.

The more so, the more unimaginable Michaela Joules was.

She couldn't help sighing in her heart, "I really don't understand why Charlie has such strong strength to live in this small Aurous Hill City?"

"Moreover, he is willing to be a son-in-law in an unknown downtrodden family. Is it this Claire Wilson really magical?"

Just when Michaela Joules was thinking a lot, James Smith saw that she hadn't spoken for a long time and couldn't wait to ask, "Miss Joules, this is about my son's life. If you know any clues, please tell me..."

Michaela Joules came to her senses, looked at him, and said, "Mr. Smith, you are the head of the FDA, so if I guess correctly, it shouldn't be as simple as asking for medicine for your son when you come to Aurous Hill to find Oracle Pharmaceutical?"

James Smith said truthfully, "Miss Joules, in addition to asking for medicine, I also hope to negotiate with Oracle Pharmaceutical about Healing Salve Pills for sale in the American market and win this specific medicine for cancer patients in China!"

With that, James Smith quickly said, "Miss Joules, please help me make an appointment with Director Wade..."

Chapter 3764

Michaela Joules said helplessly, “Mr. Smith, I still have something very important to ask for at present, and I haven’t found a way out, so I may not be able to help you.”

When James Smith heard this, he couldn’t help asking, “Miss Joules, are you also looking for him to recreate Rejuvenating pills?”

Michaela Joules thought for a moment, nodded and said, “Yes, I am.”

Smith sighed and said in a low mood, “If even Miss Joules has difficulty finding a way, I’m afraid it will be even more difficult for me...”

Michaela Joules nodded and said, “Let’s work together on this matter. If I can find a way and solve my own demands, I will definitely find a way to help you fight for Healing Salve Pills.”

When Smith heard this, he suddenly felt relieved and said gratefully, “Then thank you, Miss Joules!”

Michaela Joules said indifferently, “Mr. Smith, don’t be so polite, but when anyone in Aurous Hill asks if you know me, you must deny it, understand?”

James Smith didn’t know what Michaela Joules meant, but immediately nodded and said, “Miss Joules, don’t worry, I must deny it.”

Michaela Joules nodded slightly.

Not many people know her real identity, and there are very few in Aurous Hill.

Except for his entourage, the only person he knows is James Smith.

Therefore, she naturally hopes that James Smith can keep a secret and never become a breakthrough for others to investigate her identity.

However, Michaela Joules did not know that Charlie had begun to investigate her identity.

.....

Early the next morning, Stephen Thompson sent Charlie all the information left by Michaela Joules and her party when they entered the country.

In addition to Michaela Joules' Miss Lavigne identity information, Charlie also recognized the information of the six-star martial artist, whose name was Jacques Garnier, and he was also a French Chinese.

Charlie is also very clear that Jacques Garnier's identity is absolutely false.

The only true thing is the facial information left when entering the country.

Subsequently, Charlie sent Stephen Thompson's information to him to Wesley, and gave him an order at the same time, "Wesley, please help me look for this woman's clues in your intelligence system."

Wesley immediately opened the information and asked in surprise, "Mr. Wade, isn't the information here very complete? And it is very detailed. Not only is her personal identity recorded in detail, but also her entry information in China is very clear."

Charlie said, "I suspect that this woman has another identity. This Miss Lavigne is just a vest for her."

With that, Charlie said again, "This woman has a personal bodyguard around her, and he is a six-star warrior."

"Six-star warrior?!" Wesley said in surprise, "I have never heard of any six-star warrior who is a bodyguard for others..."

Charlie asked him, "In addition to the Dragon Hall, do you know how many six-star warriors are there?"

"Not much." Wesley said seriously, "Although there are many martial arts families overseas, there are also few six-star warriors. Generally speaking, those who can reach this level have basically established sects. Even those top families can only regard them as guests. Few people can stay with the six-star warriors as bodyguards..."

With that, Wesley said again, "I guess what can have this strength in the Chinese family is the resettlement of the United States and the remaining two or three top hidden rich Chinese families."

Charlie asked him, "Do you know anything about other top Chinese families?"

Wesley said, "The Weinstein family in the United States, the Joules family, and the Thomson family in Canada are all strong."

With that, Wesley said again, "Since this Miss Lavigne is from the United States, I guess it is either the Weinstein family or the Joules family."

Charlie asked him, "Is your intelligence network absolutely reliable? If this Miss Lavigne's information is sent to your informant, will they disclose the clue to the other party?"

"No." Wesley said, "Although these informants are in contact with us online, we have all their information and family members' information, and no one dares to reverse the water."

"That's good." Charlie nodded with satisfaction and said, "Then you can help me publish her information. If anyone can provide her real identity information, he will be rewarded with five million dollars! Be sure to find out her true identity!"

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3765

After Charlie instructed Wesley to search for information about Michaela Joules in the intelligence network, he called Michaela Joules himself.

Michaela Joules at this time was also waiting for Charlie's initiative to contact.

Because, in order to show her good intentions to Charlie yesterday, she not only gave his old father-in-law Jacob a Rolls Royce Cullinan, but also gave his wife Claire a large project of tens of millions. According to common sense, Charlie at least will call to be polite.

So she immediately connected the phone and smiled and said, "Why did Mr. Wade call me so early?"

Charlie smiled and said, "Miss Lavigne, I said it yesterday, watching Feng Shui is just a small effort. You don't have to spend money, but why did you give my father-in-law a Cullinan? It made me a little embarrassed."

Charlie was only polite when he spoke like this, but he was not embarrassed at all in his heart.

Michaela Joules smiled and said at this time, "Mr. Wade, you are too polite. You are a great Feng shui master who is famous in Aurous Hill. I invited you to come to see Feng Shui. If it affects your future business, then I'm even more embarrassed."

As she said, Michaela Joules said again, "You also said, this is courtesy. Only when you have connections, you can have friendship. I really want to be friends with masters like you, Mr. Wade!"

Charlie laughed and said, "You are right, if that's the case, then I won't be polite to Miss Lavigne."

Speaking of this, Charlie turned around and said, "However, I still hope that Miss Lavigne can give a chance to enjoy noodles so that I can treat you to a meal. Is it convenient for Miss Lavigne?"

When Michaela Joules heard this, she was naturally very happy, and said almost without hesitation, "It is my honor to let Mr. Wade invite me to dinner, and it is naturally convenient for me at any time."

Charlie smiled and said, "Well, then tonight, I will send you a text message after I confirm the location."

Michaela Joules readily agreed and said with a smile, "Okay! Then I'll wait for Mr. Wade's notification."

Charlie said, "Then see you tonight!"

"Okay, see you tonight."

After hanging up the phone, Charlie immediately called Don Albert and asked, "Don Albert, can you find me a farmhouse around Aurous Hill?"

Don Albert asked in surprise, "Master Wade, why are you looking for a farmhouse?"

Charlie said casually, "I plan to treat guests to dinner."

Don Albert said, "Master Wade, don't go to any farmhouse. Isn't my Heaven Spring Mansion not ready? The diamond box has been reserved for you!"

Charlie smiled and said, "I have something else to do. It's not suitable for it."

Don Albert hurriedly asked, "Master Wade, what do you need for the farmhouse? I will look for you. Many of my brothers open restaurants, including farmhouses. They have many friends on the road, and people around them eat and drink. They open a restaurant as a side job."

Chapter 3766

Charlie said, "The place shouldn't be too big, it's better to be in a remote place. The car can be parked directly in the yard, and there should be no surveillance nearby."

Don Albert thought for a while, and said, "A little brother just made an iron pot stewed goose a few days ago. His place meets your requirements, and the food tastes good."

Charlie said, "Okay, then tell him directly, don't receive other guests tonight, and save the place for me."

"Okay!" Don Albert said hurriedly, "Then I will make arrangements."

Charlie said again, "By the way, Don Albert, prepare a private room in the dog farm, and prepare a commercial vehicle to wait near the farmhouse, and pick me up in the evening."

"Good Master Wade!"

When Charlie hung up the phone and came to the living room downstairs, Elaine had already prepared breakfast and served it to the table. Claire was helping to prepare the dishes and chopsticks nearby. Seeing Charlie came down, she smiled and said, "My husband, sit down and let's eat."

“Okay!” Charlie responded with a smile, and was about to sit down when he saw Jacob walking downstairs in a suit.

Claire asked in surprise, “Dad, why do you dress so formal today?”

Jacob stretched out his hand to adjust his tie, and said with a smile, “After all, I am a Rolls-Royce Cullinan driver. Naturally, I have to be more careful in dressing, otherwise others would think I am a driver.”

Claire said helplessly, “Dad, don’t forget, the Rolls Royce you drove was given to Charlie...Why don’t you ask Charlie if he needs that car?”

Jacob touched his nose awkwardly, and quickly asked Charlie, “Good son-in-law, do you...do you want to use a car? If you want to use it, Dad will leave this car for you... “

As he said, he added, “Good son-in-law, but if you don’t use it for the time being, then dad will drive it for now. When you want to use it, tell me in advance, I will leave the car for you, absolutely no delay.”

Charlie smiled slightly and said casually, “Dad, don’t worry it. I won’t drive that car. If it’s convenient, I can also drive that BMW 530 back and give me occasional walks.”

When Jacob heard this, he was overjoyed and blurted out, “Good son-in-law, in this case, dad will drive for you first. If you want to experience a Rolls Royce, dad will be your driver!”

After finishing speaking, he hurriedly said, “That BMW 530 is parked downstairs of the Calligraphy and Painting Association. Otherwise, after I arrive, I will arrange for someone from the Calligraphy and Calligraphy Association to send it back to you!”

“Okay.” Charlie said with a smile, “It just so happens that I have an appointment for dinner at night, and I need a car.”

Claire asked Charlie, “Husband, will you eat outside at night?”

“Yes.” Charlie nodded and said, “I made an appointment with a friend.”

“Okay.” Claire knew that Charlie had many friends now, so she didn’t think much about it.

Charlie asked Claire, “My wife, have you considered whether to accept that Miss Lavigne’s decoration project?”

Claire nodded lightly, and said seriously, “I have considered it, I plan to take this project, and then do my best! Strive to get a good place in the National Interior Design Competition!”

After that, Claire hurriedly said, “Husband, I still decided not to charge that Miss Lavigne’s design fee, so that you don’t have to owe her favors.”

Charlie nodded and smiled, “It’s okay, just make your decision. I will support you 100%.”

Claire said, “I plan to meet with that Miss Elliott today. It would be better if the design fee can also be converted into a decoration budget!”

Charlie knows that his wife has always wanted to do something in the field of design.

Moreover, the achievements in this field are works and awards.

However, his wife has not found a suitable opportunity for her to use her own fists.

Now that she has such an excellent opportunity in front of her, it must be difficult for her to refuse.

At this time, Elaine walked to the table with the soup pot, and asked curiously, "Claire, what did you just say about the design fee?"

Claire hurriedly said, "It's nothing, just chatting with Charlie."

Elaine nodded and reminded, "I can tell you that when you come out to do business, don't give face to any acquaintances! Some acquaintances, no matter how you give them face, even if you post money to him, he thinks you are making money. He has a lot of money, so no matter who is looking for you, you can earn as much as you should earn, and you can't make a penny cheap!"

Charlie smiled and said at this time, "Mom, let's not make decisions for her, let her make the decision for herself."

Elaine wanted to say something, but she hesitated for a moment, and swallowed what she said.

She knew in her heart that in this family, Charlie was the real head of the family. If she didn't want to be as miserable as Hannah next door, she had to listen to Charlie...

So, she immediately changed her words and said, "Good son-in-law is right! Claire, you can make your own decision. No matter what, Mom will support you!"

Chapter 3767

In the afternoon, Dragon Hall's intelligence system had not fed back any useful information.

However, Charlie has decided, no matter who this Miss Lavigne is, it's better to control the six-star warrior next to her first tonight.

At five o'clock in the afternoon, he forwarded the address sent by Don Albert to Michaela Joules.

After that, he drove the BMW 530 from Jacob to the farmyard in the outskirts.

Michaela Joules was dressing up in the hotel at this time.

She changed into a white Hermès haute couture dress sewn by hand, wrapped her long hair elegantly on the back of her head, and fixed the coiled long hair with a black hairpin, then took a pair of flawless ones, and wear pearl earrings carefully.

Her dress is modern but the accessories are simple. Not only is she not half obtrusive, but also surprisingly coordinated.

Michaela Joules' appearance has improved by more than one level after a simple application of powder.

After packing up, she received the address from Charlie.

Seeing that the address was a farmhouse, she was a little surprised, and she didn't get back to her senses for a while.

She originally thought that Charlie would choose Heaven Spring Mansion with a high probability, but unexpectedly, he chose a farmhouse restaurant located in the suburbs of Aurous Hill.

Moreover, it is really the kind of farm restaurant opened in the farmyard.

Because the address has already written, the restaurant is named Farmhouse Iron Pot Stew, with the address: Farm Village 3rd Group No. 7, 104 National Road East.

In addition to sending her the address, Charlie also added a text message, “Ms. Lavigne, you have been in France for a long time and you are used to French food. I guess you have never eaten our domestic local restaurant. The goose tastes very good. I will pick a goose, kill it and stew it, and it will be ready to be serve when you arrive.”

Michaela Joules grew up so big and had never eaten iron pot stew. She couldn’t imagine what this kind of farm restaurant would look like, and what the so-called iron pot stew was.

So, she hurriedly took out her phone and searched for the picture of the iron pot stew. When she saw the picture, when a group of people were sitting around the brick earthen stove and eating in the huge black iron pot, Michaela Joules was stunned.

She never expected that Charlie would invite herself to eat in such a place.

I don’t know if he is too picky or too casual.

Otherwise, as a gentleman, you should always choose a slightly more stylish restaurant, right?

However, she also knew that since Charlie invited her to dinner, she definitely couldn’t let him change places.

So she had to pick up her mobile phone and call her personal bodyguard, Louis Rogers.

As soon as the phone was connected, she said, “Mr. Rogers, please arrange for the car to be prepared for you. I have to go out in ten minutes.”

Louis Rogers asked hurriedly, "Miss, who will go out with you?"

Michaela Joules said, "Just you and me."

Louis Rogers asked her, "Miss Elliott won't go out with you?"

Chapter 3768

Michaela Joules said, "Shan is outside negotiating a contract with Charlie's wife, and by the way, she will also take her to "The Croft Villa". I guess she will be late."

"Understood." Louis Rogers said at the moment of establishment, "Please wait a moment. I will notify you when the car is ready."

"Good!"

After hanging up the phone, Michaela Joules was very happy, even faintly cheering.

She felt that if Charlie took the initiative to invite herself to dinner, it proved that her human relations offensive had played a practical role.

And what she have to do now is to do everything possible to get closer to Charlie before the auction begins.

In this way, the rejuvenation pill that her Grandpa wants have double insurance.

If she can't get it at the auction, she can at least try to mediate with Charlie through personal contacts.

Moreover, she is not worried that her true identity will be exposed at the auction, because her identity of Miss Lavigne is real, and the family of Miss Lavigne in France is considered to be a distant relative of the Joules family, and she is a distant relative. The younger generation, accompanied the head of the Joules family to the auction, which makes sense.

Thinking of this, she felt even more relaxed.

Even deep in her heart, she has begun to have uncontrollable fantasies.

At the fantasy auction, her Grandpa will miss the Rejuvenation Pill, and when he was heartbroken and deeply unwilling, she will buy a Rejuvenation Pill directly from Charlie through her personal relationship with Charlie.

At that time, she will be the savior in her Grandpa's eyes.

Although Michaela Joules felt a little humiliated and ashamed for this idea of herself, when she thought of her family, only by this opportunity could she have a beautiful turnaround in Joules house, so the shame in her heart suddenly disappeared.

She knew very well in her heart that fighting for power in the Joules family was like fighting for the royal family to fight for the land. In order to achieve the goal, it was not surprising that any method was used.

Five minutes later.

There was a knock on the door, and Louis Rogers' voice came from outside the door, "Miss, the car is ready."

"Okay, I'm going."

Michaela Joules picked up a limited-edition Hermès Himalayan platinum bag. The black and white gradient color complemented this long dress on her.

Standing in front of the vanity mirror at the door, Michaela Joules looked at herself in the mirror, and shook her head helplessly, "I feel like a clown..."

With a light sigh, Michaela Joules opened the door.

Six-star warrior Louis Rogers was already waiting outside the door.

Seeing her coming out, he immediately said respectfully, "Miss, we can go now."

"Good." Michaela Joules nodded, and went to the hotel lobby with Louis Rogers.

Her Cadillac bulletproof car of the same model as the President of the United States had been parked at the entrance of the lobby. One of her men handed the car keys to Louis Rogers, and then opened the rear door for Michaela Joules.

After Michaela Joules sat in, Louis Rogers came to the cab, opened the vehicle's central control lock, and asked, "Miss, where are we going?"

Michaela Joules said, "You can search for Farm Village 3rd Group No. 7 on the navigation system. It seems to be on the edge of National Highway 104."

Louis Rogers frowned and said, "Farm Village 3rd Group No. 7? It sounds like a suburb, so why are you going to such a place, Miss?"

Michaela Joules said, "Charlie said he wanted to invite me to dinner, so he chose a place there."

Louis Rogers entered Farm Village 3rd Group No. 7 on the navigation, and after finding the location, he was surprised and said, "This place is nearly 30 kilometers away from the city. It's too remote. Why did Charlie choose the place here? Isn't it a bit tricky?"

Michaela Joules was silent for a moment, and said in a low voice, "It shouldn't be, I have met Charlie once. Does Mr. Rogers think I have exposed any clues?"

Louis Rogers thought for a while and said, "I didn't follow you in yesterday, so I can't tell you specifically whether you exposed any clues, or if you missed anything."

Michaela Joules thought about it for a moment, and then said, "It seems that there is nothing to say about it. I have always been very cautious."

Louis Rogers suddenly thought of something and seriously said, "Miss, I am actually a clue."

Michaela Joules asked curiously, "What does Mr. Rogers mean?"

Louis Rogers said sternly, "If Charlie's strength is above me, he should be able to see that I am a six-star warrior. In that case, he will definitely doubt your identity why you are personally protected by a six-star warrior."

Michaela Joules asked nervously, "Mr. Rogers, do you think Charlie's strength will be higher than you?"

Louis Rogers said very solemnly, "I haven't heard of a six-star warrior in his twenties, but even I haven't heard of it, it doesn't mean there is no one!"

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3769-3772

Louis Rogers' words made Michaela Joules frown.

It's not that Louis Rogers is extremist.

He just broke through the sixth meridian last year and officially became a six-star warrior.

With his current strength, among the six-star warriors, he is the rear of a crane.

Therefore, as long as Charlie's strength reaches the level of a six-star martial artist, it is likely to be stronger than him, and it is easy to see through his cultivation.

However, although he did not dare to say anything too much, he seemed to be a little worried when he saw Michaela Joules.

After thinking for a while, he still said to her, "Miss, I personally think Charlie is a six-star martial artist, or even a higher-level martial artist, but you don't have to worry too much."

Michaela Joules asked, "Why did Mr. Rogers say this?"

Louis Rogers said, "The country is peaceful and prosperous, so there has been no development opportunities for folk martial arts over the years."

"Strong martial arts masters are basically overseas."

"Charlie is also a native of Aurous Hill, and the possibility of being a martial arts master is even lower."

“At present, as I know in China, the strongest is only four stars. Whether there is a five-star warrior or not is still unknown.”

Michaela Joules nodded gently and said, “I vaguely think that Charlie is too mysterious, and there are many things that people can’t see through and figure it out, but I don’t think he is likely to be a martial arts master at a young age, not to mention that he still has to study Feng shui and run a pharmaceutical factory...”

“No matter how strong he is, he can’t become a martial arts master in his twenties. It seems that I’m over-concerned...”

Louis Rogers also said with great agreement, “It’s true. Even if you worshipped a famous teacher since you were a child and taught by famous teachers.”

“In addition, you have a strong talent, it is impossible to become a six-star martial artist in your twenties.”

“What I know is the youngest six-star warrior was about thirty-five years old at that time.”

“From the age of thirty-three to the thirty-fifth year of breaking through the six-star martial arts, the daily martial arts practice time is conservatively estimated to be more than fourteen hours.”

Michaela Joules exclaimed, “Fourteen hours of martial arts practice every day, and the rest of the time is removed from eating and sleeping. Basically, there is nothing left...”

“Yes.” Louis Rogers nodded and said, “Those who really want to achieve something along the way of martial arts must basically do their best, and must avoid the world and practice.”

“Otherwise, there will be too many kinds of interference around him, and it is difficult to improve quickly.”

“Charlie does everything and is so distracted.”

“Even if he is really a martial arts person, it is difficult to make any achievements.”

Chapter 3770

With that, Louis Rogers said again, “But if you are really worried, Miss, I can arrange a few more people to come and make sure that it is foolproof.”

When Michaela Joules heard this, her doubts had basically dispelled.

She waved her hand and said, “Forget it, he invited me to dinner.”

“It makes sense for me to take a driver.”

“If I bring a group of people there, the other party will definitely think too much about it. It’s not appropriate.”

Louis Rogers nodded and said nothing more.

The Cadillac drove out of the city, walked along the aisle for another twenty minutes, and finally came to the Farmhouse Iron Pot Stew mentioned by Charlie.

As soon as the car arrived at the door, a young man commanded, “Pow the car in the yard. Master Wade has arrived!”

Michaela Joules looked in and found that there was indeed a BMW 530 parked in the yard.

She couldn't help thinking to herself, "This Charlie is really low-key."

"At present, there are three cars in their house, only this BMW 530 is the worst. As a result, this car really reaches his hand..."

Louis Rogers didn't think much about it at this time.

He drove the car directly into the farmyard and parked with Charlie's BMW.

Louis Rogers got out of the car and paid close attention to the farmyard.

This farmyard is medium-sized, with more than a hundred square meters.

In addition to a kitchen, there are also several brick-built boxes.

However, only one of these boxes is on the light.

Although Louis Rogers has no aura, after all, he is a six-star warrior.

If he closes his eyes slightly and circulates the real air, he can judge the distribution of personnel in this farmyard through his strong perception ability.

At this time, in addition to the young people in the yard who commanded parking, there were three people in the kitchen who were busy, and there was one person sitting in the light-bright box, and the other rooms were empty.

He expanded his perception slightly.

Within a radius of dozens of meters around the yard, there seemed to be no sign of anyone hiding.

Moreover, it can be seen from the breathing rhythm and strength of these people that these people are ordinary people and don't even enter the door of martial arts.

From this, he also came up with a basic judgment that there was no ambush in the yard.

So Louis Rogers said to Michaela Joules, "Miss, you can get off."

Hearing this, Michaela Joules nodded gently, and her frown spread out.

She knew that Louis Rogers was very powerful, and she could even detect the enemy hidden behind several walls through the perception of other people's breathing and heartbeats.

Therefore, as long as he tells herself that she can get off the car, it proves that there is nothing abnormal in this place.

It's just that the environment of this place really makes her a little difficult to say.

The buildings of the farmyard are a little dilapidated.

Although they have been renovated, it can also be seen that they have a long history.

As soon as you get out of the car, you can smell a smell of stench in the yard.

On closer inspection, you will find that there are more than a dozen fat goose in captivity in the corner of the yard.

It may also be disturbed by the sound of the car engine, and a dozen goose kept fluttering their wings in their nests and making loud tweets.

Michaela Joules looked at a snow-white goose, and then looked at the same snow-white Hermes handmade high-end dress on her body.

She couldn't help sighing and felt that she was the clown in front of these goose.

At the same time, she also slandered in her heart, "The environment here is so bad."

"How can we eat the food later?"

"The key is that Charlie treats me to dinner. If I sit down and only watch and don't eat, the etiquette will definitely not be reasonable..."

Just as she was worried about the environment here, the door of the lighted box was pushed open, and Charlie, dressed in a pure white T-shirt and a pair of washed white jeans, came out of the door.

He looked at Michaela Joules and smiled enthusiastically, "Oh, Miss Lavigne is here. Come on, please come in!"

Seeing Charlie dressed in a simple and casual dress, Michaela Joules felt a little embarrassed for the first time in her heart.

Charlie's clothes like this seem to be intransigent in such a place, and coupled with his handsome appearance and sunny smile, it gives people an inexplicable favor.

However, Michaela Joules looked at herself again and felt that she was dressed today like an overdressed clown, which seemed out of place with everything around her.

Charlie didn't expect that Michaela Joules would dress so formally, and even had the feeling of attending the top dinner party.

He couldn't help praising, "Miss Lavigne dressed up beautifully today!"

When Michaela Joules heard this, she was a little embarrassed.

Originally, she was quite confident, but she didn't expect to feel strong embarrassments and uneasiness for the first time in this kind of suburban farmyard.

She said awkwardly, "I'm sorry, Mr. Wade, today's clothes are really inappropriate, which makes you laugh."

Charlie smiled and said, "How come? I was a little inconsiderate when I chose a place. Please don't be surprised."

After hearing this, Michaela Joules' awkward mood immediately eased a lot.

Charlie looked at her, smiled and said, "Miss Lavigne, please come in quickly. The goose has almost stewed!"

Chapter 3771

Seeing Charlie's invitation, Michaela Joules had no choice but to bite the bullet and walk towards the box door.

At this time, Charlie looked at Louis Rogers again and warmly invited, "Brother, come in and have a bite together? There are no outsiders!"

Louis Rogers shook his head and said politely, "Thank you Mr. Wade for your kindness."

"As a driver, it is better to wait outside."

Charlie nodded and said, "If that's the case, then I won't be able to greet you well."

Louis Rogers hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, you are polite!"

Charlie smiled slightly and entered the box with Michaela Joules.

They said it is a box, it is actually an ordinary brick house.

The area of the room is not big, it is relatively empty inside, but a square earthen stove was built against the wall facing the door of the room.

The fire under the stove was all wood, and the flames burned so vigorously that even though the large iron pot above was covered with a wooden pot lid, steam was constantly emitting from all sides of the pot lid.

The whole room was filled with a strong smell of meat.

As soon as Michaela Joules smelled this spicy meaty aroma, she began to secrete saliva in her mouth uncontrollably.

She took out a small bottle of mineral water from her bag and took a sip to hide her embarrassment.

At the same time, she was puzzled, "This goose smells so fragrant, does the food made in this place will really be good to eat?"

In doubt, Charlie pointed to one of the chairs and said to Michaela Joules, "Miss Lavigne, please sit down! I don't know if the food here suits your taste."

"I originally wanted to find a high-end Western restaurant."

"But I heard that French food is a Western food, so I guess you, a Chinese who grew up in France, eat western food from places like Aurous Hill, it will definitely taste like chewing wax."

"So I want you to taste the local specialties. I hope you don't dislike it. If it doesn't suit your appetite, you can just say that it's still too late for us to change a restaurant in the city."

Charlie's chattering made Michaela Joules feel a little bit more moved.

She thought that Charlie really thought so well, but she didn't know that Charlie was just talking about it.

He had never studied where the western food in Aurous Hill was delicious, and he was not planning to take Michaela Joules to any western restaurant.

Michaela Joules did not expect that Charlie would only act on the scene.

When she was moved, she smiled and said politely, “Mr. Wade is too polite. I actually really want to taste the local specialties that I haven’t tasted before.”

Charlie nodded and smiled, “That’s right, this is a local specialties in China.”

As he said, he stretched out his hand to lift the lid of the pot, and as a large cloud of steam rolled up to the ceiling, a richer smell of meat came to his face.

Michaela Joules also saw what was simmering in the pot.

This was a pot of goose that had been sauce-colored and constantly tumbling.

In addition, there were some fat and thin thick pork belly.

Chapter 3772

Michaela Joules, who grew up in the United States, rarely eats pork.

The two most commonly eaten meats are beef and chicken, and chicken only eats low-calorie chicken breast.

The only pork that she can eat in her life is processed bacon, so she hardly has any favor with this fatty pork belly.

However, when she saw the big piece of pork tumbling in the pot, she wanted to taste what it would taste like.

Seeing that she was a little sluggish, Charlie took a piece of goose for her, put it on the plate in front of her, and said with a smile, "I'm afraid that a lady like you is scrupulous about image when eating goose, so I specially asked the chef to Chop the meat into small pieces and you will taste the taste first."

After speaking, Charlie hurriedly explained, "Oh yes, I haven't used these chopsticks yet, don't mind."

"No, no." Michaela Joules shook her head quickly. Seeing Charlie take the initiative to pick up food for herself, she couldn't help feeling a little shy like a girl.

At this time, Charlie took another piece of pork belly and put it on her plate, and said, "The goose stewed with pork belly is delicious."

"The pork belly itself is more delicious. You can try it too."

"In addition, the dried beans stewed in it is also a must. You will never eat this kind of dish in France!"

Seeing that the small plate in front of her was filled with food by Charlie, Michaela Joules was shy and moved.

She rarely ate alone with boys, so this was the first time that she felt cared for by the opposite sex.

So, she nodded shyly, and said, "Mr. Wade, don't always give me food, you haven't eaten a bite by yourself..."

Charlie said with a smile, "Don't worry, don't worry, I think if I use these chopsticks, I won't be able to pick up food for you!"

As he said, he gave her a piece of goose with skin, and said, "In fact, eating a big goose means eating the meat with the skin is the most fragrant. Try it!"

Michaela Joules nodded quickly, carefully put the piece of meat to her mouth and blew gently, then carefully tested the temperature with her thin lips, before putting it in her mouth and chewing gently.

It didn't matter if she tasted it, Michaela Joules' eyes suddenly widened.

She felt that the strong scent filled her mouth and taste buds.

The scent of this wood-fired iron pot was stewed for a long time, which she had never tasted in the United States.

Yes, it shocked her all at once.

After that, she couldn't wait to try the pork belly that Charlie gave her. This feeling of melting, fat but not greasy in the mouth even subverted her perception of pork.

But what surprised her most was the humble dried beans in the pot.

Because she couldn't imagine why the original crisp beans would become such a soft but tenacious taste, and it was delicious to tears.

Charlie didn't expect that this woman who came back from a foreign country would have such outstanding fighting power when she ate the big goose stewed in an iron pot, so he hurriedly called the chef again and used cornmeal to paste a circle of tortillas in the pot.

Never thought that it was this kind of simple whole grain pie, but Michaela Joules' cognition was reorganized again, and she was praised.

Charlie looked at the time while Michaela Joules was enthusiastic about eating.

It was already 7:30 in the evening. Although there were curtains inside, it could be seen that the sky outside had darkened.

Charlie felt that right now, it was almost the best time to act on the six-star warrior in the courtyard.

He planned to use the excuse of going to the toilet to leave the box, go directly to the yard, and control the six-star warrior as quickly as possible, and then let Don Albert directly load him in the car and take him away.

So he sent a text message to Don Albert and asked him to drive over now.

Don Albert was leading two of his men at this time, waiting on the side of the road two kilometers away.

After receiving Charlie's text message, he immediately instructed the subordinate in the driver's seat, "Drive, let's pass now!"

The subordinate immediately put up the gear and drove the car out.

Just when Charlie was about to find an excuse to go out, his mobile phone suddenly received a call from Wesley Drake.

At this moment, Charlie frowned slightly, and thought to himself, presumably Wesley Drake's intelligence network had information.

So, he picked up the phone directly, and naturally said to Michaela Joules, "Miss Lavigne, I'll go out and answer the phone."

Michaela Joules didn't doubt that he had him, nodded, and said, "Mr. Wade, please do it yourself."

Charlie took the phone and went out into the yard.

Therefore, Michaela Joules' driver and bodyguard, Louis Rogers, still stood motionless at the door of the Cadillac.

Charlie glanced at Louis Rogers.

He knew very well that as Louis Rogers's six-star warrior, as long as he connected to the phone, Louis Rogers would definitely hear Wesley Drake's voice and what he said on the phone.

However, Charlie calmly nodded to Louis Rogers, and then directly pressed the answer button, and said lightly, "Hey, Wesley, have you found the results?"
